LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Thermometer 32 degrees F. in the shade, at 1 p. m. to-day. Some fog.

Crowded.—We ought to apologize to our numerous correspondents for the delay in the publication of their letters in the News, but the crowded state of our columns just now renders unavoidable the postponement of the publication of many eligible articles.

Third District Court.—This court was in session yesterday in the United States Marshal's office. Two men were admitted to citizenship. A number of motions were granted, and judgment by default was taken in several cases.

After having disposed of some business of minor importance, the court adjourned till Monday, Jan. 19th, at 10 a. m.

Personal.—Professor J. M. Collier, of Indianapolis, Ind., called to-day. He is on his way to Idaho, where he is assigned duty as government agent of the Nez Perce Indians. The Professor will remain in this city until Monday, having a desire to see and become acquainted with the objects of interest in this vicinity. He desires especially to visit the schools, having himself been engaged in teaching.

Fire.—About half past five o'clock last night a fire broke out in the cigar store belonging to Ed. Harris, on First South street. Mr. W. T. Harris, the father of Ed. Harris, was attending the store and while filling and lighting the lamps in a small passage under the stair-way, one of them, filled with Danforth fluid, burst. The fire therefrom communicated with a large can containing the same kind of fluid, and the whole passage was in flames, which burst through at both ends into the store and into a back room. Mr. W. T. Harris exhibited remarkable coolness and composure, and caught the can of the burning fluid and carried it outside, thereby cutting off that dangerous supply for the flames, but in doing so he was severely burned about his face and hands. As soon as the fire was discovered men rushed to help all they could, and carried water as quickly as possible to help to extinguish the fire. The alarm bells were rung, the firemen were quickly on the ground, and the engine came out in a very short time. But before the fire had time to spread, Mr. C. C. Asmusen came with his fire extinguisher, and did excellent service in subduing the fire. A very large crowd gathered in front of the store, and many rendered all the assistance they could. Some tobacco and cigars were carried away in the excitement, although the friends of Mr. Harris kept as close a watch as possible. Considerable damage was done to the stock of cigars and tobacco in the store by the water which was poured on the fire. The woodwork was considerably charred, and the cigar boxes on the upper shelves were all black, showing that the flames had extended nearly through the whole length of the store. The loss of Mr. Ed. Harris is probably about six hundred dollars, though he did not exhibit much concern for his own loss, but regretted exceedingly that his father was suffering from the injuries he received. Mr. Harris, sen., suffered severely last night, but Dr. Beredict, who was attending him, thought that he would soon recover. Mr. Ed. Harris expresses his thanks to the public in a card, published elsewhere, in which he thanks them for the assistance rendered him.

WANTS MORE JUDGES.—The Washington correspondence, Jan. 9, of the New York Herald has the following:—"As there does not seem to be much probability of the admission of Colorado as a State, this session of Congress, Delegate Chaffee is urging speedily action on his bill introduced and referred to the Committee on Judiciary a few days since for the appointment of two additional judges. This action will increase the number for the Territory five instead of three, as at present. It is said the cases in the courts growing out of mining matters and other litigation are so numerous that the present number of judges is inadequate to handle the business of the courts. It is claimed that there will be also an advantage in enlarging the Supreme Court of the Territories, three judges being appointed upon as small a number to constitute the higher Court of Appeals. If this was not a bad reason for this purpose an attempt would be made to increase the salaries of the Territorial judges, so that they should assimilate with the salaries of the United States district judges in the different States. In the mining litigation in these Territories the judges are frequently called upon to adjudge cases involving very large amounts."

Any reasonable citizen would be in favor of having a sufficient number of judges in a Territory to properly dispose of the judicial business thereof, and of their receiving a fair compensation therefor. But to require a forty-judge power, taking the obstructive class of judges, for example, such judges as some of those sent to Utah. In fact, one judge of this class is "a dose," which has anything but a healthy effect upon the public, who would be far better off without him.

Protestant Church.—In the case of the People vs. N. Castro, indicted for assault with intent to kill, the jury, after having heard the testimony and the argument of counsel, gave for the prosecution and Geo. W. Geo. for the defense, rendered a verdict of not guilty last night.

T. W. Callahan, indicted for seduction and adultery, and Thomas Butterwood, indicted for perjury, were both arraigned yesterday by their bondsmen, and committed to jail.

The jury were excused from further attendance until Saturday morning next, at 10 a. m.

Non-Mormon tax-payers.—At a meeting of "Non-Mormon tax-payers" last night in Husey's Hall, in this city, Mr. Joseph R. Walker, chairman, Messrs. R. H. Smith and R. H. Robertson, vice chairmen, Mr. Fred. Lockley, secretary, and Mr. Byron Groo, assistant secretary, the following resolutions were presented by the committee—H. W. Lawrence, C. C. Clements, Louis Cohn, John Chislett and J. M. Allen, were adopted:—"Whereas, the non-Mormon tax-payers of this city are now paying about one half of the city revenue in shape of licenses, and taxes, and whereas, they have not a representative in the City Council, although they have for many years contributed largely to the city treasury, and whereas, the council under existing circumstances, change this anomalous state of affairs, from the fact that their votes are neutralized by the votes of the Mormons, and whereas, municipal affairs are largely of a monetary nature, and should be administered to some extent at least, by the citizens of this city, who furnish the money, and whereas, our sense of justice and equity as freemen instinctively revolts against taxation without representation: Therefore be it

Resolved, that we, the non-Mormon tax-payers of Salt Lake City, do hereby petition the City Council, and ask them to admit us to a full representation in the City Council at the coming city election.

Resolved, that we do not, perhaps, number more than one-fourth, or one-fifth of the city tax-payers, the very large proportion of the revenue which we contribute should be considered in arriving at an equitable representation.

Resolved, that we cannot, with any respect for justice in the matter, ask for the nomination of less than one of the five city aldermen, and three of the nine city councilmen, by the people of the majority, but about one-half the number our payments to the treasury would entitle us to were representation based on amount of taxation.

Resolved, that one alderman and three councilmen be nominated by this meeting to represent our interests in the city government.

Resolved, that a committee of twelve be appointed by this meeting to confer with representative Mormons and to present to them the names of our nominees for insertion in the regular ticket at the coming city election."

Messrs. Robertson, Walker, Baslin, Gilechrist, Haydon, Barnum, Hooper, Connor, Hempstead, and Lawrence addressed the meeting. The following nominations were made:—"For Alderman, J. R. Walker, for councilmen, F. Auerbach, H. C. Goodspeed and R. N. Baslin. Mr. Gilechrist introduced a motion opposing the nomination of any man who holds a leading ecclesiastical position for Mayor of Salt Lake City at the coming election, which was defeated.

The following committee of conference was appointed, according to the resolutions:—Messrs. C. C. Wallin, C. K. Gilechrist, R. H. Robertson, Geo. Connor, Lewis Cohn, Chas. H. Hempstead, C. C. Clements, Samuel K. Kahn, Henry Lawrence, Fred Walker, John Cunningham and George Steele.

The meeting adjourned sine die.
