Local and Other Matters.

FROM FRIDAY'S DAILY, NOV. 23.

Storm and Fine.—More rain again on Wednesday night, the clouds hardly able to hold their fatness yesterday, fine and beautiful with a slight frost this morning, but a cloudy sky again before dinner time.

News From England.—The following is extracted from a private letter from Elder Henry C. Fowler, dated at London, England, November 5th:—

"At our last Conference, which was held on the 24th ult., we reported 49 baptisms for the last six months and over 100 emigrated, and our prospects for the future are bright. By faith and diligent labor we expect our numbers will increase. Next year a large proportion anticipate emigrating, but there is a fair prospect that the ranks thus depleted will be filled by as many additions to the Church by baptism."

Salt Lake Brooms.—Now come specimens of brooms made at Mayor Wells' factory in this city. Mr. James T. Wilson makes them. Last winter he made 1,500 brooms, and this winter he expects to make 400 dozen. He not only makes the brooms, but grows the broom corn of which he makes them. He sows the corn in drills, three feet to three feet six inches apart. Good land should produce corn enough to make 500 brooms to the acre.

The specimens brought to this office are good, strong, and well and neatly made, and apparently durable, not weak and light like some imported brooms.

Mr. W. not only makes up the corn of his own growing, but is prepared to make up, and to order, that grown by others.

The Black Hills Country.—Today we met with Mr. Henry, a young gentleman from Illinois, who has just arrived from the Black Hills country, where he was engaged for three weeks, in mining, with a company of others, until driven out, at the end of that time, by the military.

The party with whom he was associated operated on Bale Creek, where they easily obtained twelve cents to the pan. He has no doubt that it is a splendid mining region, and there are tracts of beautiful grazing and fine farming land, and an abundance of timber, but the appearances for an amicable treaty with the Indians regarding its occupancy by the whites are very doubtful.

District Court.—Friday, November 26th.

Pratt, appellant, vs. Young, appellee; judgment for plaintiff, defendant excepts. By consent, the time for filing notice of motion for a new trial extended to twenty days.

The People, etc., vs. Philip Shafer and Wm. B. Kelley; murder. In the absence of certain witnesses, as follows:—W. H. Burr, Hamilton Gray, Geo. Graham, Edwd. Riley, W. E. Johnson, John Gray, Robt. Hoffman, John Metz, Louisa Graham, ordered that the case be continued for the term.

The jury were excused till Monday, Nov. 29th.

The People, etc., vs. Wm. W. Hardwick; forgery. Demurrer to indictment argued, and taken under advisement.

Adjourned till 10 a.m. November 29th.

Preaching in Nashville.—We learn, from the Daily American, published at Nashville, Tenn., that Elder George Teasdale preached in McClure's Hall, in that city, on Sunday, the 14th inst. He explained the belief and practice of the Latter-day Saints, so far as the first principles of the gospel are concerned, sustaining his position by appropriate quotations from the Scriptures; also delineated the organization of the Church of Christ, with apostles, prophets, &c., and gave a description of the circumstances connected with the restoration of the gospel in this dispensation, concluding by bearing testimony to the truth of the principles he advocated.

He expressed his thankfulness to Mr. McClure, for the use of his hall, and stated that, being the servant of the people who wished to learn of the doctrines he had to advance, he was ready, at their invitation, to enter into further explanations.

In answer to the expressed desire of several gentlemen present, he said he was willing to state the reasons the Latter-day Saints had for practicing plural marriage if a hall were provided for him for that purpose. His discourse was listened to with close attention.

The Late Fire.—Public sympathy for Messrs. Davis, Howe & Co., who met with such a serious loss last Monday, in having their well appointed machine shop and nearly all of their machinery destroyed by fire, continues unabated. Perhaps one of the leading reasons for this is the high esteem in which those gentlemen are held as straightforward, reliable and consistent business men, having, by their mode of conducting their affairs, gained the confidence of the public in their business integrity. Besides, as before remarked by the NEWS, the loss is one that is not only felt by the gentlemen named, but, more or less, by the community generally, the establishment having been essentially home productive.

It is gratifying to notice the alacrity with which citizens possessing the means to do so are stepping forward and seconding their expressions of sympathy by stretching forward a helping hand to aid the losers by the fire to erect a new building and obtain a fresh supply of machinery.

We understand the building about to be erected by Davis, Howe & Co., in place of that recently destroyed, will be, as near as practicable, fireproof.

Subscriptions for the purpose indicated in the foregoing will be received at the Deseret Bank, President Young's Office, Walker Brothers, the Herald office, and by Mr. George Goddard and Mr. Durant.

We learn that, as a commencement, the following gentlemen have donated the respective amounts opposite their names:—

President B. Young.....	$1,000
W. H. Hooper.....	500
John Sharp.....	200
H. S. Eldredge.....	100
D. H. Wells.....	100
G. Q. Cannon.....	100
Frank Armstrong.....	100

News from Sevier County.—We have had a call from Brother B. T. Young, who is up from Sevier County, on a business visit. We learn from him that the granaries of Richfield are plethoric with wheat, of which a splendid crop was realized the last harvest. Parties there had been offering $1.10 a bushel for it, but the people decline to sell at that price, preferring to hold it until they can get $1.25.

The vegetable crop of this season was positively immense.

At Monroe there are seventy-five active working men in the United Order. At that place the mason work of a fine solid granary has just been completed. The walls, of rock, are two feet thick and fifteen feet high, to the eaves. The front is of cut rock, well finished, and the roof will be put on at once.

The U. O. there has also on hand 15,000 adobes, with which it is about to erect a carpenter shop. These sun-dried bricks, of blue clay, are excellent, and were made solely from the material taken out in digging the cellar. The Order has a stack yard, consisting of a large square, in which a large quantity of grain is stacked, and where the stables are built.

At Glenwood the people are also doing well in the United Order, having a large stackyard, a goodly amount of grain, a granary, and other useful acquisitions.

A very important project is on hand in that part of the Territory, by which it is intended to render 10,000 acres more of good farming land susceptible of cultivation. Brother Madsen, of Gunnison, is now engaged in surveying a canal, from a point known as Gravelly Ford to Gunnison. It will be a little over twenty miles long. The cost of making this irrigating canal will be in the vicinity of $15,000. It will have a fall of two feet to the mile.

Well disposed people, who are desirous of obtaining land to settle upon, for work done on the canal, have an invitation to embrace the opportunity.

FROM SATURDAY'S DAILY, NOV. 27.

Meetings.—Religious services in the various ward meeting-houses to-morrow at 2 and 6 p.m.

Gloves.—The owner of a pair of kid gloves, picked up in the 7th Ward, can get them by calling at Mrs. Mumford's, Pugmire's Row.

More Storm.—Another rainy night last night, with a slight snowfall, and a fine morning this morning.

A Preaching Tour.—Elder Orson Pratt purposes leaving on Wednesday morning on a preaching visit to the settlements of Tooele and Rush Valleys.

A Large Pear.—Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, of the 19th Ward of this City, left, at this office this morning, a pear weighing two pounds, one of a large number grown on a tree on her lot, most of which weighed not less than one pound each.

Decency as a Fine Art.—That part of the Salt Lake City bar that appears to have studied decency as a fine art, held a meeting the other day to insult Chief Justice White by complimenting Judge Boreman.—Omaha Herald, Nov. 24.

That Overcoat.—The gentleman who took the overcoat of another, from the Valley House, by mistake, instead of his own, will confer a favor on the owner of the one he took by making the matter right by exchanging back again.

A Good Collier Wanted.—By the following it will be seen that there is a chance for constant work for a good collier:—

ST. GEORGE, NOV. 26.

A. M. Musser.—Can you send a first class collier, married preferred, to come and live here and have constant work in Ash Creek coal mines? We need coal badly. Answer. A. F. MACDONALD.

Another Tall Dispatch.—The following appears in an Omaha paper:—

"Salt Lake, Nov. 23.—A Mormon ring is being formed here to have Utah admitted as a State. Brigham Young has promised the Democrats to run the new State in their interest, and assured Republicans it will be republican."

A Sorry Sight.—About six o'clock this morning a man was found lying on the lower part of East Temple Street, wallowing in a mud hole, almost in a state of entire nudity, having nothing on his person but a remnant of a shirt and drawers and a pair of shoes. He was insensible from excessive drinking. He was loaded upon a wagon and conveyed to the City Hall. The probability is that he had lain in the mud most of the night, and it is remarkable that he was alive.

Visitors.—We have had a very pleasant interview with the following gentlemen, who are on a visit to this city, and have been riding around to see it to-day—Gen. D. W. Caldwell, Gen. Manager, and Col. W. L. O'Brien, Gen. P. & T. Agent, of the P.C. and St. L. R.R., of Columbus, O.; W. F. Black, Esq., of the same place; F. Hedger, Esq., of Zanesville, O.; and R. Garrard, Esq., and C. W. Wooley, Esq., both of Cincinnati.

Harper's Magazine for December commences the fifty-second volume of this excellent monthly, and contains the following illustrated articles:—"Up the Ashley and Cooper," "Caricature in the United States," "Richard Baxter," and "Windsor Castle," also "A Thousand Years from Now," "Her Imperial Guest," "Barry Cornwall and Some of His Friends," "At Last," "In the Gold Avenue," "First Century of the Republic," "Garth," "Mary, Queen of England," "The Latter Days," "Legislative Humors," "A Ghostly Visitation," "The Art of Dining," "The Sign of the Cross," "Easy Chair" and "Drawer," and "Literary, Scientific and Historical Record."

Nineteenth Ward Sunday School Social.—Last evening, although the weather was so inclement, a full house greeted the performances of the above named social. All present were well pleased. The performers were well up in their parts. Several excellent dialogues were rendered by the Misses Rose Snider, Flora Asper, S. Twitchel, M. Palmer, M. Pugsley, Mary Ridd, Libbie Hooper and E. Underwood and John Haslam. The recitations of John H. Hamlin, Rachael Hamlin, Alfred Clarke, Miss Rhoda Slade, and Ma John South, were good. Tennyson's "Lord of Burleigh," read by Miss Dora Pratt, and "Bernardo del Carpio," by Mr. Christopher Alston, were admirably rendered. The Misses Hawley, Palmer, Nannie M. King, and Sarah E. Parker sang some very pretty songs. Miss Esther Margetts ably accompanied the vocalists. Mr. Gus. M. Clarke rendered some very humorous burlesque recitations, sang the comic scene of "Alonzo, the Brave," and afterwards sang a local song entitled, "Twenty Years Ago," which latter seemed to take greatly with the audience.

More Missionary News.—The following is extracted from a private letter from Elder Miles P. Romney, dated at Viola, Richland County, Wisconsin, Nov. 16th:—

"On our way here we held four meetings in Chicago. The people listened attentively. We held two meetings in this place and the meeting house was crowded. The congregations were very orderly. We have several invitations to preach in this neighborhood. We shall hold meeting to-morrow night at Kickapoo Centre, next night at Viola, and to-night at Benden Hall. Last night I re-baptized three and baptized four others as members of the Church, in the Kickapoo river.

"This is a fine timbered country. The people are not so comfortable as in the cities.

"I am well, feel humble in the hands of the Lord, and hope I may be the means of doing some good. I love to bear testimony to the truth of the gospel, for it is a glorious work. Bro. McAllister does well, and feels well.

"It is very cold here, and snowing to-day; quite a contrast between this climate and that of Southern Utah. Still, for the change, I never felt better in my life, because I believe I am in the discharge of my duty."

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY, NOV. 29.

ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION!

TWO PERSONS SHOT!

Last Thursday night Emmet Keene, the same who, some time since, shot and seriously wounded "Bill" Bean, beat his wife, leaving a visible mark on her in the shape of a black eye. For this his wife had him arrested on Friday and he left $10 at the police court for his appearance for trial, but failed to appear. In consequence of his abuse of her his wife left him on Friday and went to the house of her mother, Mrs. Linqvist, a widow woman, residing in the 17th Ward, on Jordan street. Meantime Keene had gone to the house of himself and wife and sold all the furniture and other effects.

On Saturday night at 11 o'clock he appeared at the house of Mrs. Linqvist and demanded to see his wife, but was informed by the brother of the latter, Karl Linqvist, a young man twenty years old, that his request could not be complied with. Keene then left, saying, with an oath, he "would d—d soon fix that." Young Linqvist expected him to return, and kept awake for some time, but finally went to sleep, when he was aroused by somebody kicking in the door, when he jumped from his bed and almost at the same instant Keene burst into the room, pointed his pistol directly at and close to the head of young Linqvist and fired. The instant the weapon was pointed at him the young man threw his left arm up to his forehead and the bullet struck the forearm, shattered the bone, and still remains in it, thus saving him from being instantly killed. Another shot hit the fingers of the same hand, and a third struck him in the upper part of the left shoulder.

The severity of his wounds, loss of blood, &c., caused the young man to partially fall to the floor, and while he was on his knees the murderous villain placed the muzzle of his pistol close to his head, with the intention of blowing his brains out, when Mrs. Linqvist struck him on the arm with a bottle, which turned the shot, causing the bullet to go through an adjoining door.

Keene then turned upon his mother-in-law and aimed a shot at her head. The bullet struck her a little forward of the temple, directly over the left eye, and plowed upward along the skull. The next and last shot entered near the elbow of her left arm, splintering the bone, passing along toward the wrist, where the bullet is supposed to be now lodged.

Young Linqvist managed, after Keene had consummated his bloody work, to fire a couple of shots at him as he retreated, but it is not probable that either of them took effect. After this the young man, whose wounds were bleeding copiously, fell down in a half-fainting condition, and Mrs. Linqvist and her daughter, who had fled out of the house after the first named of the two was shot, returned, and a number of persons who had heard the shooting and cries came in, when intelligence of the affair was sent to the police, and a surgeon, Dr. Benedict, was brought into attend to the wounds.

Both mother and son suffer a good deal from their injuries, which, however, are not considered as fatal in their character.

The police, since the affair occurred, have been making diligent search for Keene, but, so far as we can learn, they have, as yet, been unable to discover any trace of his whereabouts.

How the Eastern Papers Have It.—Washington, Nov. 19.—The action of Chief Justice White in discharging Brigham Young from the alleged contempt of disobedience to the order of Judge McKean requiring him to pay alimony to Ann Eliza, is satisfactory to the government. When, several weeks ago, the imprisonment of Young was brought to the attention of the government it became a matter of Cabinet consultation, the result of which was a reference of the case to the Attorney General for investigation and such action as he might think proper to take. Judge Pierrpont accordingly addressed a communication to the judicial authorities of Utah asking that copies of the record in the case be forwarded to him. The record was received on Wednesday, but in consequence of the decision of Judge White it is not considered that any further action is necessary. It is the opinion of the Attorney General that the woman in question in marrying Brigham Young violated the United States statutes, and therefore could not avail herself of her own wrong.—N. Y. Herald.

An Overcoat.—A person named "Mick" Dramer has been arrested on a charge of stealing an overcoat last night from the Walker House. The owner happened to see Dramer, and observed the collar of his coat protruding from under another the accused party had on. Dramer was bound over in $50 to appear for trial.
