

Died:

Accidentally drowned, on the 8th inst., at Plain City, ALFRED BINGHAM, son of John Spiers, aged 3 years, 2 months and 7 days.

In Heber City, Provo Valley, July 28, of consumption, OSCAR B. LUCAS, aged 29 years and 4 months.

Boston papers please copy.

In Rockville, Kane co., July 18, of scarlet fever, JOHN JACOB, son of Henry and Ann Jennings, aged 5 years, 2 months and 18 days; also, on the 18th, at the same place, of scarlet fever and putrid sore throat, ALBERT HOPKINS, son of Henry and Ann Jennings, aged 14 years, 4 months and 12 days.

On Big Cottonwood, at his residence, Aug. 22, of dropsy, WINSLOW FARR, aged 71 years and 8 months.

He embraced the gospel in the State of Vermont, in 1822; gathered with the Saints to Kirtland, Ohio, in 1837; moved to Far West, Mo., in July, 1838, and moved with the Saints to Nauvoo, Ill., in 1839; remained there until the church was expelled from the State, when he came with the Saints to this valley. He was a High Priest, and took several missions through the Eastern States; was a member of the High Council in Zion for many years; was ever ready to advocate the cause of the Saints, and has always been ready to move without question in the channel marked out for him by those having authority to counsel. He leaves us in honorable remembrance of all his past life, and has left many relatives and warm friends to mourn his absence. He has gone down to his grave like a shock of corn fully ripe, with a clear hope of a glorious resurrection.—(Com.)
