

AT HOME AND ABROAD.

DENVER, June 11.—Dr. Purcell, of the Coxe army which left Denver on boats on the Platte river, was drowned today below Brighton by the swamping of a boat. Of those drowned last week only three bodies have been recovered and the number of fatalities was probably less than was supposed.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 11.—An Egan, S. D., special to the Journal reports a valuable pre-historic find in a mound at that point. A tomb has been uncovered lined with cement. In the tomb's compartments were twenty-two male skeletons averaging eight feet in height. A rude altar and many bronze utensils were exposed.

TANGIER, June 11.—Additional advices regarding the death of the sultan says he suffered from fever for four days previous to his death, and he died while giving orders. For some time before his death he began vomiting and continued to suffer in this manner when he expired. It is added that the symptoms of his disease point to poisoning.

COLUMBUS, June 11.—About 5:30 p. m. the scale committee announced an agreement had been reached and was drawn up. The compromise was on a basis of 60 cents for Ohio, and 69 cents for western Pennsylvania. The agreement is not to take effect until Monday, June 18th.

The scale of prices will be in effect and bind both parties thereto beginning June 18, 1894, and continue until May 1, 1895, provided the above named scale of prices for the districts shall be recognized.

VALPARAISO, Ind., June 11.—Sheriff Stoddard, at 11 o'clock tonight, was telegraphed to come to Chesterton at once, as a Coxe army, composed of 300 men, had struck that town and were all drunk. They threatened to burn the town unless they were fed and lodged. The sheriff left at once with a posse.

DENVER, Col., June 11.—Sheriff Burchinell has decided that no more Coxeyites will be allowed to enter Denver under penalty of arrest and imprisonment for vagrancy. Until the commonweal movement has subsided, special deputies will board incoming trains and patrol all public highways leading into the city, and no one unable to give a satisfactory account of himself will be permitted to pass the boundary line.

FARGO, N. D., June 12.—Deputy United States Marshal Daggett left for Bismarck today with sixty deputies. Others will be picked up and his force will number 150 when Bismarck is reached. Judge Caldwell has ordered a large force to be sworn in. United States officers here have received word that the Coxeyites are piling obstructions on the track to prevent trains from running by without stopping.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Jacob S. Coxey, the leader of the commonweal army, has accepted an invitation of the Knights of Labor, and all the other Industrial organizations of St. Paul and Minneapolis, to speak in Minneapolis on the Fourth of July.

RAVENNA, O., June 12.—Trouble broke out in Randall's army here today. Company A deserted in a body because of insufficient rations and attempted to capture the army flag. After a rough and tumble fight, Randall's men succeeded in retaining possession of the flag.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 12.—The commonwealers under General Jones, who arrived here this morning, made three attempts to capture Missouri Pacific freight trains as they passed the camp, but each effort was futile, as the train men side-tracked their trains.

CHICAGO, June 12.—Theodore Nevins, one of the doorkeepers of the board of trade, was taken off in the smallpox ambulance today. He was attending to his duties and was unaware the reddish eruption on his neck and face had any connection with the dreaded disease. He must have spoken to and been in contact with dozens of the members before the true nature of the eruption was discovered.

PUNXSUTAWNEY, Pa., June 12.—The miners are pouring into the town of Lindsay, near Berwind White Mines, and indications point to a collision before night. It is reported a skirmish took place at midnight at Anita, the firing of cannon and small arms being distinctly heard in Punxsutawney. Demonstrations are made by the Hungarians, Italians and Slavs. The English speaking miners are opposed to violent measures.

CANADANGUA, N. Y., June 12.—A terrific cloud burst occurred at this place and vicinity tonight, doing great damage. The storm was accompanied by fierce thunder and lightning and struck here about 8 o'clock, and in a short time flooded streets and gutters and choked the sewers and streams. Cellars all over the town are flooded, and in the lowlands streets are impassable.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., June 12.—News of the overturning of a boat belonging to the United States coast survey steamer Patterson, at Tonga narrows, Alaska, and the drowning of three men was received today. The accident was reported at Sitka the day the city of Topeka sailed south, and the names of the unfortunate men were not learned.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 12.—While Edward Tofte and Victor Obsen, an acquaintance, were at a picnic in Barthold's grove, nine miles southwest of the court house, they found a basket containing a lot of white metal molds and other articles used in counterfeiting, and $21 in bogus coin, ranging in value from five cents to $1. The find was turned over to the police and the federal authorities are now at work on the case. It is believed the creek served as a hiding place for a gang of counterfeiters.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., June 12.—Jack Smith, military leader of the strikers at Bull Hill, has gone to Mexico to avoid arrest. June J. Johnson, the reputed leader, was a myth.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 12.—General Jones, with an army one hundred strong, arrived from Denver early this morning. He went into camp with Bennett's contingent in the east bottoms.

MURPHY N. C., June 12.—News of a horrible accident that occurred at Caiths still house, near Culbersom, has just reached here. Frank Carter carried his six-year-old son with him to the still house. Carter got drunk and made his son drunk. In the still house was a vat containing 150 gallons of boiling still slops, and the little fellow, in wandering about, fell into this vat, which reached to his chin. He was immediately taken out and three physicians summoned. When his clothes were removed the skin peeled off, leaving his body raw. Everything possible was done to relieve his sufferings, but without avail, and at twenty-four hours after the accident death claimed the little fellow. The father has left.

PHOENIX, Ariz., June 12.—Raymond Coronal, Chilean, about 50 years of age, a prospector, was found murdered half a mile west of this city yesterday. His skull was crushed.

TANGIERS, June 12.—The remains of the late Sultan Muley Hassan have been sent to Rabat for burial. The succession of the late sultan's younger son, Adul Aziz, has been accepted at Casa Blanca. A hostile feeling prevails at Fez, where Muley Ismail, the brother of the deceased, has been acting as the sultan's representative.

ARDMORE, I. T., June 12.—The body of the dead bandit has been identified as being that of Bill Dalton by his brother, Littleton, who arrived here last night from Kingfisher, O. T., accompanied by D. W. Fawcett, an old acquaintance of the Daltons and an ex-sheriff of Caldwell, Kansas, who also was positive in his identity.

Mrs. Dalton, in company with Charles Dalton, has gone to the Wallace home, the scene of the tragedy, to settle her affairs and will return this morning, bringing her two little children. Tonight the remains will be taken to Guthrie for official identification.

LONDON, June 12.—Cablegram from Hongkong says on account of the plague 100,000 people have fled and 1,600 deaths have occurred. The number of deaths is estimated at 100 a day.

COLUMBUS, June 12.—The convention of the miners of Athens, Perry, Hocking and Muskegon counties today adopted a resolution "standing firmly for a 70-cent rate."

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 13.—The most important news brought by the Empress of Japan is of the alarming spread of virulent plague that first appeared in Canton at the end of April. The plague is similar to the great plague in London in the sixteenth century and is carrying off large numbers of victims. It soon spread to Hongkong, appearing there in May. It is chiefly confined to Chinese, but a few Portuguese have been afflicted. The plague has paralyzed business to a large extent, as many leading steamship lines refuse to take either passengers or cargo from Hongkong. The symptoms of the disease are as follows:

Without premonitory warning in the shape of a chill, there is a sudden onset of fever, rising to 105 degrees or over. There is much headache, accompanied by stupor. In twelve or twenty-four hours a glandular swelling occurs in the neck or arm pit, increasing to the size of a fowl's egg, being hard and tender. With or with-
