GOING 6,000 MILES TO WED HER CHOICE.

MISS NELLIE WHITE.

Miss Nellie White, niece of ex-Secretary of the Navy John D. Long, has heard the call of love from 6,000 miles across the Pacific. Heiress of the late millionaire, Nelson D. White, Miss White is on her way from her home in Winchester, Mass., to Hawaii to join her fiancé, Dr. Walter R. Brinkerhoff, who is devoting his life to the leper colony at Malakal in an attempt to discover a remedy for the disease which makes its victims the outcasts of the world.

Dr. Brinkerhoff is a Harvard honor man of the class of 1901.

On Tuesday night the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Orlow was the scene of the wedding of their daughter Dagmar Frederika to Theobald L. Larsen, the ceremony being performed by Rev. P. A. Simpkin in the presence of the relatives and friends. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Matilda Orlow and Miss Ella Frick, and the groom by Mr. Carl Orlow, a brother of the bride. The rooms were bright with flowers, the parlor in yellow and white with gold and silver and carnations used with palms, the diningroom in pink and green, the table having a centerpiece of pink carnations, while festoons of smilax were drawn from the chandelier to the corners. The bride wore a gown of white silk mull with lace trimmings. The bridesmaids were also gowned in white. Mr. and Mrs. Larsen have gone for a short trip, and on their return will be at home to their friends at 185 R street.
