

Deseret Agricultural and Manufacturing Society.

G. S. L. CITY, Feb. 5, 1859.

Pursuant to public advertisement in the "Deseret News," the members of this society met in the Social Hall at 2 p.m.

Mayor A. O. Smoot was called to the chair by a unanimous vote, and R. L. Campbell was requested to act as Secretary.

The chairman stated that as the business of the meeting was the election of a President and Board of Directors for the year 1859, he would leave the meeting open to the members, that they might nominate such persons as in their estimation were qualified to discharge the onerous and responsible duties which would devolve upon the Board; he said, he should not attempt at this time to expatiate on the beneficial results produced already in this Territory of the society—and the large and increasing field of usefulness which lies before them, but should give way for the introduction of the business.

It was motioned by Dr. Sam'l L. Sprague that Edward Hunter, Esq., be the President of the Board of Directors of the D. A. & M. Society for the year 1859, seconded by Mr. L. S. Hammenway, and carried unanimously.

Dr. Levi Richards, motioned that Messrs. Willford Woodruff, Charles H. Oliphant, W. C. Staines, Seth M. Blair, Lorenzo D. Young and John R. Winder be the Board of Directors of said society for 1859, seconded by M. W. G. Mills and carried unanimously.

In consequence of the condition of the room &c., it was deemed advisable to adjourn until Monday at 6 p.m. R. L. CAMPBELL, Secretary.

To the Seventies throughout the World!

It is hoped that this timely notice will be duly heeded and attended to immediately.

By order of the Council of the Seventies,
JOSEPH YOUNG, President.

JOHN B. MAIBEN, Clerk pro tem.

P. S. It is wished, if practicable, that one or more of the Presidents of each Quorum would attend our weekly councils, held on each Saturday at 1 o'clock, p.m., at the Seventies' Council Hall in this City.
