SEMI-ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

To the Officers and Members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints:

You are hereby invited to attend meetings which will be held in the Large Tabernacle in this city, at 10 o'clock in the morning, and 2 o'clock in the afternoon of Thursday, Oct.
5th, 1883, preparatory to the Semi-Annual Conference, which will commence at 10 o'clock on Friday morning, October 6th, 1883.

GEORGE C. CANNON,
JOSEPH F. SMITH,
First Presidency of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.
Salt Lake City,
Sept. 26th, 1883.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The volcano Sieramine in the interior of Japan, after a 70 years silence, broke out in a violent eruption last month.

The population of France increased only 776,000 in the last five years.
It is now 37,672,000. Of this number Paris has 2,209,000.

In most of the precincts last evening there was a very large attendance, and a praiseworthy interest was manifested in the questions of the hour.

Even up to this late date there are no signs of the "anarchy" which was to follow the August election.
And, mark it, there will be none except those that may be created by the attempt to fill vacancies which do not exist.

The thoroughness with which the Canadian Journalist occasionally gathers the news may be inferred from this brief extract from the Brookline Recorder of recent date:
"The Governor-General's hair wants whitening. He passed west yesterday for Toronto, and we had chance to see the back of his head only, and his hair is altogether too long."

A public Sunday performance in Lima last month consisted of a terrific fight between two bull dogs and six large cats that were shut up together in a cage. The sport came off in one of the public squares and was witnessed by a large multitude, who enjoyed it by way of variety, much more than a bull fight. Most of the spectators had been to church in the morning.

Miss Kreamer, a young lady living near Helena, Ark., has twenty-two acres planted in corn, and eleven acres planted in cotton, and will make forty bushels of corn to the acre and a bale of cotton to the same amount of land. She did all the plowing and has attended to the crop without assistance so far.
This is recorded to be a "Mormon" what a cry would go up about the oppression of women in Utah!

The stampede of Barnum's elephants in Troy, N. Y., Aug. 3d, has resulted fatally to the unfortunate people who happened to be in the way of the infuriated monsters.
Mrs. Patrick Burns who, with her husband, was attacked by the elephant Emperor, has died of her injuries, her husband cannot live, and Mrs. Langley, another victim, is dying. Patrick Conlon, who was poked up by the elephant and thrown across the street, has sued Barnum for $5,000 damages.

A novel international exhibition, and one with a most practicable object, has been arranged at Amsterdam to open in May, 1883, and continue until October of that year. Its design is to stimulate commercial relations between European countries and their colonial possessions by exhibiting the exportable articles of the one, side by side with the indigenous products of the other, together with all the means and apparatus to facilitate an exchange.
The King of Holland will "patronize" the affair. France, Belgium and Germany have applied for considerable space. England is also taking a good deal of interest.

Every man, woman and child in the United States has, according to the census statistics an average income of fifty cents per day; and each one's average expenses for the same necessities of life, amounts to forty-five cents per day. And yet the death of a man in Boston is this week reported, who left three million five hundred and fifty-five thousand dollars behind him on his death, aged ninety-two years. According to the census he should only have saved up one thousand six hundred and seventy-nine dollars and all the balance represents other people's moneys. Evidently the census is wrong or the last nine decades were better adapted for making money than this.

The Prussian government, alarmed at the continued tide of emigration, has been seriously considering what means to adopt for checking the steady drain upon the population and resources of the country; and it is now proposed to take the ground that persons who intend to emigrate must first prove that, in doing so, they will not violate any contract obligation, public or private, express or implied, like that that may be contracted to exist toward municipal and village communities, families and employers.
Wherever it is possible to infer the existence of such obligations, the official authorities will doubtless be ingenious in spelling them out, and measures will be taken to prevent emigration in all such cases.

THE "MORMON" POLITICAL STATUS.

The Utah Commission has encountered the opposition of the Mormons at the very start of its operations. The high officials of the church have issued a manifesto to their followers, bidding them prepare to "guard well our franchise, and in an unbroken phalanx maintain and sustain our political status, as patriots and freemen operate together in defense of what free liberties are left us." If this is not an appeal for resistance to the authority of the United States, then it has no meaning. The Edmunds bill was framed for the express purpose of destroying the political status of the Mormon church, as the first step toward securing an enforcement of the law against polygamy.
If the Mormons attempt to "maintain and sustain" this political status an issue will be joined which may force a speedier solution of the Mormon problem than the advocates of this measure calculated upon.

We elp the foregoing from the Boston Herald. It is one more illustration of the aliphid way in which eastern papers handle the "Mormon" question. They feel called upon to say something on this subject because the public feel some interest in it; but they will not take the trouble to inform themselves enough to speak intelligently and correctly.

The Utah Commissioners have made a report to the Secretary of the Interior which has been published all over the country, being circulated as a press dispatch. It contained one error, made by the operator, but was in the main correct. The mistake was in crediting the "Mormons" with the application to the Commissioners to exclude women voters from the registry lists. This attempt was made by the clique called the "Liberals," but it did not succeed. The "Mormons" are in favor of woman suffrage, as they are of every movement calculated to secure political, social and religious liberty to women equally with men.

In their report the Commissioners make no charge of obstruction on the part of the "Mormons." Neither in the start nor on any other point of their proceedings have they experienced opposition from the "Mormons." If the Boston Herald had paid proper attention to this matter before comment, it would have seen that the "opposition" in the start came from the non-"Mormons," who objected strenuously to the election in November which the Commissioners came here to supervise. The "Mormons" were in favor of the election, and their opponents were so mad over the decision of the Commissioners that it should be held, that some of the baser sort commenced to abuse the Commissioners, and accused them of pandering to the "Mormons."

Neither have the "high officials of the Church," by manifesto or otherwise, appealed for resistance to the authority of the United States.
And the quotation made by the Boston Herald does not convey any such impression. If to guard well our franchise, sustain our political status and defend our liberties, is resistance to the authority of the United States, then it follows that the United States are engaged in an attempt to destroy the franchise, political status and civil liberties of a portion of the people, which the Government was organized to protect. But we do not charge this aid the Boston Herald should have sense enough to perceive the folly of such an accusation. And if the words quoted convey such a meaning as that imputed, then every political manifesto, Democratic, Republican or "Independent," can be constructed in the same manner. The Herald needs a pinch of the snuff of common sense to clear its editorial head.

The Herald is rash and foolish again in stating that the Edmunds bill was framed for the express purpose of destroying the "political status" of the Mormon Church.
We are afraid that the Herald has not read the Edmunds bill. It says nothing about the "Mormon" Church nor its "political status." If it did that would have stamped it with an "additional mark of unconstitutionality. Congress has no right to pass laws to destroy the political or other status of any church in the land. The "Mormon" Church has just as much right to a "political status" as the Methodist Church, or the Catholic Church, or any other church. The only allusion to the "Mormons" as a religious body, in the Edmunds Act, is in the Seventh Section which is favorable rather than antagonistic. It legitimates all the issues of bigamous or polygam-ous marriages "solemnized according to the ceremonies of the Mormon sect," and forbids the first day of January 1883. This does not aim at the destruction of any political status; does it, Mr. Herald?

But the term political status attached to the "Mormon" Church is sheer nonsense. It has no such status to destroy. As an ecclesiastical organization it does not figure in such a position. It is a Church, not a State nor a political party. Members of the "Mormon Church" have a political status just as members of any other church who are citizens of the United States. And they have the right to organize for the purpose of preserving it, and to defend their political liberties. The authorities of that Church have not lost their political status by accession to ecclesiastical dignity, but have the right to speak to their friends and associates on all matters that pertain to their welfare socially, morally and politically, as well as religiously, using the latter word in its common, restricted sense.

We can assure the Boston Herald and all the anti-"Mormon" fanatics in the land, that the "Mormons" as citizens of the United States will certainly "attempt to maintain and sustain their political status," that is, to exercise the elective franchise so far as it is left to them, in sustaining, for what few offices are yet in their gift, such men as appear to them to be the best qualified to serve them in a public capacity. Those who are disfranchised by the Edmunds law will not attempt to vote or stand for office. But those who are not affected thereby, we believe, will exercise their undoubted legal and constitutional rights according to their own judgment, and if this is to force an issue such as the Herald hints at, then it follows that men and women are to be hindered by force from exercising the common rights of citizens, simply because they hold religious opinions different from a set of howling bigots and unprincipled sectarians.

But the Herald is "not" about the whole matter, as it is likely to be because of its indisposition to investigate a subject on which editors have less understanding than of the public questions of the times.
The Herald need not imagine that the "Mormons" are going to offer resistance either to the law or to the Commissioners, unless to test the constitutionality of the provisions of the former and the legislation of the latter, by the means provided in the laws of the land, can be construed into offering resistance. We are submitting, as gracefully as possible for any one, to the exigencies of the situation and everything is moving along accordingly as a summer's morning when all the elements are harmonious and at peace. We are not at all disturbed, and we do not think such threats as the Herald huris at us will raise a ripple upon the stream of our steady course, or make the slightest difference to our "political status."

A Dark Deceit.

WOODSTOCK, Ont., 23.—The inquest last night on the remains of the young woman named Ellen Wenderson, alias Camp, who died under suspicious circumstances, resulted in the arrest of an old negro doctress named Munson, at whose house the woman died. Both trained evidence went to show that for some years the house has been the resort of women seeking unlawful medical aid. Several deaths have taken place.

The Failure of Follet.
NEW YORK, 23.—Richardson, Boynton & Co., 232 Water Street, and the Rubber Comb & Jewelry Co., 33 Mercer St., are seriously embarrassed by the failure of Follet, the note broker.

Train Wreck.
A way train on the Pennsylvania R. R., which left Newark for Jersey City at 11:45 last night, was run into at the curve just below East Newark Station by the Lehigh Valley train, due at the same time. Both trains were completely wrecked, and the passengers had great difficulty in getting out of the cars. Some of them were seriously injured.

Per Cent.
Government 4 per cent were partially weak yesterday. L. L. Wells & Co. offered the same amount yesterday one-quarter below the quoted price. Offer of large blocks have been privately made to prominent dealers. It is surmised that Van derbilt may be selling a portion of his holdings. It is reported on good authority that he negotiated a large time loan on government securities yesterday. Considerable amounts of new 3 per cent are expected from Washington to-day.

Nominations.
CHICAGO, 23.—A. Niles, Michigan, special says, the democrats of the fourth congressional district nominated George M. Yarr, who also has the greenback nomination.

Fatally Stabbed.
A New Orleans special says: The Republicans of the second congressional district, after indulging in a free fight, in which a number were killed, and the negro sergeant-at-arms of the convention fatally stabbed, nominated Judge Wash Marks for internal revenue collector of this district.

The "Asia" Passengers.
A Collingwood special says: The body of A. D. Hamilton, of Oak, one of the passengers on the wrecked steamer Asia has been recovered.
The following is an additional list of the heavy grain on board and the fated vessel: Jacques and Andrew Terry, Julian Janan, James and Felix Jandreau, Octave Valiz, Peter Damo, Peter Roberto, Sr. and Jr., Jos. Lasalle and Robt. Barrell, all from the vicinity of Athabasca, Quebec.

The Cause of the Disaster.
LANGSTON, Ky., 23.—The coroner's inquest on the bodies of the men killed by the wreck of the Sella Bothers circus train developed the fact that Sella Brothers employed a number of brakes from the train in order to facilitate loading the wagons, leaving only four, which were insufficient; so that in going down the heavy grade the train became unmanageable and ran at a high rate of speed, probably causing a spread of the rails, whereby three men were instantly killed, two fatally hurt and twelve less seriously injured.

FOREIGN.

More Marks.
BERLIN, 23.—The statement of the imperial bank of Germany shows an increase in specie of 7,520, 000 marks.

The Khedive.
CAIRO, 23.—The Khedive yesterday evening drove for an hour through the illuminated streets, and was well received. The Khedive beats upon Gen. Wolsley the Grand Cordon of the order of Osmanli.

Arrived.
CAIRO, 23.—Africa, 20.—King Caiway has arrived.

An Imprisoned Army.
CALCUTTA, 23.—Three members of the Indian army recently arrived here. They have been arrested in order to prevent a riot which was imminent. Only one of the contingent which arrived here a short time ago is now at liberty.

Dead.
ROME, 23.—Arch-Bishop Swille is dead.

Milk and Water.
LONDON, 23.—A Dublin correspondent of the Times intimates that Dillon withdraws from active political life because he does not fall in with what he considers the milk and water policy of his associates.

Getting the Canal.
CAIRO, 23.—It is expected that the Canal and Men will leave here on Friday the Bedouins on the fresh water canal above Nienah.

Gathering at the Chateaux Palace.
A grand reception was held at Ghemar Palace to-day by the Khedive. Nearly a thousand representatives of different villages were present. The Khedive refused to receive many implicated Pashas and Bays who came to profess loyalty and warred the Ulema and other high personages that they would b severely punished if they relapsed into delinquency. The principal British officers with their staffs were present. General Wolsley was, however, indisposed and unable to attend the ceremony, and the presentation to the General of his decoration, by the Khedive, did not take place.

Preaching at Tombstone.—Blah-op McDonald, of the Church of Latter-day Saints, delivered a discourse on the religious beliefs and doctrinal tenets of his faith at the court house last evening. The address was replete with fresh facts and discourses new to a large portion of the audience, and was well calculated to place the sect represented by the speaker in a favorable light before the public, and allay much of the prejudice caused by ignorance and bigotry with which the peculiar practice of the Mormon Church has heretofore been regarded in the minds of many. At times the speaker was eloquent and even impressive, and he was listened to throughout by an appreciative and good-sized audience. — Tombstone
