Indian News.

WASHINGTON, 20.—Representative Belford, of Colorado, predicts that the House will yet consent to the removal of the Utes from Colorado to the Uintah reservation across the border in Utah Territory. He also says there will be a lively debate when the question comes up again after the holiday recess, to which he intends to contribute by paying his respects to Conger's recent speech in the light of the history of Michigan. He has hunted up official records exhibiting the course pursued towards the Indians of Conger's own State as follows: In 1855 a treaty was made with the Ottawas and Chippewas of Michigan numbering about 6,000, by which several reservations were set apart for them on the islands of Lake Michigan and in several counties of that State, upon which they were allowed to locate 80 acres per capita. In 1872 the greedy Michiganders induced Congress to violate the treaties and open up all the reservations to pre-emption and homestead settlers. The Pottowattomies of Huron, located in Conger's congressional district, were settled among the marshes and sand knolls, and were in a starving condition, although they used to dominate at the councils of all Indians of the Northwest. Belford also says he has found reports on file in the Interior Department which show that the godly people of Michigan not only wanted to get rid of the noble red men but also sold them bad whiskey.

Denver, Col., 20.—General Chas. Adams, of the Ute commission, arrived in Denver last night. He has little doubt that the 12 Indians designated by the commission will go to Fort Leavenworth, and believes sufficient evidence will be secured to convict several if not all. Those convicted will be hung. He does not know that the trial will take place at Leavenworth, but they will be taken there first. Mrs. Price, Miss Meeker and Captain Payne and Cherry, will probably appear before the military commisson as witnesses. The General thinks the Indians will have by this time started for the north with General Hatch, who cannot leave until each Indian designated joins him. As this is his military order, the Indian prisoners will proceed via the Santa Fe road to Fort Leavenworth with a guard of 10 soldiers and Gen. Hatch, and Chief Ouray will come to Denver where they are expected to arrive between Christmas and New Years. It has been hoped that the commission would hold a session in Denver and take the evidence of Captain Payne and Lieutenant Cherry, but Captain Payne is still suffering from his wounds and the commission may be obliged to proceed to Fort Russell, near Cheyenne, and take the testimony wanted. After the evidence of these two officers has been secured, Gen. Adams, Gen. Hatch and Ouray will proceed to Washington.

Indignation in Maine.

BANGOR, 20.—The indignation meeting to-night to express disapproval of the recent action of the governor and council in counting out certain senators and representatives, was overflowingly attended, and the most radical utterances of the speakers was received with thunders of applause. One speaker said if this great wrong be allowed to go on, it will result in bloodshed. Senator Hamlin in his speech said this great crowd had assembled to say they will not submit to this attempted subversion of right.

It is the duty of the citizens of Maine to shun every one of these men as you would a pestilence, making every one of them an outcast and wandering Jew. Point the finger of scorn at them and shun them as moral lepers covered with sores from head to feet. Make them also feel that they are execrated by an outraged and indignant people. If you allow the governor and council to usurp the power of determining what they have no right to determine, what is there in the name of Republic but merely fraud? If our people rise up in their majesty and demand their rights, the usurpers will not dare to refuse them. There is a moral power in the free men of Maine before which rascality will quail.

Death of Wm. McKee.

ST. LOUIS, 20.—The death of Wm. McKee, chief owner of the Globe-Democrat, though quite sudden was not unexpected to those who had been familiar with his physical condition the past few years. He experienced a slight paralytic stroke in the summer of 1877, since which time he has never regained his health, although using all efforts to care for himself. He left the city early last summer, and remained at the sea shore and New York until October, when he returned. He seemed to have improved, but it soon became evident that his improvement was only temporary. He visited the Globe-Democrat office nearly every day, generally remaining from nine till one o'clock. On Friday he came as usual and talked pleasantly with callers, being apparently as well as he had been for some time past. At one o'clock he left the office for his residence in his family carriage. The last man to speak to him at the office was Mr. McCollough, editor of the paper, who conversed with him briefly as he entered his carriage. Mr. McKee was driven to his residence accompanied by his wife and daughter. He spent the afternoon and evening at home.

What a Hated Man Did.

NEW YORK, 20.—During the temporary absence this morning of Fred P. Werner, of Long Island City, his hired man, Max Hesse, entered the house, and approaching Mrs. Werner, told her he would murder her if she did not give up the keys of the bureau. She refused, and the servant knocked her down. He then sprang upon her, and drawing a large sheath plunged it into her throat several times. After that he took from her pocket the keys and ransacked the house. A quantity of wearing apparel and $230 in cash were the plunder obtained. The police of this city and Brooklyn are looking for Hesse.

The Milwaukee House of Correction.

MILWAUKEE, 20.—The report of the State Board of Charities and Reform, on the management of the Milwaukee House of Correction, was submitted to Governor Smith to-day. It fully sustains the charges of brutality and corruption made by the Board. The opinion is that the character of the House of Correction should be so radically changed that it shall be what its name indicates, a place for the correction and reformation of persons guilty of minor offences, and that all present inmates who have been convicted of the graver crimes should be sent to Waupun to serve out unexpired terms.

Fire.

PEORIA, 20.—The flouring mill of Horace Clark was burned this evening; loss $25,000, insurance $13,500.

Missing Cattle King.

Nothing has yet been heard of Thomas Neill, the missing cattle dealer, except that a person answering to his description, who said he was a cattle dealer from Peoria, Ill., was seen Wednesday on an eastbound train on the Canada Southern. His liabilities are estimated now at $350,000. His largest creditors say they are amply secured, and smaller creditors are appearing every day, but they have no security. Law suits are threatened over cattle fattening at distilleries on which Neill gave bills of sale and warehouse receipts, but which are claimed by others, who say Neill never owned them.

A Texas Fandango.

GALVESTON, 20. — The special from Sherman says 15 rowdies came there from Montague County and Indian Territory to attend a disreputable dance and avowed their intention not to be molested by the police. Officer Bond and Deputy Sheriff Parrott raided the party as they were leaving the dance. Pistols were drawn and in the melee two men, Mitchell and Elliott, were shot, the former fatally.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Foreign Notes.

LONDON, 20.—A dispatch from Bombay says: It was reported on Thursday that Gen. Gough would probably retire upon Perzeran, three miles west of Surkab River, but it is now believed he will remain at Jagdulluk and shortly clear the way to Ghilzois.

Gen. Arbuthnot's brigade is distributed along the road between Gundamuk and Jagdulluk.

Contrary to expectation, the tribes below Jellalabad continue quiet. Had Gen. Bright advanced with his whole force, doubtless the Mohmunds and Afreeds would have risen. Great efforts are making for a speedy concentration at Peshawer. Many native princes have tendered their assistance.

Gen. Robert's statement of his ability to hold his position and take the offensive on favorable opportunity have been so positive that the anxiety first felt on behalf of the garrison in Shirpur cantonments is much abated.

Steps for procuring a writ of error in the case of Arthur Orton, the Tichborne claimant, were taken by Lord Rivers and Guildford Onslow, under the advice of Dr. Knealy, who applied for a similar writ in 1874, but it was then refused. It is stated that the case will be taken to the House of Lords for final decision, and that Dr. Knealy will exercise his right as a member of the Irish bar to appear for Orton before that tribunal.

Northcote, to-day, said in relation to the situation in Ireland that the government would take measures to alleviate distress in Ireland without pauperizing with the population, but while careful of the material prosperity of Ireland, would, above all, insist upon the maintenance of law and order, and would never coquette with any demands for home rule, which responsible statesmen of all parties knew would be impossible.

An official dispatch from Gen. Bright, dated Dec. 18th, informed the Viceroy of India that if Gen. Gough was unable to force his way to Cabul with his brigade, he (Bright) proposed, as soon as arrangements could be made, to hold the posts from India to Gundamuk and advance on Cabul with a division numbering 8,000 men. A telegram from Pezeran, dated to-day, says there is no serious fighting, and all is well.

The substitution of American hardware in England, Australia and other markets is having serious effect on the Sheffield trade at Zanzibar. The American trade is increasing, but the great drawback is the difficult transmission of funds to the United States in return for goods. About one-half of the exports to the United States go in British vessels via London.

The strong pressure brought to bear on the Sultan by the British government has nearly stopped the slave trade line. A ship is at Zanzibar with a large number of officers and men who patrol the African coast in steam cutters and launches to put a stop to the traffic. The British government has forced the Sultan to sign a treaty having the same object in view.

The Russian press is very violent in its criticisms on affairs in Afghanistan. The Gazette de St. Petersburg says: We most candidly confess that Russia would not break her heart in the probable event of Gen. Roberts' column sharing the fate of Cavaguari's embassy.

Total value of exports of domestic provisions and tallow for November, was $8,900,706; the same in 1878, was $9,690,482. The imports of American food products are enormous.

Requisite measures have been taken to prevent any dangerous extension of the prevailing famine and disease in Silesia. The ravages have hitherto not been extensive, and there need be no fear now that further danger will develop. The provincial authorities have voted 150,000,000 marks for mitigating the hunger of the sufferers, and 880,000 marks for the construction of roads and other relief works. The Emperor has placed at the unconditional disposal of the poor law officers, 400,000 marks, which had been contributed in commemoration of his golden wedding. Generous sums have likewise been given by the Empress, the Crown Prince and other members of the Royal family and by the public.

Intelligence from St. Petersburg represents that several officers of artillery engineers have been arrested charged with complicity in the recent Nihilist attempt on the Czar's life at Moscow. The winter palace is now illuminated all night with electric light as a precaution.

The Bavarian Chamber of Deputies has rejected the proposal to abolish the Embassies at Vienna. The Premier declared these Embassies were the sign of Bavarian independence.
