

DESERT EVENING NEWS.

Tuesday, November 13, 1904.

THE REPUBLICAN JUBILEE.

An immense procession, large meetings, many bands and much music.

The Republican jubilee was a colossal affair recently carried out, and Master-of-Ceremonies Tindley, who guided it from its inception to its close, was the highest position on the Continent last night and today.

They Are Not One.

St. Mark's cathedral was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding last night. The contracting parties were Miss Marie Louise Lewis, a young lady well known to the district, and Miss Lucy Weston, daughter of Captain and Mrs. H. J. Weston.

Lookout for Burglars.

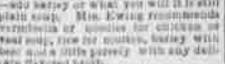

The freight housekeeper is again in the hot breakwater. Last night while Republicans were away from home celebrating their victory and when Democrats had abandoned their headquarters to watch their exit and jubilate opponents, that also a burglar made his appearance.

SAUCES AND SOUPS.

Subject of Mrs. Ewing's Monday Lecture on Cooking. The attendance at Mrs. Ewing's cooking class on Monday afternoon was somewhat increased, and the interest continued unabated.

and get fresh meat, and the steak of this house the lower and larger portion of the meat, are prepared for three reasons—first, they are the most tender, second, they are the most easily cut, and third, they are the most palatable.

Secured Shelland.

Outermost Lighthouse of a Storm-Driven Coast—Visitors Warmly Welcomed at Muckle Fingies. It is just possible to get beyond the reach of the telegraphic wire, and the desire of doing so may, perhaps, lead to an additional attraction to the most interesting excursion to be made in Shelland.

EXTRAORDINARY LITTLE MAKER.

—nearly the wildest and strangest ever constructed from the machinery of nature—leaves no room for thought of anything else. On the rocky, jagged side of the sea, the black precipice on which the lightning stands, its sheer face, instead from low to summit with a mountain of other things, was a little maker.

light with the colors of the prism, but when lighted all colors and shades were lost and light faded, so that, standing in it, you seem to be in the center of a globe of living fire.

AN OPENING WAVE.

Recently Mr. J. D. Thomas, of North Dakota, visited the interesting Valley, Virginia, and after carefully examining the valley, he returned to his home in North Dakota.

THE GREAT ONE.

It is a single impulse now to the Pacific from the light-house station, the head of the fifth, and there are many more to be made in it with an eye to the future.
