Foster Jones was discharged by Judge Dichl yesterday after the charge of battery lodged against him by Oliver McManus, a colored man, had fallen very flat. Instead of battering Mc-Manus, it was shown that Jones pro-tected him and urged others in a mob to give the man a fighting chance. The whole affair was the aftermath of

The whole affair was the aftermath of an anusling, but somewhat serious, affray at the fair grounds race track last week. A colored man stabbed a while man at the track and then ran away. Presently there were four col-ored men running away and the mob got them mixed, the year sought dis-appearing and McMan is being the "fall wur" to the entire worth of bits unrate appearing and McMan is being the "fall guy" to the entire wrath of his pursu-ers. He was dragged from a car, cuffed and kicked until insensible and would have been hanged had not Councilman C. J. Crabtree urged the mob to give the man a chance and had not Jones taken a hand to protect the man. Then McManus got mixed. He thought Jones was the man who dragged him from the car beat him thought Jones was the man who dragged him from the car, beat him and called for a rope to lynch him with. In court his story was so rambling, the truth at times being mangled until be-yond recognition. Finally, the public prosecutor became so disgusted with his complaining witness that he told the court he was included to move for the dismissal of the action.

A BANK ACCOUNT AS A PERSONAL SAFEGUARD.

Do you realize that a bank account is a safeguard to health and happiness? If you have a bank account, however small, and add to it consistently and regularly, you have back of you one of the strongest assurances against Misfortune.

In time of sickness that money will enable you to pro-cure care and attention that bring restoration to health. Should you become unemployed that money gives the secure feeling that you have something tangible back of you. You are ready for the emergency and will not be forced to enter uncongenial employment at an unsatisfacfory remuneration. If you have a bank account business opportunities will not find you empty-handed and unprepared, at a loss to know where to go for ready money Only those who have a bank Only those who have a bank account can appreciate the full value of one. You are making a mistake if you are not saving money. Why not hegin today? One dollar is enough to start. On savings deposits we pay 4 per cent interest, com-pounded semi-annually. UTAH SAVINGS & TRUST COMPANY. 235 Main St. In the Business Heart.
