THE EVENING NEWS.

Friday, - - - - - January 27, 1871.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THE LECTURE.—Remember the lecture at the Tabernacle to-night, the fourth of the course on astronomy, by Professor O. Pratt. Time of commencement half-past six.

THE BENEFIT.—Last night, at the Theatre, the attendance was very fair and the playing good, on the occasion of the benefit to aid the Salt Lake Exchange and Reading Rooms.

NEW ATTRACTIONS.—The indefatigable managers of the Theatre have two new attractions underlined: the great spectacular drama "The Ice Witch" and the "Lonely Man of the Ocean."

WALKING MATCH.—To-morrow afternoon a walking match, against time,—fifty miles in thirteen hours, commences in Agricultural Park, Sacramento. The walkist is J. Sewell Maxwell. The entire proceeds raised from the exhibition are to be given for the benefit of the Orphans' Asylum.

GET THEM EARLY.—All who purpose seeing the last great sensation produced at the Theatre—"The Lost Ship"—should see about procuring tickets as soon as the Box Office opens to-morrow. The storm at sea, with incidental thunder and lightning, and the sinking of the doomed ship are excitements which should be seen to realize their extent.

SOLD OUT.—Mr. H. J. Faust, proprietor of Faust's livery stables, has sold out his stock-in-trade and has rented his stables to the Messrs Benham Bros., of the Sweetwater Stage Line; they will carry on the business as usual. H. J. F. will hereafter devote his time, attention and talents to raising and importing stock.

HOT FROM THAT IMPORTED SEED WHEAT.—Farmers and others desirous of procuring the finest quality of seed wheat for their agricultural operations the coming Spring should remember that Z. C. M. I. has just imported a quantity of the Simon pure, first class article from California. The stock imported comprises three varieties:—"The White Exestior," "White Mediterranean" and "White Club," and they are a sight for the agriculturist. Splendid articles and no mistake about it!

RAILWAY ACCIDENT.—There was an accident on the Utah Central road last night. The freight train for Ogden ran off the track at Sessions. Of four oxen in the way two were killed, and the other two so badly injured that they had to be killed. Four cars loaded with ore were badly smashed. No further injury, beyond delay, was caused by the accident.

ST. CHARLES.—Bishop John A. Hunt, of St. Charles, Rich county, called this morning and gave a report of his field of labor. He left home on Wednesday morning, and went to Evanston, seventy-five miles, by team, and thence to this city, 115 miles, by train. He states that there was some sickness and a few deaths last fall at St. Charles, chiefly among the children. The winter has been remarkably mild, and there is not snow enough now for sleighing.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT AT LEHI.—Brother Southwick, from Lehi, called in this morning with the information that, on Tuesday last, Bro. Wm. S. S. Willes was brought home from a saw-mill in American Fork Canon with his left thigh broken and his foot badly bruised—so much so that Dr. Roberts, who was promptly in attendance, found it necessary to amputate the big toe. He was working in the mill at the time of the accident and was reaching over the saw frame for an oil can, when he overbalanced and fell between the saw and frame; his body was wedged in so fast that it stopped the saw, and the men who went to his relief were some twenty minutes extricating him. Bro. Willes was a member of the "Mormon Battalion," and was one of the first to discover gold in California, in 1847.

Brother Southwick gives a good report of Lehi; the people are enjoying good health, and are preparing for their Spring operations in the field. The snow has almost disappeared from that locality.

"THE PROTECTOR."—There is a good deal of talk these times about life insurance, and quite a number of gentlemen, agents for different Insurance Companies in the east and west, have visited our city, and advocated the merits and superior claims to popular patronage and support possessed by their respective companies. But although there has been a good deal said, and some pamphlets distributed, very little interest has been created in the subject, for the people, as a general thing, are totally ignorant of the principles of life insurance. All who feel at all interested in the matter, and are desirous of becoming acquainted with its intricacies, may do so by subscribing for a new paper, to be called The Protector, about to appear in New York. It will give special attention to life insurance, which it will discuss in a simple, popular way, with the view of satisfying the public demand for information on the subject. In addition, in order to make The Protector of general interest to families, miscellaneous reading matter on health, etc., will form a prominent feature. Each number will also contain a story written for The Protector by a popular author. The editor is Sidney Ashmore, and the publishers W. C. & F. P. Church, 39 Park Row, New York.

ADVICE GRATIS.—The Junction, of Wednesday, contains a little advice to a class in Ogden, which would apply to certain individuals here as well. It is in reference to ill-mannered persons intruding themselves upon society where they are not wanted, i. e., attending parties when uninvited, and hopes they will not intrude again, but if they do, trusts the managers will stop the intrusion promptly, and not allow their friends to be imposed upon. The cause which drew forth this, was an intrusion of a few of the class referred to among the company assembled at a ball recently held in that city; and, besides, at the close of the ball several hats were missing, and the owners had to go home with their heads tied up in what looked like night caps, but which were supposed to be pocket handkerchiefs. Those who abstracted the hats for sport were politely requested to return them, and were informed that some of them were known, and that failure to comply with this hint would bring consequences they did not calculate upon.

The article closes with a suggestion that at parties some competent person should take charge of clothing not needed in the ball room, ticket each article, give the owner a check, and not let the article go until the ticket be returned. This plan was adopted at the 12th Ward Party the other night and was attended with the best results; the party was crowded, but we heard of no difficulty about clothing.

MONTANA ITEMS.—The Helena Gazette of the 21st has an account of a horrible murder committed in that city the night previous. The victim's name was Nellie Montgomery, and she was the keeper of a house of ill-fame. The supposed murderer was a man named J. A. Hanson, a Frenchman, the owner of a ranch somewhere near Helena. The deceased and he were quarreling and drinking together the night of the murder, she accusing him of robbing her, and threatening to have him arrested. Next morning she was found in the agonies of death, her brain oozing out of her temples from wounds inflicted with a knife or dagger.

Hanson has been arrested, but denies all knowledge of the matter.

At Unionville, on the 19th inst., two miners quarrelled, and, to settle their difficulty, they agreed to fight a duel with revolvers at fifteen paces. They and their seconds met, but just as the ground was measured off a number of the friends of both the belligerents interposed and would not allow the shooting match to proceed, each party carrying off his man.

The Herald of the 21st, says that John Hanson has been discharged, he having proved an alibi. A negro named George Dickson, the principal witness against Hanson, whose evidence was very conflicting, was detained in custody, the suspicion being that he was the murderer.
