EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

PRESIDENT YOUNG'S TRIP SOUTH.

Sept. 22, 1898.
This morning the drive was made to FAIRVIEW.

This is a romantic country through which to travel, and the situation of this settlement is most picturesque. But it is in an exposed position in times of Indian difficulty. It is surrounded by what in this mountainous country we would call low bluffs, which are covered with a thick growth of cedars, and it is open on the north to trails through the mountains which are easy of access to and commonly traveled by the Indians. But the locality is a valuable one for an outpost. Indians making a raid upon any of the settlements of Sanpete, and attempting to escape to the North, can be headed off and intercepted here by the use of the telegraph line, as they must pass out of the valley in the vicinity of this settlement. They have a good, substantial fort here to be used for defense in case of necessity. The meeting was held in an unfinished stone meeting house, and Presidents D. H. Wells and Joseph Young and Elder Woodruff spoke to the people.

MOUNT PLEASANT.

The drive to this place was accomplished in about 45 minutes, and we had the finest demonstration and the most numerous turn out of adults and children that we have had outside of Salt Lake city. These people are comely and very healthy looking, and the children are bright and intelligent. With such a generation as we see growing up here it is easy to perceive that there is a great future for Sanpete. We selected the following inscriptions from the banners which the children carried—"The Priesthood of God rule for ever;" "Legal Heirs to the Priesthood;" "We will be ready for the Glorious Future;" "We will obey our Parents and Teachers;" "Purity is the Pride of Israel;" "Mount Pleasant Female Relief Society, organized May, 1898."

A very fine arch of evergreens was erected across the principal street, and evergreens had been brought from the mountains and planted at intervals on each side leading towards the arch, on the top of each one of which little flags of "red white and blue" fluttered, making a very pretty and gay appearance. On one side of the arch the inscription was "Welcome to Mount Pleasant" with the bee-hive in the center, the whole tastefully arranged and beautifully painted. On the other side were the words "Our Mountain Home." One of the flags carried at the head of the Sunday School was very elegant; it is the finest we have seen in the Territory. In the center was the figure of Wisdom instructing a child. The inscription on it was "Mount Pleasant Sunday School, organized July 30, 1895." Upon the arrival of President Young at Bishop W. S. Seeley's, the children sang, under the leadership of Elder George Farnsworth—whose exertions have done much towards making the Sunday Schools here a success—"We thank thee, O God, for a Prophet," etc.

These Sunday Schools should receive the hearty encouragement of parents. We were sorry to hear that there had not been that interest manifested by parents and others in the progress of Sunday Schools that should be expected from the great benefits they are calculated to bestow on the children. Superintendents and teachers should not be left to do everything themselves; for, however zealous they may be, their zeal will wear out if they find their labors are not appreciated by parents.

THE MEETING.

An avenue of evergreens was planted from the street to the bowerly, where at 4 p.m. a very large congregation had assembled. Elder Geo. Q. Cannon, Presidents D. H. Wells and Orson Hyde and Elder Joseph W. Young were the speakers.

Early this morning we visited the cabinet shop and furniture factory of Bro. Paul Dellin at Mount Pleasant. This establishment is a credit to the place, and we think Bishop Seeley and the people are justly proud of it. Bro. Dellin is a young man, and had but little means with which to commence his operations. However, he had skill, perseverance and a determination to achieve success, and he has built up for himself an extensive business. His furniture is as good as can be made out of the materials that can be obtained in this country, and he makes it a rule not to let exceptional work go out of his shop; it has another merit, it is cheap. The consequence is he has orders to fill from all parts of the country. He has sent furniture from his shop as far north as Pleasant Grove, Utah county, and as far south as Parowan, Iron county. He contemplates making a considerable addition to his premises this Fall. The benefits of such a factory are perceptible in almost every house. The people's taste is gratified and convenience of a good quality are multiplied around them.

We rolled out from Bishop Seeley's hospitable quarters at about 9 a.m. and drove to SPRINGTOWN.

This is the place at which President Orson Hyde is located, and from its appearance it would scarcely be thought that it had been so recently abandoned by its inhabitants to obtain greater security at more densely populated settlements against the attacks of the Indians. A two hours' meeting was held here, during which Elders Joseph F. Smith, John Van Cott, Joseph Young, Wilford Woodruff, Geo. Q. Cannon and Pres. D. H. Wells addressed the people. After partaking of the hospitalities of Pres. O. Hyde and the citizens of this place we drove to FORT EPHRAIM.

The reception here equalled that of Mount Pleasant. There were two arches, between which the people were drawn up on each side of the road. As the carriages drove between these living walls the playing of the bands, of which there were three: a martial and two brass bands—one of the latter the Mount Pleasant band, which has traveled with us since our arrival in the valley—the waving of flags and banners, the firing of the cannon and the glad welcoming of the people formed a scene that was most exciting and will not soon be forgotten by those who witnessed it. The meeting house, a fine stone building, and a large stone school house and the bowerly, are within an excellent stone fort which covers about 2½ acres of ground. The fort has port holes and bastions; on the top of a bastion a man was stationed with a spy glass as a look out, a precaution which is constantly taken to prevent surprise. Night and day a watchman is kept in this look out. The stock belonging to the place is kept a few miles distant to the west. The herdsmen have piles of brush prepared there ready to be kindled in case of an attack from Indians. In the night the man in the look out can see the flame, in the daytime the smoke; and give timely warning to the people. This fort was built within three weeks. The stone here is most excellent building material, quarrying out in square blocks of any desirable size.

A public dinner was prepared for the company; after which a School of the Prophets was organized, and a public meeting was held in the Bowerly, at which Elders Dunford, Joseph W. Young, John Van Cott and Pres. D. H. Wells spoke.

Presidents Young and Wells and some others were invited to Canute H. Brown's, who entertained us most royally. As soon as it was fairly dark he had his front garden illuminated with colored lanterns, and in the center there was a large transparency on which the President's name appeared in large letters. The effect was most charming. While admiring this display our attention was called by our host to the end of the house, where we saw a grand torchlight procession of silver grays—the old gentlemen of the place were coming with mammoth torches to escort President Young down to the evening meeting. We have seen torchlight processions, but this one was ahead of any thing we ever saw; it was really grand. The glare illumined the whole country and must have caused the people of Fountain Green and Moroni to think we were having a conflagration here. The bands were also present, and the leader of the martial band, Bro. George Quinn, favored the company present with a very humorous comic song, which was much applauded.

GENERAL.

Boston.—The Republicans of the fifth Massachusetts district, to-day, nominated Ben. F. Butler for Congress. He received 175 votes, four scattering; the nomination was subsequently made unanimous.

Portsmouth.—Abner Greenleaf, formerly editor of the New Hampshire Gazette, died to-day, aged 83 years.

Washington, 24.—The Alabama delegation, with Gov. Smith, had an interview of several hours duration with the President to-day, being introduced by Senator Fowler. The situation of affairs was freely discussed. The delegation expressed themselves perfectly satisfied with the President's assurances of military aid in case of necessity. They will have another interview with the President and Secretary of War, to-morrow.

Wheeling.—Business is entirely suspended this afternoon; the citizens, generally, uniting with the city officials in paying the last tribute of respect to the police and firemen killed by the falling walls on Sunday.

Bethlehem, Pa.—Henry Dolts, a brakeman, was killed, and several others in this place were injured to-day, by a passenger car being upset on the Pennsylvania railroad.

New York.—Advices through army sources, from Marshall, Texas, say the State, in that neighborhood, is overrun by robbers, and that all the roads are unsafe except for considerable armed bodies. A band of freebooters, numbering 110 men, well armed and mounted, are roaming through the country. About the 5th inst., they captured forty government wagons, loaded with supplies. The commanding officer at Sulphur Spring, Texas, which is garrisoned by a small company of the 26th Infantry, had sent an express to Gen. Hayden, commanding at Marshall, stating that if not reinforced, his garrison, which was surrounded, would be slaughtered. A company was sent to his assistance.

Newark.—Four English miners were instantly crushed to death on Thursday, by the falling in of a shaft in a iron mine at Mount Hope, New Jersey; they were buried on Sunday, an immense crowd of miners attending the funeral.

The Avalanche's Helena letter gives an account of an attempt made by the Sheriff and posse to arrest a negro desperado in that vicinity, who made a desperate resistance, severely wounding the Sheriff and several others, and then escaped to the woods. Soon, fully a hundred men assembled, and scouring the woods, succeeded in finding the negro, whom they hung to a tree.

General C. Hindman, formerly of the Confederate army, was assassinated while sitting in his own house in the midst of his own family, at Helena, last night. Hindman was smoking his pipe, his left hand, which was holding the pipe, being carried away by the charge of buck-shot. A man who formerly served under Hindman, has been arrested on suspicion of committing the deed.

Pittsburg.—An immense democratic mass meeting is being held to-night; Frank Blair is addressing the masses, and German speakers are also addressing the people. There is great enthusiasm, fireworks, &c.

New York.—A procession of 500 shoemakers paraded and banqueted to-day, in honor of St. Crispin.

Only four members of the Chamber of Commerce assembled to-day, on a call for a meeting to devise means for the relief of the South American sufferers.

Cincinnati.—The Plichu tunnel, on the M. C. & R., which caught fire some days ago and which has since been burning, caved in yesterday, and buried two men. While the construction engine was backing up to the scene of the disaster, it ran over two hand-cars, near Athens, containing eighteen men, instantly killing five, and injuriously wounding three others, two of whom are not expected to recover.

Salem, Mass.—Ben Butler made a speech to the Republican Convention to-day, accepting the nomination. He referred to those who opposed his nomination, classing them with Lee, Forrest, Beauregard and Booth, charging them with raising $40,000 to defeat his nomination, which he considered equivalent to his election. He recommended these malcontents to send their money into some doubtful State. He considered those who opposed him as deserters from the Republican party; he said the party should be managed as an army, and should welcome recruits and shoot deserters. He denied the rumor that Grant opposed his election. He spoke at some length on the finance question.

Richmond.—A train on the Central Railroad, with three hundred of the 29th Infantry aboard, bound for Tennessee, from Washington, ran off the track near Gordonsville, killing four and wounding a large number.

San Francisco.—A fire at San Andreas, Calaveras county, Sept. 25, destroyed sixty buildings; less, seventy-five thousand dollars.

Buffalo.—The fire which occurred this evening was occasioned by the bursting of a gaspipe in the basement of the Commercial Advertiser office. A large five story building was destroyed, occupied by Matthews & Warren, proprietors of the Commercial Advertiser, and an extensive job printing office; also Adams & Co.'s wholesale tobacco manufactory, and Clay, Cusack & Co., lithographers; the entire loss is about a hundred and fifty thousand. Matthews & Warren's loss is a hundred and ten thousand, of which sixty-eight thousand are insured.

Washington.—The opinion of Judge Boynton, of Florida, in deciding not to grant a writ of habeas corpus for the release of Mudd and the other conspirators, has been received. The grounds on which the application rested were that the court which tried them had no jurisdiction, and that the proclamation of last July included them for pardon. The Judge found that the offense was a military one, and was properly tried by a military tribunal, and that the proclamation was to pardon those guilty of treason, but not of assassination, nor those guilty of barbarous treatment of prisoners.

It is believed in official quarters that Jeff. Davis will not be tried at the October term of the United States court in Virginia.

Atlanta.—The bill declaring freemen ineligible for office, was tabled for the present in the Senate; it prevents the common carriers discriminating on account of color.

The bill preventing the formation of military companies was passed.

At the Democratic meeting on Saturday night, Gen. Gordon said the south longed for peace, and whatever might be the result of the coming election the south was acquiescent in the will of the United States, expressed through the ballot box, and proposed to submit peaceably to all laws imposed by authority of the government.

Augusta.—Returns from all the towns and cities of the State, mostly official, give the following as the result for Chamberlain 75,627; Pillsbury 55,456. The aggregate vote is 131,082; Chamberlain's majority 20,172.

Chicago, 29.—General Hubbard, and Mr. Donnelly the opposing Republican candidates for Congress in the second Minnesota district, each claim to have received the regular nomination, and submit their claims to a committee to abide their decision.

A fire in Jonesville, Wisconsin, yesterday, burned five stores; loss $25,000. State fairs are being held this week in Wisconsin, Iowa, Indiana, Minnesota and Kansas; the weather is delightful and prospects promising.

Mrs. Anna Wallace Young, a married lady, of Richland County, Wisconsin, was brutally murdered on Wednesday by a young lad named Neville, 15 years old, who had been working for her father-in-law. The murderer fled, but was captured on the Mississippi river, and was brought back on Saturday. After the funeral of the murdered woman the crowd took the murderer out of jail and hung him.

Philadelphia, 28.—During the political parade to-day, as the rear of the invincibles was turning the corner of Leveret and Chestnut streets, a collision occurred with the Keystone Democratic Club, in which pistols were freely used, and several persons injured.

New Orleans.—Governor Warmouth's veto of the Negro Equality Bill was sustained in the House to-day; the vote was a tie.

FOREIGN.

Paris, 28.—Count Walewski died yesterday, aged 58 years.

The Alfonso has the following from Spain. Alfonso City, with a population of 30,000 people, in the Province of Alicante, has revolted. Three ships appeared on Sunday, off Cartagena, supposed to be part of General Prim's fleet. Marshal David of the royal army, is still recruiting. It is reported that the town of Leon has pronounced for the revolution; it is also reported that Saragossa has rebelled; General Jean Pasiegas and Count Pagan were killed.

New York, 28.—The Alaska brings Panama dates to the 19th. The Star and Herald say the prospects for peace on the Isthmus are not very bright, there being already discontent with the new government. The cereal crops in Guatemala were seriously affected by want of rain; also in Nicaragua. The fever epidemic was disappearing from San Salvador.

London, 28.—Advices from Spain, to-day, confirm the reports that the insurgents are marching in force on the capital. The Royal troops, sent to Santander, have orders to return to Madrid for the protection of the capital. The revolution is rapidly progressing in the interior. The city of Valladolid has pronounced against the Queen. The revolt has already extended into most of the provinces into which Old and New Castile are divided.

London, 28.—The following is the very latest from Spain: The city of Cartagena has been bombarded by the rebel fleet.

Gen. Prim has gone to Valencia. The Marquis de Novaliches, commander of the royal troops in the field, is retreating before the advance of Marshal Serrano.

Paris.—La Patrie says the situation of Spain is grave; the rebels are gaining strength every day, while the efforts of the government to withstand the torrent are evidently weaker. The last ship of the Spanish navy has joined the rebels. All reports indicate that public opinion throughout the kingdom favors the revolution; the portion of the army which still remains faithful to the Queen is disorganized, and little dependence can be placed in it.

Berlin.—The Emperor Alexander, of Russia, visited the King of Prussia, yesterday, at Potsdam; to-day he departed for Warsaw. The King of Prussia left for Baden to-day.

Paris.—Pinard, Minister of the Interior, has forbidden the passage of Spanish exiles through France, on their way to Spain.

Montreal.—It is reported that the President of the Grand Trunk Railroad has received instructions from England to close the road from Richmond to the River Du Loup, in consequence of the loss it entails.

A dispatch from Halifax says there is growing dissatisfaction among the repealers at Mr. Howe's course; he is very reticent, and does not contradict the report of having accepted the situation.

Died:

In the 14th Ward, in this city, Saturday, 26th inst., Daniel Williams, son of Edward and Emily Stevenson, aged 18 months and 5 days, of cancer and teething. The funeral took place at the residence of the parents on Sunday, at 1 p.m.

In the 6th Ward, Sept. 23, of inflammation of the bowels, Andrew Peter Materson, son of Natalie and Andrew Peterson, aged 4 months and 8 days.
