

the same time, giving people that parchy, dry feeling that is anything but pleasant.

A good shower would be acceptable.

Discharged and Held.—To-day Mr. Richard Anderson was under examination before Justice Clinton, on a charge of assaulting with intent to kill Mr. Rogers at Bingham Junction. He was discharged on the "intent to kill" part of the charge, and was held in $200 to appear on Thursday next and answer to the charge of assaulting Mr. Rogers with intent to do him bodily injury.

Monroe.—We had a pleasant visit this morning from Bro. Jas. Farmer, of Monroe, Sevier Co., from whom we learn that about four-fifths of the people in that settlement of country had entered into the United Order. The crops are all in, and looking well, with good prospects for a plentiful harvest. The working of the Order, so far, has given general satisfaction, under the judicious leadership of the Bishop of that Ward.

For California.—Messrs. C. R. Savage and Geo. M. Ottinger expect to leave this City on Saturday morning for the Pacific Coast, the main object of their visit westward being to obtain views of California scenery. Mr. Savage will take a number of photographs of shipping and Mr. Ottinger will bring back with him a number of marine views of which to make paintings, in which line of art he has very marked ability.

They expect to be absent about ten days, or perhaps longer.

The Emigration.—We are happy to say that we have been able to secure the benefit of a reduction in the fares to New York for the first company, which we hope will continue throughout the season. Of this the Conference Presidents will be fully advised by circular.

We are strongly impressed with the idea of sending a company this season by way of Philadelphia, in the hope of securing cheaper through rates, of shortening the distance, if possible, and demonstrating the other advantages which are claimed by the Agents of the Philadelphia Company in favor of that route.—Millennial Star, May 5.

The Trip to Provo.—The excursion party to Provo got back to the City yesterday afternoon. The affair was got up in compliment to General Doniphan, besides whom a large number of citizens, on invitation of President B. Young and the officers of the Utah Southern Railroad, participated. The party had a most agreeable time. While at Provo they visited the woollen factory and partook of an excellent dinner at Mr. S. Kimball's.

The men who have done kind or noble actions and been friends in deed, because in time of need, to the Latter-day Saints, are retained in grateful remembrance in the hearts of that people, and among those whose memory will be long cherished is General Doniphan. Long may he live and prosper.

The Vegetable Market.—Perhaps it is not generally known that the people of Bountiful have a co-operative association, the object of which is to supply the vegetable market of this City with every thing in the line as fresh and good as it can be got anywhere. The soil of Bountiful is admirably adapted for raising the primest of vegetables in abundance and their enterprise in endeavoring to supply the Salt Lake market in a co-operative capacity is commendable, and already they are doing a thriving wholesale business. Brothers Briggs and Ashby are the agents of the association, and their stand is in the City Market building.

They send around their market wagon to the houses of customers every morning, and where two or three neighbors combine, they are enabled to give the consumers the benefit of the lowest prices, besides the advantage of having their vegetables delivered to them fresh.

Pardoned.—Yesterday Warden Rockwood was notified, by official document from the Governor, that his Excellency had pardoned Fred Stockfield, who has been serving out a term of imprisonment for the crime of grand larceny. The pardon gives as the grounds for the extension of gubernatorial clemency that Stockfield has a wife and several children, who are much in need of his labor for their support.

Now Fred. is something of a hard case. This makes the second time he has been pardoned from under the Warden's care, and on the 25th of December last he made his escape from the Penitentiary and was subsequently pardoned. Besides this, he was the leading cause of a good deal of trouble among the other convicts during the fore part of last winter. Altogether, Warden Rockwood is of opinion that of all the convicts under his charge he is the least worthy of pardon, if good conduct should be the standard upon which it should be granted.

When not under the guardianship of the Territorial Warden, Fred. has frequently been a member of the City prison chain gang.

When these facts are considered it will not be a matter of surprise if the twice pardoned convict returns again to his old practices, and should this be the case the party preyed upon will have good grounds for laying his misfortune or loss to the misdirected clemency of Governor Woods. It seems to be the plain duty of the Governor, before exercising so important a prerogative as the pardoning power, to take every proper means to satisfy himself of the worthiness of the object upon whom such favors are bestowed.

Stockfield was set at liberty this morning.

Our Country Contemporaries.

Ogden Junction, May 25—

A branch of the United Order was organized at Slaterville, on Sunday last, with the following officers: Thomas Richardson, President; Wm. Fields, Vice President; Edwin W. Smout, Secretary; John Knights, Treasurer.

On the 23rd instant a branch of the United Order was organized at Plain City, the following officers being elected: President, Lewis W. Shurtliff; Vice-President, J. Carver; Secretary, J. Spiers; Assist. Secretary, George Bramwell; Treasurer, Wm. H. McGuire. Directors: Peter C. Green, Peter Folkmann, Alonzo Knight.

Last Sunday a branch of the United Order was organized at Willard City, with the following as officers: President, G. W. Ward; Vice-Presidents, John P. Wood, and George Facer; Secretary, T. W. Brewerton; Assist. Secretary, Wm. Lowe; Treasurer, Charles Hubbard. Directors: William Ward, George Harding, Homer Call.

Yesterday, Ether McBride and John Hiatt were going up Ogden Canyon, on their way to Eden, with a yoke of cattle and the running gears of a wagon. They were behind, driving some cows. A horse was hitched to the hind end of the wagon, and the harness was fastened to one of the bolsters. Just as they reached Hancock's Mill the oxen turned right into the river. One of the forewheels caught in the timbers of the dam, the wagon came uncoupled, and the hind end, with the horse, tumbled headlong into the roaring flood. One ox also fell into the river, while the other, the yoke coming loose, was held by the tongue of the wagon and was drowned.

The two men started to stop the cattle when they saw what was the matter, but were unsuccessful. They ran down stream and managed to get the horse out when the halter strap broke, but the portion of the wagon and the harness were hurled from rock to rock, and the former dashed to pieces. The harness may be found by some persons; if so, it is hoped they will restore it to the owner, Ether McBride.

The saved ox crossed the river and there remained. A person living in the canyon near where the accident happened, actually refused to lend the men a rope to haul out the ox and a portion of the wagon.

The oxen were the property of Thos. Durfee; the wagon belonged to Ether McBride.

THE WAR-SHIP OF THE PERIOD.—The last addition to the British navy, the Inflexible, seems to reach the limit of the weight and power which it is possible to float. The armored part of the vessel is 110 feet long and seventy-five feet wide, rising ten feet out of the water. Attached to this, but completely submerged, is a hull of the ordinary form with a ram bow. This is the fighting part of the ship. On the top of it is an unarmored structure rising twenty feet out of the water which gives shapeliness, seaworthiness and comfortable quarters for the men and officers. The armored part carries plates of iron twenty-four inches in thickness. The vessel is divided into 127 water tight compartments so that she could not be destroyed by torpedoes. She carries four eighty ton guns in turrets. She will steam fourteen knots an hour.—Ex.

RED MEN IN HEAVEN.—When Mr. Commissioner Taylor told Little Raven, chief of the Arapahoes, something about heaven and hell, and that "all good men, white and red, would go to heaven, and all bad ones to hell," the chief laughed heartily in the face of the commissioner. On being asked the cause of his laughter, Little Raven said—

"I was much pleased with what you said of heaven and hell, and the characters that would go to each after death; it is a good notion, heap good; and if all the whites are like the ones I know, when Indian go to heaven but few whites will trouble him there; pretty much all go to the other place."

TO BISHOPS AND OTHERS.—For the benefit of those who desire a complete and faithful record of their families, when born, blessed, confirmed, etc., in their respective wards, and with a view of securing uniformity of information under suitable headings, a Bishop's Record has been carefully compiled by the authority and sanction of the bishops and the leading men in Israel, and as such is recommended, hoping the bishops and brethren of wards will avail themselves of a correct record that may be handed down to posterity.

Respectfully yours,

L. W. HARDY,
