3 FRONT STREET, near Market,

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.MERCHANDISE and MACHINERY of all descriptions purchased or imported for UTAH TRADERS on the most favorable terms and at lowest current rates.

The near approach of the CENTRAL PACIFIC RAILROAD to the principal business points in Utah, affords an opportunity to merchants to quickly and frequently replenish their stocks at any season of the year.

Many articles of general consumption, both of Foreign production and California manufacture, can be obtained at less cost from San Francisco than elsewhere.

California and Oregon-made Woolen Goods, Blankets, Cassimeres and Clothing, such as underwear and Hosiery, are superior to anything imported and intrinsically cheaper.

(Special to the Deseret Evening News.)

By Telegraph.CONGRESSIONAL.*SENATE.

Edmunds reported a bill for repealing the Tenure of Office Act, with an amendment leaving the Cabinet members subject to removal at the will of the President during a recess of the Senate, and authorizing him to suspend all other civil officers during such recess, without any specific evidence to justify suspension.

The following petition was presented to-day, to the Senate, written on note paper with a heavy mourning border:

To the Vice President of the United States:

Sir,—I herewith most respectfully present the Honorable Senate of the United States an application for a pension. I am the widow of a President of the United States, whose life was sacrificed in his country's service. That sad calamity has greatly impaired my health, and by the advice of my physicians I have come over to Germany to try the mineral waters, and, during the winter to go to Italy; but my financial means do not permit me to take advantage of the urgent advice given me, nor can I live in a style becoming the widow of the Chief Magistrate of a great nation, although I live as economically as I can. In consideration of the great services my deeply lamented husband rendered the United States and of the fearful loss I have sustained by his untimely death and martyrdom I may say, I respectfully submit to your honorable body this petition, hoping that a yearly pension may be granted me so that I may have less pecuniary cares.

I remain most respectfully,

Mrs. A. LINCOLN,

Frankfort, Germany.

Kellogg introduced a bill to aid in the construction of a Pacific transit railway and telegraph from New Orleans to some point on the Rio Grande in the direction of San Bias on the Pacific; referred to the Committee on the Pacific Railroad. It proposes to guarantee the payment of the interest of the bonds of the company to the amount of twenty thousand per mile, and also allows branch lines to connect with the Gulf of Mexico, and grants eight sections of the public lands per mile.

HOUSE.

Several bills were introduced, including the Railroad grant bills.

Robinson offered a resolution declaring that the American people do not approve of the ratification of the Alabama treaty, nor of any other treaty with England, while American citizens are held in prison in Great Britain, for acts done under the American flag.

The Speaker presented a petition from Mrs. Abraham Lincoln, for a pension; referred to the Committee on Pensions.

Perham, from the Committee on Pensions, reported a bill relating to the operations of the Pension law, which provides that no pension shall be paid to a widow who is not a resident of the United States, when she had lived separate and apart from her husband for the five years immediately preceding his death without receiving any support. The remaining sections relate to the details of the mode of application, proofs, &c. The bill went over.

Paine desired to offer a resolution directing the committee on Reconstruction to enquire whether further action ought to be taken by the Fortieth Congress respecting the representation of Georgia. Ross objected. Paine moved to suspend the rules, but after some discussion he withdrew the motion.

The morning hour having expired, the next business was the consideration of the Suffrage amendment and bill. Boutwell said that some of the gentlemen who desired to discuss the subject were not prepared to-day, so the consideration was postponed to Wednesday.

The House resumed the consideration of the bill granting the right of way to the Denver Pacific railroad.

GENERAL.

Boston.—The extensive pork packing and lard establishment of Boynton, Swallow, & Co., at Brighton, was destroyed by fire last night; loss $50,000; partially insured.

New York.—The sailors of every nationality have struck for $30 per month. They marched in procession to Franklin's square, where speeches were made, and it was resolved that no sailor should leave the port under less pay than $30, and promising rough treatment to those who did so.

The auction sale on the opening night of Booth's Theatre indicates that the total receipts will amount to $10,000. The competition was lively, one box being sold for $40, another for $122. The orchestra chairs ranged from eighteen to twenty-five.

John Whalen and his wife went to bed drunk last night, leaving the candle burning, when the bed caught fire and both were fearfully burned.

Alvah Blaisdile, was yesterday, sentenced to three years imprisonment for defrauding the Revenue. He will, tomorrow, be brought up, in the United States Circuit Court, again, for trial on a charge of subornation and perjury.

Washington.—The War Department has received dispatches from General Sheridan, detailing his recent operations against the Indians; also a letter from General Hazen, declaring that Black Kettle's band were on a warlike expedition when attacked by General Custer.

The Maryland delegation called in a body, this afternoon, on the President, to add their voices to the petition for the pardon of Dr. Mudd. The President gave them encouragement that Mudd and other political prisoners would be pardoned before the 4th of March.

General Hancock was before the Military Committee of the House, and questioned concerning the new army bill.

New York.—Thomas McGibbons, an escaped convict, suspected of complicity in the Rogers murder, was arrested in Patterson, New Jersey, to-day.

Washington.—The report of the majority of the Judiciary Committee, in the case of Senator Hill, of Georgia, bases his exclusion on the fact that he received the votes of a number of members of the Legislature who were disqualified under the Fourteenth amendment; an additional fact against his admission was the expulsion of the colored members. The committee also state, as another reason, that Georgia is in a condition of anarchy, 336 murders having been committed in the State last year to Nov. 1st. Trumbull's minority report concludes that Congress, having declared Georgia entitled to admission, it was not competent for either House to refuse admission to her regularly accredited representatives.

New York.—The Tribune's Washington dispatch has the following: Gen. Grant is strongly opposed to the pending Alabama claims treaty. The following is his position, and nearly in his own words. The treaty is unjust to the United States, because it assumes that a measure of injury was inflicted upon this country by the money value of ships actually destroyed, whereas the chief damage to our commerce was in our ships being driven from the seas by Anglo-rebel pirates; in addition to this sympathy was extended by the English government to the South, which prolonged the war a year, and for all the lives lost and the money expended for this time, England is directly responsible. The treaty proposes to settle all these things by the payment of the pittance value of a few ships.

New York.—The Lawrence, Mass., American of the 23rd instant, referring to the controversy about General Banks having been ordered to supersede Gen. Grant, says, "We happen personally to know that the official autographic orders are now in the hands of General Grant."

During Saturday night, between two and three thousand dollars worth of silks were stolen by burglars from a store on Chatham street; the thieves escaped with their plunder.

Chicago.—The Journal's Washington special says a caucus of the Republican Senators, this morning, decided to confirm no more appointments this season, except in cases where a vacancy actually exists.

FOREIGN.

London.—Reverdy Johnson has accepted an invitation to dine with the Corporate authorities of Manchester, in February.

Havana.—St. Thomas advices to the 18th state that President Baez had sold Alta Velo to a French company, ignoring the previous sale. The American Consul at San Domingo protested against the transfer, and had sent for a war vessel.

Baez has invited President Cabral and followers to return home, and they will do so if Baez will abdicate, and they will hold a new election for President.

Paris, 25.—It is rumored that the citizens of Seville and Cadiz have proclaimed in favor of the Duke de Montpensier for King of Spain.
