CHAPTER I.

"I was taken sick a year ago
With bilious fever."

"My doctor pronounced me cured, but I got sick again, with terrible pains in my back and sides, and I got so bad I
Could not move!
I shrunk!
From 138 lbs. to 120! I had been doctoring for my liver, but it did me no good. I did not expect to live more than three months. I began to use Hop Bitters. Directly my appetite returned, my pains left me, my entire system seemed renewed as if by magic, and after using several bottles I am not only as sound as a sovereign but weigh more than I did before. To Hop Bitters I owe my life."

Dublin, June 6, '81. R. FITZPATRICK.

HOW TO GET SICK. — Expose yourself day and night; eat too much without exercise; work too hard without rest; doctor all the time; take all the vile nostrums advertised, and then you will want to know how to get well, which is answered in three words—Take Hop Bitters! (5)

EVENING NEWS.

Thursday, - Jan. 24, 1884.

HER PRESENCE OF MIND.

The St. Louis Post-Dispatch says that a young lady from Cincinnati visiting a lady friend in the northern section of the city was quite certain the other night that she had at last bagged the bird. A party of four of them had been to the theatre, and upon their return home, the Cincinnati young lady retired to her room, humming in subdued tones:

"In days of old,
When thieves were bold
And handits held their sway,
A burglar bold,
With bags of gold,
Sang merrily his lay:
My love——"

At this point she saw half protruding from beneath the end of the bed a pair of men's boots. She did not scream or rush wildly from the room, but with great presence of mind branched off into a timid tremulous little whistle and walked around once or twice apparently unconcerned. Then she stepped out into the hallway, shut the door and suddenly locked it from the outside, in a moment she was down stairs in her friend's room with the startling announcement "There is a man under my bed!" Tableau! The gentleman of the house and a young doctor cousin who lived with them were aroused and given the startling information. Armed cap-a-pie, the two proceeded cautiously to the young lady's room and threw open the door. 'Twas true, there lay the monster burglar. The report of a pistol reverberated throughout the house. The smoke cleared away, but still the villain lay motionless. He must have been killed instantly. Approaching the foot of the bed the old gentleman grabbed one of the boots and gave it a jerk. He landed on his back in the middle of the room, still holding the boot stuffed with rags. A post-mortem revealed a bullet hole in the seat of his dress pants. His young son, who had evidently been reading "Peck's Bad Boy," thinks it mean that some fathers should lick a little boy just because he wanted to have some fun.

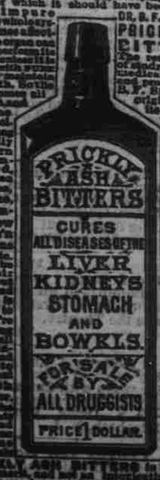
THE LIVER AND ITS FUNCTIONS.

It has become a well established fact that the larger portion of diseases to which the human family is subject arise in the first place from some derangement of the Liver. This organ is not only the largest, but at the same time one of the most important. The venous blood, on its return to the heart, passes through this organ, and in its passage the impurities, as also the secretions which are necessary for digestion as well as for a cathartic to assist in the removal of waste material, are eliminated. From this it is easily seen that the Liver is liable to get out of order to a greater or less extent, and when this occurs it is necessary for it to properly fulfill its office of removing all objectionable matter from the blood, but which passes through, carrying with it the poison of which it should have been relieved. When impure blood becomes affected, no organ can long remain healthy. The Kidneys become affected, no organ can long remain healthy. The Kidneys become affected, and when they fail to perform their functions properly, the whole system suffers. Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Boils, Pimples, Blotches, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Loss of Appetite, Nausea, Heartburn, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Coated Tongue, Pain in the Region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other symptoms, are the offspring of Impure Blood.



DR. S. F. SHERMAN'S PRICKLY ASH BITTERS. The result of years of study, experience and medical research of Dr. S. F. Sherman, its originator, and the success which has followed its introduction into the most prominent practice and the testimonials that have been received, is sufficient guarantee for its merits. Prickly Ash Bitters acts directly on the Liver, Kidneys, Stomach, & Bowels, in a mild but efficient manner, and is an excellent remedy to be used in connection with other medicines, as it is a purifier and tonic for children as well as adults.

PRICKLY ASH BITTERS is a medicine of real merit, and is a most refreshing beverage, and pure tonic, and is highly recommended as a family medicine. It is not intended as a cure-all, but for all diseases arising from impure blood, it is a specific and as a blood purifier it stands at the head of the list. It is a medicine that will cure disease, and after all other preparations have been tried in vain, it will give health and strength. Ask your druggist for it, and give it a fair trial, and if you are not benefited, he will refund the money for it.
