SALT LAKE CITY, August 15, 1872.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THERMOMETER 92° in the shade at two o'clock to-day, with a disagreeable, warm, parching breeze.

THEATRE.—Mr. Chaplain and Miss Walters played very nicely in the drama of "Enoch Arden" last night, as also did Messrs. Marden and Thorne and Mrs. Bowring.

For this evening there is a very good bill, including the popular drama of "Ireland as it Is," and the burlesque of "Pocahontas," sufficient surely for one night. Mr. Chaplin appears as "Dan O'Carolan" and "H. J. Pow-ha-tan-i," and Miss Walters as "Judy O'Trot" and "H. R. H. Princess Pocahontas." Included also in the cast, in favorite characters, are Messrs. Graham, Marden, Thorne, and Harris. This will be an excellent evening's entertainment.

LECTURES.—We had a call this morning from Charles Devarhoe, Esq., agent for Dr. Paul M. Brenan, who is here for the purpose of arranging for the delivery of a course of lectures by the Doctor in this city. Dr. Brenan is an anatomist and physiologist, and the Ogden Junction speaks in commendable terms of the way in which he handles all branches of his subjects. To some of his lectures gentlemen only are admitted, and to others only ladies, and he also addresses mixed audiences. His principal theme, we understand, is the laws of life and health.

THE AURORAL DISPLAY last night might have been brilliant, had it not been for the brightness of the moonshine.

INAPPROPRIATE.—The lines by W. H. A., on the death of the wife of W. E. P., are scarcely suitable for the columns of the News.

WILL ENLARGE.—The Footlights, we understand, will appear in a few days in an enlarged form, when it will be similar in dimensions to the San Francisco Figaro.

RESISTING.—We understand that Pat Lannan is the only liquor dealer in town refusing to pay licence under the new ordinance.

LOGAN, Cache Co., U. T.,
August 12th, 1872.

Editor Deseret News:

Dear Sir—As I see my name in your paper as signed to a petition against Utah being admitted as a State, I will say that I never signed my name nor authorized any person to sign my name, and I therefore ask you to publish this, because I don't like to appear to be connected with such a movement. Yours very truly,
HENDRICK LAMSEN.

RETURNS.—Here are the election returns for Parowan—

For Delegate to Congress, George Q. Cannon received 544 votes, Geo. R. Maxwell, 2; Commissioners to Locate University Lands, John Van Cott, 544; Lewis S. Hills, 544; John Rowberry, 543; Representative, Silas S. Smith, 541; Ebenezer Hanks, 5.
JESSE N. SMITH,
County Clerk.

TESTIMONIAL BENEFIT.—A testimonial benefit will be given on Monday night, Aug. 19th, to Mr. John Wilson, the veteran Californian equestrian manager and proprietor, when his "Grand San Francisco circus" will return from the tour south. Positively for one night only.

By particular request, the historical, spectacular, equestrian drama of "Turpin's ride to York," or the "Death of Black Bess," with Mr. Omer Kingsley in the title role, and his highly trained mare, "Black Bess," will be produced, with original music, paraphernalia, scenery and appointments.

The entire troupe of equestrian performers, including the celebrated Matthews Family, will appear on the occasion.

Mr. John Wilson, the proprietor, goes east for the purpose of securing numerous and valuable accessions to the company, in the shape of first class artists, selected from various establishments.

The circus will perform in Ogden on Tuesday, Aug. 20th, will afterwards make a tour of Cache and Bear Lake valleys, and will also visit Echo, Weber and Evanston, making Corinne about September 5th, where the company will be joined by Mr. Wilson and the new artists from the east, after which the circus will revisit this city and give one or more performances with varied and additional attractions.

THE INDIANS.—Brother James C. Brown writes from Manti, Sanpete, Aug. 9th, as follows:

The Indians are still around, and are meaner than ever. They have been stealing horses every night during the week from the range, and also from the brethren's stables. They took one of mine away a few weeks ago. I got him back, however, by paying for him. They took the other this week. They have tried, for several nights past, to steal from the stable of Mayor Tuttle a fine pair of bays, but, as yet, they have been unsuccessful. They tried it last night, and on not getting them, they crossed the street to the stable of A. C. Van Buren and took one of his. A party of them went down to the range last evening, and myself and three others who were on our way home from hunting horses, saw them just about dark. We felt certain they wanted to steal a band of horses that was close by, we went to work and gathered the animals together and took them to town. I expect they were disappointed at losing the band, for they wantonly shot a mule with an arrow, mortally wounding it. They also went a little further and shot down a steer, and, with their knives, cut it all to pieces.

They manifest even a meaner spirit now than they did before the last war. They went into a brother's house the other day when there was no one at home but the latter's wife, and, because she did not give them bread when they asked it, they struck her on the face. Several instances have occurred where they have threatened women with violence for not complying with their demands. The people are fairly exasperated, but do not want to take any steps that would tend to start an Indian war if it can be avoided. I am informed that a party of Indians went to a stable in Ephraim, a few nights ago, and because they could not get the horses out of the stable, crawled in by a small opening and cut the animals with their knives in a horrible manner.

PECULIAR.—It will be remembered that the dead body of a man, named Jacob Haug, was found near Central City, Little Cottonwood, on the 6th inst. It appears that the coroner's inquest was held the day following, and although, as we are reliably informed, the evidence was conflicting on some important points, some of it giving strong grounds for a belief that Haug had met with foul play, the jury returned a verdict to the effect that in their opinion he came to his death by his own hand. Three medical gentlemen gave evidence at the inquiry, all of whom were united in the belief that the case in question was not one of suicide. Haug was shot through the body, the ball entering between the fourth and fifth ribs, on the left side, and, taking a downward tendency, pierced the apex of the heart. Two of the medical witnesses said they never knew of a case of suicide where the party committing the act shot himself through the body, almost invariably aiming at the head. It was known that Haug had considerable money.

PROCEEDING.—The Obey trial is still proceeding in the Probate Court, and the case had not gone to the jury this afternoon.

S. S. STEVENS, general western agent of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad, is in town and favored us with a call to-day. From our acquaintance in the past with Mr. Stevens, we believe that the companies for whom he is agent could not find a more gentlemanly or able representative. The home of Mr. S. is at Council Bluffs.

TELEGRAMS at the Deseret Telegraph office for A. M. Jones, James Lynch, L. A. Page, F. A. Reinhart.

THE TOWNSEND HOUSE.—We visited the hotel of Mr. James Townsend this morning, and take pleasure in mentioning improvements which the proprietor has just completed in his popular establishment. He has erected a very fine dining room 45x60 feet, which will probably be brought into use to-morrow. His kitchen, store room, cellars for storing vegetables, large refrigerators for keeping ice, and the pastry cook's department are all arranged in a supererior style. Hot and cold water pipes have been laid, which will greatly facilitate the labors of the culinary department. He has had a large cistern constructed from which, by means of pipes, a constant supply of water is furnished throughout his whole establishment. This has been a long desired improvement, and will prove an additional attraction to and convenience in Mr. Townsend's hotel. Additional suits of fine, commodious rooms have also just been erected with commodes, and every improvement necessary for the convenience and comfort of his guests; and taking the Townsend House as a whole, we are satisfied that it would be difficult to find its superior, and it is evident that its proprietor is up to the times and intends to do all that labor and means will accomplish to retain the supremacy, in his business in this city, so long since awarded him by a discriminating public.
