TALK OF THE TOWN.

Mud and slush.

A little more snow last night.

The District Court resumed this morning.

A profession not overcrowded—street sweeping.

One vagrant was taken in by the police last evening.

Grand ball to-night at Jennings' Hall. Andrews' band in attendance.

The masquerader spoken of last evening, paid $10 for disturbing the peace.

A soldier, for drunkenness, was arrested yesterday and turned over to the military.

Mr. B. F. Cummings, editor of the Logan Leader, came down to Salt Lake this morning.

A storm raging in the east accounts for the paucity of dispatches this afternoon.

John W. Lowell, Esq., the well known wagon man, left for the east this morning on business.

Grand Relief Society ball at the 14th Ward Assembly Rooms to-night, for invited guests.

The Home Dramatic Club are busily thinking up a play in which to make their next appearance.

The funeral of little Carrie B. Margetts was held this morning at the parents' residence, 19th Ward.

The Enquirer says Provo is to be visited soon by a Salt Lake dramatic company. Who they are it does not state.

Associate Justice Emerson has gone to Ogden. He will return in time for the session of the Supreme Court on Monday.

From our Provo contemporary we learn that Professor Hamill has 50 pupils in that city, also classes in Springville and Spanish Fork.

A Provo correspondent writes that Miss Ada Dwyer, a young lady of this city, will give readings in Utah County, shortly. She is a pupil of Prof. Hamill's.

The number of persons who stop to knock at an editor's sanctum is far in excess of those who are required by law to do so.

Our enterprising townsman, David James, Esq., left yesterday morning for Liverpool on business. He will remain six weeks in England.

We have received an invitation to the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gates, of St. George, which was held in that city on the 5th inst.

N. W. Curtis, at the Deseret Shoeing Shop, is what some would call a "boss" workman. He is truly an expert shoer, and his work is neat and durable.

Judge Stephen P. Twiss has been officially assigned to the Second Judicial District. We wish the gentleman a successful career and the good will of all honest men.

The sidewalks were in a very interesting condition last evening. You could hear people falling down all over the city. You could also hear them when they were getting up.

Murray's handful of friends (?) are working hard to convince themselves that his action was honest and justifiable. Whitewash the sepulchre all you please, but a sepulchre it remains, full of corruption and dead men's bones.

One of the mules that draw the street car on First South Street fell down upon the track last night and utterly refused to be comforted. Whipping, pushing, and punching were tried in vain; at last unhitching did the business and the animal sprung to his feet and the car was soon under way.

"Gild the farthing as you will,
It remains a farthing still."
Rogues call righteous if you can,
'Twill never make an honest man:
Clothe him in a lion's skin,
It cannot change the soul within;
Let Murray roar as Murray may,
His roar is but a feeble bray.

Tho' dastards deem their leader brave,
His actions brand him as a slave,
And hand him down to future age,
A blot upon the Golden Page,
Pile high a monument of shame,
Undying as his evil name—
The synonym for coward crime,
Through all the changing scenes of time.

Personal.—President W. B. Preston, of Cache Stake, is in the city. He returns north to-morrow.

Abating.—The Logan Leader states that hoodlumism is abating in that city. That paper has been waging a well-meaning war with rowdyism for some time, and we are pleased to note that its efforts in this direction are not without good results. The boys have but to be taught better and have their errors shown up, and they will soon learn that to be respected and beloved by good people, they must behave themselves like gentlemen.

Some such action by our city authorities could be taken with much propriety.

Mortuary.—From Wednesday's Enquirer we take the following report of the sexton of Provo City for six months ending December 31st, 1880:

Died from the following causes as reported: Brain fever, 2; diphtheria, 5; cancer, 1; croup, 1; killed, 1; whooping cough, 1; heart disease, 1; consumption, 3; lung disease, 3; cholera infantum, 1; general debility, 2; old age, 1, lung fever, 2; inflammation of bowels, 1; child bed, 1; died at birth, 1; measles, 1; killed by accident, 1. Total 29. Males 17; females 12.

Two of the above were brought from other places for interment.

Shot Himself.—This afternoon, shortly after 2 o'clock, a young man named Lee Steinau, a native of Louisville, Kentucky, who has been here about a month, committed suicide in the shop of Joe Barker, gunsmith, on Commercial Street. He entered the shop and asked to look at some pistols, as though he intended to purchase, and first picked up a small cartridge pistol and afterwards a Colt's dragoon. This latter he asked Mr. Barker to load for him, and agreed if he did so, to buy it. The gunsmith did so, handed the weapon back and turned away for a moment to attend to his work. He heard Steinau revolving the cylinder, and on turning to look at him again, found that he had placed the muzzle of the pistol against his left breast. In another instant, and before Mr. Barker could prevent, he had fired, and without falling coolly laid down the weapon and started for the door. Mr. Barker and another gentleman immediately ran to him and assisted him out of the door and down the street towards the Wasatch Drug Store. When about half way there he sunk down and had to be carried the rest of the way. While in the drug store, after a doctor had been sent for, Steinau's brother entered the place and was weeping. The wounded man said, "Don't cry, I did it on purpose. I am tired of living," or something to that effect. It appears that he had had some disagreement with his brother, and this, with other misfortunes prompted him to commit the rash deed. He was soon afterward taken to his room, in a house at the rear of Walker Brothers' store, where, at last accounts, he lay in a critical condition. Drs. Hamilton and Bane are in attendance, and according to their belief the patient has not long to live. The bullet did not strike the heart, but passed through the left lung and inflicted a dangerous wound, which bled freely. The wounded man is perfectly conscious and can speak with comparative freedom.

Preventive Measures.—Silver Reef, which suffered so severely from the fire fiend some time ago, acting under the spirit of the proverb, "A burnt child dreads the fire," has issued the following sensible notice to its citizens. We clip from the Miner of the 5th inst.:

"The citizens of Silver Reef are hereby notified, that at a meeting of the Citizens' Fire Committee, Mr. Alfred Grant was instructed to examine all stove pipes in the town and to take prompt steps to have all defective ones put in safe condition.

All householders are requested to have all cedar bark and other inflammable rubbish around their respective houses, gathered together, so that it can be carted away by a wagon employed by the Committee for that purpose, also to be careful to put the ashes in an iron or tin box, so that there will be no danger of fire from that source

The Committee cannot too strongly impress upon the people of the town the necessity of at once taking preventive steps. Prompt action and very little labor may save us from another destructive fire. In addition to these reasons the Committee will state that, in all cases where ashes are loosely kept in any other than metallic boxes, the policies of insurance on the building are vitiated.

The Committee is advised that in all cases where defective stovepipes are maintained, and kept up, and when ashes are kept in wooden boxes, or carelessly thrown just outside the building, and when cedar bark and other inflammable rubbish is permitted to lie around the premises, an action for nuisance will legally lie, because these things not only endanger the property of the careless man, but that of his neighbors also; but the Committee may be allowed to express the hope that the good sense of every householder will obviate the necessity of resorting to legal measures to accomplish an end so much in harmony with the best interests of each and every householder in the town.

BY ORDER OF THE COMMITTEE.
J. J. HALPIN, Secretary.

Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar.

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult breathing and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption. This sovereign remedy is compounded from the favorite receipt of an illustrious physician and chemist, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice. He had long been profoundly impressed with the wonderful virtue of the plant Horehound, in union with the cleansing and healing properties of Tar, extracted from the life principle of the forest tree Abies Balsamea, or Balm of Gilead. For years he was baffled in his attempts to blend these great medicinal forces into such a union that the original power of each would be preserved, the disagreeable qualities of common tar removed, and the price of the compound be within reach of all. At last, after a long course of difficult chemical experiments, he found that, by adding to those five other ingredients, each one valuable by itself, he not only obtained the desired results, but greatly increased the curative power of the compound. This, having been thoroughly tested by practice, is now offered to the general public as a safe, pleasant and infallible remedy. Price 50 cents and $1 per bottle. For sale by all druggists. RESCUED FROM DEATH.

The following statement of Wm. J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our readers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a VIOLENT BLEEDING OF THE LUNGS followed by a severe cough I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughed at my friends, thinking that my case was incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to-day I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.

"I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with Diseased Lungs will be induced to take DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done more good than all other medicines I have taken since my sickness. My cough has almost entirely disappeared and I shall soon be able to go to work. Sold by all druggists.
