THE CHRISTMAS NEWS

FOR 1901.

A UTAH-COLORADO EDITION.

The Christmas edition of the "News" this year will be printed on Saturday, December 21, 1901. It will contain an exhaustive review of the year's developments in business, mining, commerce, real estate, building, and all other branches of business, and will form the most elaborate compilation of Utah which has ever been issued.

Our sister state, Colorado, and its industries and attractions will be well represented in the issue, many beautiful views of Denver and Colorado scenery being given. A big part of the edition will be circulated in Denver, and Colorado's principal cities.

Especially attractive articles will be prepared by a corps of selected writers, and leading men of the community will contribute timely articles on current topics.

As the holiday number will be issued several days ahead of Christmas, it will form an invaluable advertising medium to local dealers for the Christmas trade. The general advertiser could find no better means for reaching the people of the great west. The "News" will plow a circulation of at least 20,000 copies for the Christmas issue. Special rates will be accorded advertisers who wish their notices printed in the Semi-Weekly News as well, giving them a total circulation of nearly 45,000 copies.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

A new order is posted up in the barn of the Consolidated Railway and Power company, directing carmen not to leave their cars running and not to leave them without instructions.

A benefit ball for the aid of the unfortunate family of Leo Gove will be given in Russell hall this evening. The friends of the family are making an effort to have the ball a big affair.

Four hundred and seventy-five soldiers passed through this city yesterday in two special trains over the Rio Grande en route from Columbus barracks to the Presidio at San Francisco.

Captain Charles Stanton has been transferred by the postmaster general from Omaha to San Francisco, a change he has very much desired. He will spend a few days in Salt Lake on his way through.

A meeting for the purpose of promoting the idea of establishing a county high school was held at Crescent hall, last evening. Addresses were made by County Superintendent Ashton and Senator Hilditch.

The rural delivery route that will extend from Riverton south almost to the Jordan narrows and west to Herriman and Butterfield gulch, will be instituted on January 1st. Express delivery will be made by mail and will go over the route once a day.

Gov. Wells has announced the appointment of J. C. Knowles of Logan to supervise the expenditure of the special appropriation of $2500 for the roads of Cache county, and of John E. Brown, of Kanab, to supervise the expenditure of a similar amount in Kane county.

Vernor Hulse, the 12-year-old son of J. H. Hulse, an engineer who lives at 4th and Main streets, died yesterday of diphtheria. The mother had been away from her child since Saturday and finally when death took him she went into hysterics of grief that has thrown her into a precarious condition.

Rev. Dr. Wishard says the reports that got into the daily papers recently, claiming that the Rev. Dr. Wishard was leaving his wife and child to go to the city, are untrue. He is working in his home.

This morning Officer Smith found a lady's purse on the crossing between the Theater and the opposite corner of 1st and Main streets. The purse contained a book of car tickets with the name "Emma" written there. The owner was sought for by the officer.

NEW SINGER SCORES A TRIUMPH.

Miss Emma Lucy Gates of Provo Storms the Hearts of a Big Audience on the Occasion of Her First Appearance at Tabernacle.

A scene of enthusiasm that is rarely witnessed in Salt Lake occurred at the Tabernacle last evening. Professional singers and actresses who for years have been complaining that playing before Salt Lake audiences was like trying to melt so many icicles, while they have been opening could they have beheld the tumultuous applause bestowed upon the latest of our young songstresses to enter the professional arena, Miss Emma Lucy Gates.

Of course, there is a certain allowance to be made for local pride and the warmth of personal friends, but making every allowance for this, and speaking from the standpoint of the most impartial critic, it must be said that Miss Gates scored a triumph. She gave eight numbers during the evening, all of the most exacting character, and some of the most selections in which the world's greatest sopranos had been heard on the same platform. But she broke through the ordeal without a break or a flaw. She was greeted with a ring of applause after every number, and at the close, when the audience was dispersing and she returned to the platform to gather up the flowers which had been tendered her, the whole choir of four hundred voices joined in a big chorus of applause.

DOCTORS HAVE DISCUSSION.

Report of Doctor M. A. Hughes Sets Pot to Boiling.

The County Medical society met last night and proceeded to stir up the natives. The feature of the meeting was a discussion which arose over a report by Dr. M. A. Hughes in relation to the charges of unprofessional conduct that were preferred against one of the members of the city, Dr. Wilcox was the first to accuse Dr. Jones of unprofessional conduct. But the committee that was appointed for the purpose, investigated the matter thoroughly and decided that Dr. Jones was not guilty of any blame in the affair; that the patient went to the hospital of his own accord and that Dr. Wilcox knew nothing about Dr. Jones' having attended him. The committee then turned the matter over to Dr. Hughes to make a report, which he did in a manner not satisfactory to him. The substance of the report is contained in the following summary:

First—Dr. Jones was too premature in bringing the matter before the society.

Second—It would have been better if Dr. Jones had been more conservative; if he had waited until ascertaining all the facts.

Third—It was a mistake to make imputations against the staff of the Holy Cross hospital, since Dr. Wilcox was not a member of that staff.

Fourth—Dr. Wilcox acted in good faith, and was not guilty of intentional unprofessional conduct.

Fifth—It was to be regretted that the discussion at the last meeting brought out adverse criticism of the hospital staff.

Sixth—Dr. S. Ewing ought to state to his own staff that he was not a member of the staff, so that the others might be relieved from suspicion.

Seventh—Dr. Jones protested that he had no charges against anyone but had only brought the matter up to serve as a text for a discussion on ethics. He earnestly urged the rejection of the report after some warm passages, was done.

Dr. Mayo then announced that arrangements for the annual smoker, to be held about the 1st of December, are being made and showed the delicious menu that has been prepared.

SALOON AT DRAPER.

Many Residents There Are Bitterly Opposed to It.

Whether or not a liquor license will be issued to Phillips Brothers of Draper is a question which will probably be decided by the county board tomorrow morning. J. W. Fitzgerald and a number of other residents of Draper are bitterly opposed to the opening of a saloon at Draper. The hearing has been set for 10 o'clock in the offices of the county clerk, and both sides will present their views.

Gould himself and one-third interest held by Spencer, Trask & Co., who were the heaviest holders of Colorado & Southern stock, did not know who was responsible for the heavy dealing in the stock. The buying was by a half a dozen brokers, and in the open market. The stock went up 20 points in one day.

The buying was for George Gould. He was adding to his holdings of the stock.

There was a reactionary movement in the stock, and within a few weeks there was an unexplainable. Since then there have been spasmodic movements in the stock, all of which have been engineered by Gould in his efforts to get a control of the Chicago & Southern.

As soon as Gould had entrenched himself in the Colorado & Southern in the open market, the one-third interest held by Spencer, Trask & Co., was turned over to Kuhn, Loeb & Co., Gould's bankers, it is said.

With the one-third interest that came from the Rio Grande Western and with the stock he bought in the open market, Gould is said to be in position to make further raids on the Colorado & Southern.

There is a Gould's connection with the Colorado & Southern have been in circulation for months, but they have been met with emphatic denials from Gould himself and from officials of the road. President Trumbull has also strenuously denied that Gould has had anything whatever to do with the R. G. W. It is said that Gould will not be identified with the Colorado & Southern. It is said his idea was to have the property and thereby preclude any possibility of its falling into the hands of parties antagonistic to his interests.

Railroad men familiar with the situation do not believe that Gould will be a public point of view, become identified with the Colorado & Southern. It is believed that it will be operated just as it has been.

The fact that Gould is the master of the Colorado Midland and Colorado Southern and railroad men say that there is now no remote possibility of the Colorado Midland being in any kind of combination, as frequently reported.

SECRETIVE MAIPULATION.

Little Wizard of Intermountain Traffic Has a Hand on the Colorado Road.

The story of how Gould got into the Colorado Southern is a repetition of how he secured the Colorado Midland. It is another story of clever and secretive manipulation.

The Denver Post says: The Rio Grande Western Construction company owners of A. L. Rio Grande Western properties and allied properties, own a little over one-third of the stock in the Colorado & Southern. This is a fact not generally known. Gould, however, knew of it when he began his scheming for securing the Rio Grande system. In this, as in the Colorado Midland deal, Spencer, Trask & Co., the New York bankers, took in the Rio Grande Western holdings for Gould.

Immediately following the Rio Grande Western deals there were sensational movements in Wall Street of Colorado & Southern stock. The buying was by a half a dozen brokers, and in the open market. The stock went up 20 points in one day.

The buying was for George Gould. He was adding to his holdings of the stock.

MAJ. BURGOON IN TOWN.

Old Time Railroad Man Visiting in Salt Lake City.

Major I. H. Burgoon an old time railroad man well known in this country, is stopping at the Cullen from his home at Fremont, Ohio. He is here on his way to enjoy himself and renew old acquaintances," he said this morning, "and in three days I have been in town I have seen a good many old friends and have enjoyed myself very much. The major was superintendent of the Utah Central in 1894-'95, and was Mr. MacGregor's right hand man. He has been railroad for forty one years and before coming to Utah was with the Lake Erie and Western, the Terre Haute & Peoria, and other roads. Since leaving Salt Lake he has been superintendent of the Louisville Central, Carthage & Memphis railway, and besides has been building a road in Missouri and Arkansas. An eastern paper recently said of Major Burgoon: "He is a man of the highest caliber, a 'round railroad man' in this country, and has been identified with some of the leading roads in the country. During his stay in and out of the country, he has been by his gentlemanly manner and uniform courtesy won a host of friends who will be sorry to see him depart. The major has a fine home at Fremont, Ohio, and he is expected to spend the remainder of his days in peace and comfort."

Rio Grande Western earnings for the first week in November were $100,400, an increase of $35,000. For the period of the fiscal year, July 1st to November 7th, the gross reached $1,570,547, an increase of 127.14.

The Rio Grande passenger office in Denver wired City Ticket Agent Benoit of this city today to reserve Pullman accommodations on next Sunday's round trip train for eight wealthy New Yorkers.

The Salt Lake office of the Santa Fe has just received copies of a new and well illustrated pamphlet entitled "To California in a tourist sleeper," showing that travelers can enjoy themselves just as well and as comfortably in a tourist sleeper as in one of the big Pullmans.

If the present speed is maintained in the conduct of the survey through the Meadow Valley wash, it is estimated that the road will be completed in about three weeks so that construction can be resumed early in the year. Sixteen miles have been gone over, leaving ninety miles yet to be surveyed.

The latest railway rumor touches the local department of that branch of the service. It says President George Gould of the Missouri Pacific and kindred railways, contemplates the transfer of B. P. Waggoner to the Denver & Rio Grande, with headquarters at Denver. Mr. Waggoner is at present general attorney of the Missouri Pacific for Kansas, Colorado and Nebraska, accepting the Fort Scott & Wichita in
