Last Friday the presiding Elder o the Josephile "church asked me for the meeting house here for Joseph Smith to preach in. I did not consent. He is to be here this week, and I believe he is to have the use of a school house My mind ran back to a speech ho made in an anti-"Mormon" meeting in Chicago two or three years ago, which was published in the Tribune of that enty a a copied by you. Sunday mora-ing (yesterday), one of the orethren brought me the copy containing th speech and your comments on the same. I had it read to the congregation, that the Saluts might know how Joseph Smith talks about us two thous-and miles away. On person had consented to let the Elechave the use of an apple orchard fo Smith to preach in, but in the after-noon (Sunday) sent him a polite note withdrawing the use or privilege of the orenard for Mr. Smith. I think it would he wise to publish that speech at the thore, as I understand that Mr. Smith is intending to visit the settlements and preach to all who will hear him.

JOHN BROWN, Since Mr Smith's advent our atten tion has been several times directed to his Chicago speech. No longer since than yesterday a gentleman showed u. a letter he had received from a young man in Arizona who had been conversation with a "doscphit Elder. The writer, it appears, spoto him of Mr. Smith's Chicago statiments, when the Eider frankly adm ted that if it were so that he made suc base and lying assertions he was up worthy of respect, or expressions : that effect. The writer of the afore suid letter also suggested the advisabinty of reproducing the notorical Chicago speech, and we are induced to comply with a desire that is doubtles more or less general.

The speech referred to was dellvereat one of the anti-"Mormon" must ings held in Chicago during the crusad aguation prior to the passade of "L Edmunds act. It was published in th Chica o Tribune of February 23d, 1882 It clearly defines Mr. Smith's positio

In the spirit of prevarication and against the spiri of a gospel teacher he persists in claiming that his father neither ces. taught ner practiced plural marriage but that the doctrine was subsequently introduced by Brigham Young. He assumes and defends this position in the face of overwnelming proof to th contrary easy of access. In this course he is evidently and pronouncedly a a wilful deceiver.

But the most perfidious part of his remarks consists of the horrible statement in relation to the destruction of female chastity by "Mormon' Bishops. If he was correctly reported he stands branded as a liar before the whole people of Utah, including even the anti-"Mormon" portion of the community, who know that among no other people is female chastity regarded with more sacredness. And even in the courts during the present raid it was openly proclaimed by District Attorney Dickson that with the Latter-day Saints the associations of the sexes were confined within the marriage relation, and that they unqualifiedly condemned all sexual sins.

In the Chicago anti - "Mormon" meeting Mr. Smith was introduced as Bishop Smith, and as "a man who had suffered more in the cause to be discussed than any other man on the face of the earth." But what he has suffered in that connection would puzzle the most penetrating mind to discover. The following is the report of the speech :

"With a few introductory remarks, Bishop Smith said the question whether Congress may or may not pass such laws for the suppression of polygsiny as will have effect and be equal to the e nergency which seems to exist, is on t ist is engrossing the earnest though of the nation.
