

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRICAL.—Ingomar was again played last evening. Miss Lockhart's Parthenia was a capital delineation. She was well supported by Mr. Hardie. Characters of the Ingomar caste are evidently his forte; last night he made an excellent "Barbarian."

To-night the entertainment should draw a full house. The pieces have never been played here before, and are both very choice; and being for the benefit of the favorite comedian, Mr. John C. Graham, all lovers of the drama, who wish to have a few hours of genuine enjoyment should make a point of attending the Theatre this evening.

MILITARY BALL.—A brilliant party of the officers of the Nauvoo Legion, and ladies and invited guests assembled at the Social Hall last evening, on the occasion of the anniversary of Washington's birthday. It was a full dress ball and a most agreeable affair, and all who participated in it could not but be gratified at the happy manner in which it passed off. Dancing was kept up with spirit throughout the entire evening, and addresses from Gen. D. H. Wells and F. D. Richards added to the interest of the occasion. Such reunions have a beneficial effect, as they help to maintain the esprit du corps of the Legion. The committee were: Major Gen. H. T. Burton, Gen. H. B. Clawson, Gen. Brigham Young Jun., Gen. F. D. Richards and Col. H. P. Kimball.

FOILED.—We understand that the four parroters, recently brought from Echo and lodged in the City Hall, had concocted a plan by which they hoped to effect their escape on Monday evening. The plan was to overpower the officer on his evening rounds, and compel him, at the end of a loaded revolver, to "open sesame" and let them free. When the officer visited their cell in the evening, being fully alive to the desperate character of the ruffians, he was on the alert, and seeing a rather in-cautious move made by one of the party, his suspicions were aroused, and he instantly had them at the end of his revolver, and managed to keep them there until he had effected his exit from their cell. After his departure the unlucky wight, whose lack of caution had spoiled the plan, was unmercifully beaten by the others, and in the conversation that ensued amongst them the plot was made known.

POINTER.—William Bately was arrested this morning for breaking the peace, threatening to break into the house of one of the citizens; he was fined $25.

Frank Johnson, arrested for being drunk, was discharged.

Ira Merritt, for being drunk, was fined $15.

Ira is evidently of a literary turn; in his pocket was found a poetical effusion, which of its kind, being disgustingly obscure, would be difficult to excel. Ira's talents have been sadly misapplied or perverted!

CO-OPERATION.—We understand that another Co-operative store has been opened to-day. This one is in the Tenth Ward, in our city, and is at present domiciled in Jas. Jordan's House, opposite the 10th Ward school-house. The citizens have taken hold of the matter with a unanimity of action that has enabled the Directors to make a favorable impression at the opening, and will, undoubtedly, place the institution upon a permanent basis. Bishop John Proctor was elected President; William Ashman, Vice-President; George Bradley, Jas. Phillips and Abraham Hillman, Directors; Adam Speirs, Treasurer; William Fuller, Secretary. Which is the next Ward ready to publicly demonstrate its faith in the course in relation to Co-operation?

PARTY AND FEMALE RELIEF SOCIETY.—A party was held in the 11th Ward School house last night in aid of the Ward Female Relief Society. The School House was nicely decorated with banners, upon which were described pleasing and appropriate mottoes. The torchlight procession, which was led and exhilarating, which with its movements and general good feeling, made the party highly enjoyable to all.

As we were passing one of the aqueduct on North Sunday last, we saw a 7 or 8 years old, trying to swim with a pail of water, when on the ice which had formed backwards into the stream. I was careful in sending their place, for it is becoming dangerous the melting of the snow in the streets, and might result seriously to their children. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

DEATH.—Our correspondent at Echoing on the 21st instant, says the war is standing at zero, speaking of atmospheric conditions, trade and the weather very cold. Frost was laid to within eleven miles of Weber on the evening of the 21st. The storm of that day had temporary suspension of the tracklayers. Flour was sold by the quantity, at $7.30 per barrel.

HERN.—Salt Lake City; sun shining, Kayville; pleasant, sun shining; Willard; sun shining, rose hard Logan, very cold and clear, snow only in spots. American Fork; mild it. Springville; sun shining and not little snow on the ground. Payson; pleasant, sun shining, cold. Fountain Green; very fine, quite dry; sun bright, no snow, roads dry, very pleasant and warm, sun very brightly. Fillmore; beautiful and very dry. Cove Creek; clear and little snow. Blanding; pleasant, roads dry and hard. Parowan; clear roads dry, no snow. Cedar City; fine and, roads good, warm and pleasant, clear and pleasant, last night was it this season; Thermometer 32.

Died:—11th Ward, on Sunday, Feb. 21, Thomas, aged 65 years and 10 days. Decent a faithful member of the Church. For, please copy.

On this instant, in childhood, aged 12 years, on and 3 weeks, M. A. E. Combe, Lenox, Cheverly, Whitlire, England. For, please copy.
