Button Industry Involving $10,000,000 A Year Threatened Owing to Diminishing Quantities of Shell Fish.

Special Correspondence. Washington, D. C., Jan. 11 .- The house of representatives has gone on record in opposition to the grade of lieutenant general. While the army appropriation bill was under consideration in the lower branch of Congress, Representative Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, in reporting a rule permitting the house to vote on the question whether the grade should close with the present bolder of the distinguished rank, Gen. Arthur MacArthur, said:
