FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

"Deborah," to-morrow night, at the Opera House, by Madame Januschek. One night only.

A lady lost a fan while attending the funeral at the Seventh Ward School house on Sunday. It is brocade, black on one side and has colored flowers on the other. The finder will confer a favor by leaving it at this office for the owner.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

A Hot Place.—Miss City, Montana, is a horrible place. Last week it had a $100,000 fire, a man committed a rape and was hanged by the citizens, the roughs arrayed themselves against the better class of the people but the things were somewhat subdued by the shooting of their leader. At last accounts order had been restored, but, fearing an outbreak of the roughs, the citizens were under arms.

Appreciated.—We are requested by Brothers John W. Andrew and Jonah Croxall to express, through the columns of the News, their deep appreciation and heartfelt thankfulness of the relatives of the late Richard S. W. Andrew for the sympathy exhibited and numerous acts of kindness manifested by many friends and acquaintances and the public generally in their hour of trial and bereavement.

Benefit Fund.—Superintendent O. P. Arnold, of the Street Railway, is interesting himself actively in circulating a subscription list among the stockholders of the company, and giving an opportunity to officers generally to create a fund for the benefit of the family of the late R. S. W. Andrew. Mr. Arnold informs us that, as a large number have expressed their desire to contribute for the object specified, the list will be left for a few days with Mr. L. S. Hill, Cashier of the Street National Bank.

Juvenile Burglars.—Last night, two young boys—William Padlock and Joseph Natrasse, were arrested on a very serious charge. It appears that about dusk in the evening they burglariously entered a house in Little's Row, and stole a number of articles of jewelry, including very valuable gold chains. The thieves, in their hunt for valuables, turned first in the house generally to the jewelry. They were not only arrested, but all of the property taken by the juvenile burglars was recovered. The boy Padlock is one of the four lads who, a short time since, was convicted in the police court for stealing shoes from the store of Solomon Bros. & Co.

Funk's Lake.—We learn from Brother Charles Musig, of Pettyville, Sanpete County, that D. B. Funk, proprietor of Funk's Lake, so named by the late A. P. Rockwood, has lately built a small steamboat, about 32 feet long, with a capacity for holding about 25 or 30 people. The vessel is propelled by a three-horse power engine and works nicely on the lake. The boat has been built especially for fishing purposes, but will also be used for pleasure sailing. The lake is artificial, formed by running the waters of Six Mile Creek into a basin. It is half a mile square and the proprietor, who is one of the pioneers of Utah, has planted two acres of trees around it. It is pleasantly situated about a mile from Pettyville and five miles south of Mant.

State Robbery in Idaho.—The Idaho World has the following details of the robbery perpetrated a few days ago near Boise:

Yesterday morning between 8 and 9 o'clock, just after the stage had crossed Henry Creek, about four miles from the place, and between here and Centerville, a man in the truck, with a handkerchief over his face and hat tied down, presented a double-barreled shotgun at the driver and in a very excited manner cried out: "Hand out Wells, Fargo & Co's express box, or you'll have to back against double-barreled shotgun and three Henry rifles." The box was thrown out, when he cried out, "Drive on, Mr.," and the driver did drive on, and at a lively rate, making his time half an hour earlier than usual. On the arrival of the stage at this place, the town was thrown into the wildest excitement, and all as soon as possible, say 20 minutes, Sheriff Gorman, Bill Paxton, Wells, Fargo & Co's messenger, Jas. McQuillan, Chas. Smith, the robbed stage driver, and perhaps others, started in pursuit of the robber. There were at the time of the robbery three passengers on the stage, viz: Rev. J. K. McKim, of this place, to whom we were indebted for the facts, Mr. McKim, of Granite Creek, and a gentleman traveling in the interest of F. F. Body & Co., of Salt Lake, and San Francisco, none of whom were armed.

Arrivals From Ireland.—This morning we received a call from Elder John A. Sutton, who arrived last evening in charge of the company of Saints from Ireland whose journey from Liverpool occupied sixteen days and was prosperous both by sea and land. All the members of the party arrived in good health, notwithstanding the fact that one Sister was ill on shipboard, that when she landed at Castle Garden the physician expressed the opinion that she would not survive if she were taken along on the train. She is now not only alive but well and hearty. The party is composed of healthy, fine-looking people. Their destiny is Spanish Fork, where quite a number of their countrymen are already located.

Elder Sutton, who is a resident of Paris, Bear Lake county, Idaho, left for England in April 1892. He received an appointment to labor in the Nottingham Conference, where he remained until his release, operating in the Leicester and Hacknall districts. He has a successful mission, and was instrumental in baptizing quite a number into the church.

ANOTHER ROBBERY.

A POOR WOMAN LOST SIXTY DOLLARS.

A middle-aged married woman named Scofield is employed to do general work at the restaurant and boarding house of Mrs. Crocher, Commercial street. This morning, shortly after the breakfast hour, some person entered her sleeping apartment up stairs, opened her trunk and stole sixty dollars, in gold pieces, which were wrapped in a red stocking. From the time the money was known to be stolen, only its place until it was stolen, only two persons had been up stairs. One of these is M. C. Dawson, a man rather advanced in years. As soon as he found that the theft had been discovered, he tried to prevail on some one to help him to get his trunk out of the house, as he wanted to leave, notwithstanding the fact that he had engaged board for a week. He was arrested on suspicion of being connected with the robbery and placed in jail. The other suspected party is a young man, a companion of Dawson's, and at last accounts he could not be found. It is believed he had left the town.

Mrs. Scofield is in great distress at the loss of the money, which had been handed to her by her husband for safe-keeping, he being disabled at present with a lame foot. She is in mortal terror of his wrath when he discovers the fact of the robbery.

The Surrender of D. P. Rich.—Yesterday Col. Joseph C. Rich withdrew the deposit he had made to secure the appearance of his brother David P. Rich to answer to a indictment that might be found against him by the grand jury. Col. Rich feels that in giving the necessary bail for David's release he acted a brother's part, and from the solemn promise he made to reform his life, he was led to believe that the young man would endeavor to do better. The course of the accused during the interim of liberty accorded him has dispelled whatever confidence existed as to the probability of his career changing for the better at least at present, and has led his brother to the unwelcome conclusion that he is either completely abandoned or of unsound mind. In furnishing bail Col. Rich feels that he did his duty to his brother, his relatives and satisfied his own feelings on that subject, and in surrendering the accused he also performed a duty he owes, under the circumstances to the same parties and to the general public. He does not, however, intend to abandon him in the largest position into which his personal conduct has led him, but will set up and operate in his behalf the best legal defense within the scope of the law. Those are the views of Col. Rich on the matter of this article, and we have his authority for their publication.

Col. J. C. Rich sends the public now to suspend, so far as they can, any positive opinion and let the law take its usual unprejudiced course, and to this we add our entire approval.

Something from Grantsville.—We learn from a Grantsville correspondent that, in accordance with a week ahead by Elder P. M. Lyman, of the Quorum of the Twelve, the Rev. J. J. Gillman and the Rev. Peter Franklin, Methodist preachers, delivered discourses from their religious standpoint, in the Grantsville meeting house, on Sunday, July 23d. The meeting house was filled with attentive listeners. A discourse was also delivered on the same occasion, by Elder William Jeffery, explanatory of the views held by the Latter-day Saints.

The same correspondent describes the manner in which the 24th was celebrated at Grantsville, the proceedings being in every way in keeping with the occasion.

The Stake Conference, held July 23 and 24, was a very instructive and highly interesting gathering. Of the First Presidency, George Q. Cannon and Joseph R. Smith, and of the Quorum of the Twelve, P. M. Lyman, besides Elder George Stringfellow, from this city, were present. The teachings of the brethren were pointed, clear and appropriate, and the Saints rejoiced in the presence of a goodly degree of the Good Spirit.

A pleasant feature mentioned by the correspondent was a joint meeting of the Tooele Juvenile Band and Grantsville Band, who fraternally partook of a dinner together in the City Hall of Grantsville.

The Mexican Mission.—By courtesy of Brother Helman Pratt we were enabled to peruse a letter addressed to him from Elder A. W. Ivins, now laboring in Mexico. He writes encouragingly, although missionary work in that country is, at present, necessarily of slow progress, requiring indispensable labor and incessant watchfulness. There is a steady increase, the volume of which is sure to enlarge by degrees. For instance, the number of baptisms during the entire year 1892 was eleven. Thus far during the present year the additions have been thirty-four, showing that the Elders are gaining ground. The letter was written at the City of Mexico, where circumstances require that Elder Ivins should spend the greater portion of his time. Elder Milton Pratt was located for headquarters at Ogunaba, a village about 80 miles distant, from which point he was within easy reach of several little towns where the brethren had small congregations. Elder Ivins was looking forward with pleasant anticipation to the time when he expected to be joined, sometime during the approaching autumn, by Elder Helman Pratt.

Y. L. M. I. A.—The regular monthly meeting of the officers of the Y. L. M. I. A. will be held next Saturday, August 4th, at 11 o'clock a.m., at the residence of Mrs. E. S. Taylor, one block and a half west of Cliff House. All interested are invited to attend.

MARY A. FREEZE.

Railroad Collision.—A collision took place on the U. P. Railway, yesterday, 29th, about two miles west of Aurora, between two freight trains, caused by the conductor of the westbound freight misreading the signal, which was a red flag. The result was two locomotives demolished and several cars smashed considerably, the damage being estimated at $15,000. The engineer of the westbound received a severe scalp wound, but not serious. The passenger express due here at 7:40 Sunday morning, did not arrive here until 9 o'clock Monday morning. Ogden Herald.

Another List.—In addition to the steps taken by Mr. O. P. Arnold in the same direction, we learn that Messrs. Auerbach & Brother have taken the initiative in circulating a subscription list for the benefit of the family of the late R. S. W. Andrew, among the members of the Hebrew fraternity of this city. The firm mentioned has headed the list with fifty dollars. We understand it is intended to introduce the paper to the attention of other parties besides Jewish citizens.

LIMITED EXPRESS.

FROM CHICAGO TO BALTIMORE, WASHINGTON, PHILADELPHIA AND NEW YORK OVER THE GREAT FORT WAYNE AND PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE.

Runs at uniform rate of speed, making few stops and accomplishing the distance (312 miles from Chicago to New York) in less than twenty-six hours. Modern railroad traveling has now become so luxurious and easy that the public have a matter of course comfort, which only a few years ago were scarcely dreamed of, or, at all events, were in embryo. So much so does this tendency prevail that it is almost impossible to excite anything beyond a languid and temporary interest in even the greatest strides taken by any railroad corporation to enhance the comfort of its patrons. But even the most indifferent can sometimes be taken aback, and confess their surprise and gratification in finding the palatial accommodations provided on this "Chicago and New York Limited." Among the most notable of these features we may mention first and foremost, the dining cars, specially built for service on the "Limited" fast trains, which for elegance and convenience are unequalled. These cars are not merely repositories on wheels, on which cooked victuals are stored, but are perfectly appointed restaurants in which meals are served on the table with a uniform rate of $1 per head from bills of fare, which, as regards the wide range given for selection, cannot fail to please the most fastidious taste. Every day breakfaster's hearts will be found the smoking cars, which are liberally furnished with comfortable seats, movable and easy arm-chairs, canopy stools, card-tables, together with a well-selected library of popular works, and a writing table, supplied with writing materials, all at the free disposal of passengers, and letters and telegrams will be forwarded en route by the conductor, on application. The train is composed exclusively of Pennsylvania, Pullman and Pullman sleeping cars, which run through from Chicago to Baltimore, Washington, Philadelphia and New York, and such is the demand for accommodations that berths have to be secured well in advance. The dining room sleeping cars are so efficient in the extreme. There can be no question that this route will outstrip all others in its trains are combined all the comforts and conveniences of a first class hotel, and passengers are saved the annoyance of hastily bolted food cooked and served in a draughty and uncomfortable depot, aside from the fact that the time ordinarily devoted to this purpose is now profitably employed in devouring space.

The "Limited" leaves Chicago every day at 5 o'clock p.m., reaching Pittsburgh, 6:57 a.m.; Baltimore, 5:10 p.m.; Washington, 8:40 p.m.; Philadelphia, 5:15 p.m.; New York, 7:25 p.m., next day.
