The closing of the doors of the Milwankee Avenue State bank, which occurred on Aug. 6, probably caused more anguish and trouble than any similar event in the west in many years. It was followed by several cases of suicide and a number of people were driven to insanity.

Stensland lived a fast life, spent money recklessly, speculated wildly and in one way or another made away with about $1,000,000 of the bank before the crash came. More than 22,000 families had money deposited in the bank and the failure came as a crushing blow to the majority of them. The vasa majority of the depositors were wage earn-ers and the money they had in the bank represented all that they had been able to save from the earnings of years.

Part of the bank's money is popurly thought to have gone to Cashier Hering, who was fond of race horses and had also the automobile fever. Hering, who surrendered himself later, and who is now in jail, has always de-

ONE LAW FOR ALL

My friends, I am glad to have the opportunity this afternoon to say a few mons' or Latter-day Saints, the gospel of Jesus Christ. There is a widespread misconception with regard to our beliefs and practises. It is commonly said on the one hand that we are of the most narrow types of persons, the most bigoted in our beliefs, contracted in our views, harsh in our udgment of others; and on the other hand it is often said that we are loose n our ways, careless with reference to our conduct-that any kind of conduct indeed is permissible so long as we yield obedience to those in author-ity. Both these views are incorrect. one hand Mormonism exacts from its adherents, in the strictest way, a moral life, and exacts from them requirements that make them live life in its highest conceptions. To them the law is the law; there are no exeptions. very soul must live the law or else the reward connected therewith cannot come. It is the law of the universe, the law of God, that all things should be predicated and are predicated upon Mormonism teaches, rather than a loose system of moral conduct, a belief that the strictest regard, the most implicit obedience to these laws of God must be had in order to get salvation. Not that the whims of men. not that their selfish objects shall be put into effect, but that the laws of God, that are true at all times, should implicitly obeyed, and without such obedience there can be no salvation.

he introduced into the Church of Christ, that one may be brought into the fold of God, certain laws are pre-scribed by Him, not by man, not by the Latter-day Saints, but by the Lord Himself—the same laws that He prescribed when in the meridian of time He came among men, and those laws must be obeyed with the utmost rigor. Without obedience to them no one can find full entrance into the kingdom of God. You know what the Scriptures say about faith. Without faith it is impossible to please God, and he that cometh to God must believe that He is and that He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him. There must first be an exercise of faith in Him. In our articles of faith you will find this statement: "We believe the first principies of the gospel ares faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, repentance, baptism by immersion for the remission of sins, the Holy Ghost," Mormonism teaches Himself, must be obeyed before one can find entrance into His kingdom. Surely if without faith it is impossible to please God, then without faith it is apossible to secure the fulness His blessings, and as no unclean thing God, then surely one must repent before he can find access thereto. He must also be haptized, for "except born of the water and of the Spirit he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. These are the words of our Savior. some people, yet they are laid down as the law of entrance into the kingdom of God, and they are true now as they vere true when our Savior uttered fire, the laying on of hands for the gift of the Holy Ghost, that the light that comes from that gift may guide the feet of those who have entered into

> UNIVERSAL SALVATION. The Latter-day Saints, in this liberalall men through whom God has pre-sented the truth in any form are approved of Him. Not alone those that happen to be "cooped up"—as I might say-in Mormonism proper, not merely those within the confines of the Chu but that all souls who have taught the right at any time, all who have brought light into the world, all who have planted hope where hope grew not he-fore, all who have taught that there is a hope of immortality, that there is a possibility beyond the grave, all who light, all these are God's agencies, God's means of enlightening the world and preparing the world for the full meas-are of light which is comprised within the gospel of Jesus Christ, obedience, that Plato and Aristotle and Socrates, and all the men who were true leaders among the ancient Greeks, all such as these were God's teachers; that in their measure He gave them the light that the world could stand, that the people could endure at that time, and in that way prepared the world for the coming of something greater and better and more perfect And in our own time any soul that leads upward, any soul that teaches truth, any soul that induces people to love what is good and beautiful, in that measure is sent of God, in that measure will be blessed of Him, in that measure is doing His service, because he is bringing light into the world and preparing the minds of men for the fulness of truth. That is beautifully stated in one of the books of Scripture of the Latter-day Saints, the Book of Mormon, not believed in by you, and yet a book which is full of profound other Scriptures of the Lord. One of the prophets of ancient times who lived on this continent-and this book gives an account of the people of this continent-was wishing that he might be an angel that he could proclaim the truth to all the world, that he might make all the world see the beauties that he saw, then on second thought he said the essence of Mormonism and which show the liberality and the breadth and the universality that breathes in every part and tissue of Mormonism: should I desire that I were an angel that I could speak unto all the doth grant unto all nations of their own nation and tongue to teach His word, yea wisdom, all that He seeth fit that they should have,"

Therefore we see that the Lord doth counsel in wisdom every nation according to its measure, so that in time full measure of truth and for the ad-ministration of the ordinances of the gospel by those who have full authority from Him. Of course the Latter-day Saints do not believe that such men as have named had the perfect truth. There was much of human thought mixed with their doctrine, much of weakness and confusion. Neither do the Latter-day Saints believe that these men had authority from God to administer in the ordinances of the gospel as Jesus Christ taught it, yet in a measure they were His servants, his agents, and as they brought some light and truth into the world the Latter-day Saints say of them; blessed are they. It is part of God's plan that all the agencies of light should help in the cause of spreading truth and illumi-nating the minds of men that in His wn due time they may have an portunity to embrace the fulness of on the part of the gospel of Jesus Christ teaches the Latter-day Saints Christ teaches the Latter is oppor-that even after death there is hope. They opportunity for advancement, that there, over there, they may learn the truth; they may exercise faith in God; and on this earth, by proxy, they may have the ordinances of the gospel ad-ministered for them. Why, is there not a spirit of love, a spirit of interest in all mankind manifested in this plan that is commendable? Does it His children in very deed, that we are of the same kin as Him, made in His image, and as Paul said, we are His offspring, and because of that He loves us, and if we have not the opportunity here, we may still have an opportunity beyond the grave to learn the truth. Aye even if we have the opportunity here and reject it, we may still have an opportunity there to repent and receive the blessings of which we are worthy. Is that not lib-eral enough? Does that not show a though it still demands obedience to the law by those who have passed beyond, it gives them an opportunity there to know what the law is that they might obey. DOCTRINE NOT NEW. This is no new doctrine; it is the same is Jesus Christ taught. You rememuntil the third day, His Spirit was absent somewhere, and when it returned His body and He in that united ondition was walking in the garden. Mary who loved Him, rushed to Him would have embraced Him, but have not ascended to my Father in heaven." Not yet on the third day? And yet that might Spirit! Where had He been. Why, the Apostle Peter explains where that Spirit was, "For this cause," said Peter, "hath Christ suffered, the just for the unjust, being put to death in the flesh but quickened by the Spirit, by which also He went and preached to the spirits in prison," the spirits who were disobedient in the time of Noah. The Spirit of Jesus Chest yearned for the souls This Spirit, longing to liberate them from the bands of sin, went and preached to the spirits in prison who aforetime were disobedient in the days of Neah. Peter says: "And for this causes was the gospel preached unto live according to God in the spirit but judged according to men in flesh," So that this broad liberal spirit of Mormonism offers hope to all mankind; offers oppotunity in this life all who will embrace it; recognizes the good that exists in the teachings of all good men, as God's agents and servants in their measure, though not having the fulness.

Chippo, with Farns, learned that a rafiroad employe, whose name was not given to the police, had received his pay check, and they conceived a pian to rob his house. Last evening they cut the screens on the windows, entered the piace and secured $17.50. They then invited two girls to go with them to the Salt Palace.

The stolen money, or most of it, was spent on ice cream, sodas, the scenic rallway and the Old Mill, after which the youths came up town and proceeded to youths came up town and proceded to make a lurid finish to a good time. When arrested this morning, the Chippe youth admitted his guilt. He resides at 174 south West Temple street.

SALISBURY BOYS HOLD THEIR TITLE

Retain Intermountain Tennis Championship for Another Year.

After losing the first two sets the Salisbury brothers, Walker and Jimmy, took three straight sets from the Brown-Badger team, and won the intermountain tennis tournament in doubles. To the Salisbury boys it was a successful defending of their title, and to the game it was an example of the hardest and closest tennis ever played on a local court.

The Salisbury team won after exhausting their opponents. In the first two sets it was a pitched battle with no advantage. In the third the Salisbury boys forged ahead for the first time, and Badger began to show the effects of the hard play. His lobbing went wild occasionally and in an exchange of volleying he began to lose more frequently. With the Salisbury boys leading 4-3 the game was duced 15 or more times in the critical turning point of the day. It finally went to the holders, and after work and perfect control brought the next two sets more easily.

The sets went 4-6, 4-6, 6-4, 6-4, 6-1 When the Salisbury boys took their first set their friends among the spectators went wild with joy as they had begun count them down and out. Tomorrow the tourney will come to a close with the finals in singles in which Brown meets O. J. Salisbury, Jr., for the championship.

SHERIFF EMERY HOME.

Was Near Scene Where Boating Party Was Drowned.

Sheriff C. Frank Emery and two sons and a brother, George R. Emery, returned yesterday from Yellowstone park, where they have been for the past two weeks. The sheriff and his party were camped at Clear lake in the park on the night that two young men were drowned, an account of which appears in another column of this issue.

He states that a party of three young men and three women were out boat riding at night when the boat sprung a leak. Two of the men jumped out and tried to swim to shore, but were taken with cramps and drowned, and stayed in the boat and their ories for help aroused those in the sheriff's party and they hastened to the rescue. Pierce, a young busines man of Ida., swam to the boat and, after a hard struggle, succeeded in towing the boat and its occupants safely

Lost His Bedding-Harry Colburn, who was secretary of the fire department under W. H. Bywater, lost his bedding and other property yesterday morning. Mr. Colburn is working on the Cottonwood conduit, and while he was absent from his tent some one ap-propriated the articles. The loss was reported to the police and efforts are being made to apprehend the thief.

Dead Body Found-The lifeless body James McGee was discovered, lying downward, at Upper Bingham late Saturday afternoon. It was at first thought that there might have been foul play, but it was subsequently determined that death resulted from suffocation in the mud. McGee had doubtless fallen in a fit and strangled to death. He was about 35 years old and unmarried. A brother, Sam Mc-Gee, lives at Bingham.

PIANO PLAYERS AND PLAYER PIANOS.

ticular at all times?

You must remember that we organsed this plane club of 137 people to take not only the planes, but the auto-matic players—planelas, as they are commonly called-as well.

So we have twelve players and com-bination planes and players, to close out at this sale, for we know that among this large number of buyers there will be twelve, only one dozen-that will want players, perhaps more, so that if you are in the market for a player you would do well to hurry and get one of these twelves player that we are going to close out at this sale at less than factory wholesals prices, on payments to suit your convenience.

They are all marked in plainly re duced figures at a saving of from 25 some music with them, too. See these club sale players and prices.

BARGAINS IN ORGANS AND SQUARE PIANOS. Now, you have a little daughter o little son that you want to start in music, you know now that he or she s musical, because you have heard his or her sweet voice in song time and time again, or they have used the chair, table or other furniture to drum on as they would on a plane.

Now we have 33 to 40 good organs and square planes that we are going TO ALMOST GIVE AWAY.

All we will charge you for some of them is the bare cost of repairs we mave put on them and the dray charges. You don't want to miss this opportunity to supply the little ones with an instrument they can learn on, if you do not feel that you can take Square pianos for $18, $2 monthly.

And the best, some as good as new,
which were originally $500 pianos, to go at $52 to $149. Payments to suit you. See them quick. They'll go fast.
If you can't get the plane new, come and take one of these good cabinet organs at special half-price rates, on terms to sult your convenience. Organs, good ones, to close at $10, $15, $23, $29, $32 to $48. Terms, $2 to $5 down, $1.50 to $2.50 and $3
