LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THERMOMETER 48 degrees F. in the shade, at 1 p. m. to-day. Storming around.

Fined.-F. Lutz, saloon keeper, was fined $50 yesterday, for selling liquor last Sunday.

Gamblers.-Yesterday afternoon, four gamblers were fined $100 each, by Justice Clifton, for plying their unlawful vocation.

Eighth Ward Meeting.-Elder George Halliday is expected to preach at the Eighth Ward Meeting, to-morrow, Sunday, evening. Services commence at half-past six o'clock.

Lost.-Between the Globe Bakery and the 12th Ward Co-op. Store, a bunch of dark brown curls. The finder will oblige the owner by leaving the same at this office.

Called.-We had a call to-day from Mr. Phineas H. Young, who informs us that all is peaceful and prosperous at Kamas Prairie. The crops are mostly in the ground and stock is doing fine.

A Savage Dog.-Charles Stevens was arrested to-day for keeping and refusing to kill a vicious dog, which had bitten several children. To-day it jumped upon and bit a boy named Frank Barton in the face. Stevens was discharged on condition that he at once kill the savage beast.

Restore It.-A lady lost a pocket book last night, on East Temple Street, between First and Second South Streets. It contained ten cents, a return railroad ticket from Provo, and some papers, of value only to the owner. The finder will confer a favor by leaving it at this office.

More Stealing.-Last night, after dark, some party stole a trunk, containing a quantity of ladies' wearing apparel, from the residence of Brother Milton B. Shipp, 11th Ward. Brother Shipp believes the trunk was taken away in a vehicle, as wheel tracks were seen near the house this morning. The trunk was taken from the porch in front of the house.

On a Bender.-Two men coming out of a saloon on Second South Street, this forenoon, appeared a little giddy, perhaps caused by the dullness of the day. One of them unlatched a "nag" from a post, and both mounted. In a short time the quadruped was seen riding, careering in an easterly direction, while the brace of bipeds were floundering in the mud. They each blundered the other as the cause of their downfall, and if the names which passed between them were legally theirs, they were well supplied with patronymics. It was plainly seen that although not on horse-back, they were on a "bender."

Procession.-That Firemen's torchlight procession, last night, was a fine affair. The men dressed in their regular uniforms, formed two deep, each carrying a torch, while the engines, hose-carts, &c., were plentifully decked with Chinese lanterns, and the "Stars and Stripes." The whole presented an attractive picture, and crowds of people lined the route of the procession to witness it. It was headed by Captain Beezley's martial band, which enlivened the proceedings with divers sweet and stirring strains. Along the route a continuous stream of rockets of various hues were let off, increasing the excellent effect. The time occupied in the circuit made was about one hour. The fire-brigade is a useful corps, the turn-out last night proves that it can be ornamental also.

Just as the procession had returned to the engine house, the ominous black clouds above broke into a hail and rain storm, dispersing the assembled spectators in a hurry. There was a brisk run in all directions.

Conference.-To-morrow, Sunday, will probably be the last day of Conference, and there is likely to be a vast audience.

Farmers' Friends.-Z. C. M. I. has had a great show of vehicles and agricultural implements of various kinds during this Conference time.

A Good Time.-The present is a grand, good time meteorologically. The splendid showers of last night, the night before, and to-day, are worth hundreds of thousands of dollars to farmers, gardeners, and the community generally.

Narrow Escape.-Yesterday morning B. H. Goddard, a fourteen year old son of Brother George Goddard, was severely kicked by a horse in his father's stable. He managed to crawl into the manger, and thus probably saved himself from being more severely injured. He was rescued by his father, who was also kicked by the animal, but not severely injured. The boy had no bones broken.

Lost Her Money.-Last night, while Mrs. Edward Legrone, of the 8th Ward, was observing the progress of the firemen's torchlight procession, she discovered that her pocket book, containing about forty dollars in greenbacks, was missing from her pocket. It is barely possible that she dropped it in some way, although she has reason to believe that her pocket was picked by some person in the crowd around her. In case, however, that she dropped it, the finder will know who the rightful owner is and can return it.

Flying Fish.-Two little fellows had an altercation on East Temple Street to-day. One of them was carrying a basket on his arm, laden with "suckers." At a certain stage of the proceedings, as if by mutual consent, both aimed themselves with "fishy" missiles, and for a short time the "dainty tribe" were sporting through an element not their own. The weapons used, not being of a deadly nature, though dead enough of themselves, the damage sustained was but slight.

Errata.-Elder O. Pratt sends the following:-

"SALT LAKE CITY, May 9, 1874.

"Editor Deseret News:

"In examining last evening's News, I discovered three errors in the report of my remarks in the Tabernacle on the 7th inst. In the fifth line read 1850 for 1831.

"In speaking of the time of the organization of the church read 6th day of April, instead of the 6th day of the same year.

"Towards the last of the report, instead of reading 'but few,' however, of those who were at Kirtland would be left; &c., it should read, but few, however, of those who were driven from Jackson County, would be left, &c."

Vinson, Crosbie, Sawtelle, Thorne, and Lindsay. The entertainment will commence with the popular farce of "Sketches in India," in which Amy Stone will appear as "Sally Scraggs," Mrs. Douglas as "Lady Scraggs," Mr. Stone as "Tom Tape," Mr. Crosbie as "Pop-Lin," Mr. Thorne as "Sir Matthew Scraggs."

On Monday evening, a grand complimentary benefit to Mr. T. A. Lyne, when the romantic, heroic play of William Tell will be presented, and a portion of the tragedy of "Hamlet," by distinguished amateurs.

On Tuesday evening, Mrs. V. Woodhull will lecture in this Theatre.

Suicide.-An inquest was held by Coroner Taylor this morning on a woman in the 11th Ward, who was found dead.

At the inquest, Alex. McKimney testified that Hugh McKimney came to him about 7 or 8 o'clock and informed him that a woman named Christiana Jacobsen had been found dead in her bed in one of his apartments. Said that she had come to him some time ago to be rebaptized, which he had done. This was about all that he knew about her until she was reported dead this morning.

Mary Ann Hawkes, late of London, England, 70 years of age, and residing next door to deceased, testified as follows:-

"Night before last I saw deceased, as she seemed low spirited. She went out waiting for a living. She lived alone. I think she has two children in the Territory, a son and daughter. I called her about 6 o'clock, but she did not answer. I supposed she had gone out. During the night previous I had heard her high voice loud once or twice, but did not see her until this morning. I did not go to see her again until this morning, when I found her lying, as you saw her, dead. I took hold of her hand and found it cold. She had a beautiful woman, kept everything neat and clean. I think she was about 50 years of age. Has been married to a man named Jorgen Jacobsen."

A bottle of laudanum, containing about a quarter of an ounce, was found by her bedside and a teacup, from which she had evidently drunk a considerable quantity. She left also a note, written in the Danish language, dated May 7, 1874, in which she says she is tired of life and that she wishes "the Lord and the people to forgive her for taking her life." She left $4.00 in greenbacks and a few household effects, and some certificates of marriage, etc., addressed to Bishop McKimney. Everything about the premises was neat and clean and she had evidently washed and dressed herself with care previous to taking the poison.

The jury returned the following verdict:-

"(TERRITORY OF UTAH, Salt Lake County.

"An Inquisition held on Salt Lake City, Fifth Precinct, on the 9th day of May, A. D. 1874, 12 M., at the house of Hugh McKimney on the body of Christiana Jacobsen, there lying dead, before Geo. J. Taylor, Coroner of said county, by the jurors whose names are hereto subscribed.

"The said jurors on their oath do say, that on or about the 7th day of laudanum poison, self-administered, while suffering depression of spirits.

"The testimony whereof the said jurors have hereto set their hands the day and year aforesaid.

"JOSEPH EDMONDS, "FRANK PETMAN, "ROBERT EDMONDS, "Geo. J. TAYLOR, Coroner."
