The funeral of Mrs. Joseph T. Kescel will be held at the residence of W. D. Callister, 730 south West Temple street, tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock.

The charity ball given for the benefit of St. Mark's hospital last night was a large and brilliant affair. A more exnded account of the function will appear in Saturday's "News."

It was learned today that Dr. Odell, ex-quarantine physician of Salt Lake, expects to remove from here in the near future and take up his residence in the company. It is safe to say that the effort is the most ambitious ever undertaken by a ward organization in this city. That a great surprise is in store for those who attend is also certain. A chorus of forty excellent voices will participate in the production and the New Grand orchestra will be in attend-ance. The expenses will be heavy, but the sale of seats, nearly a week in adnev. vance of the first performance exceeds It is a foregone conclusion that $150. the pretty little meeting house will be packed every night. ness College have invitations out for a reception to be tendered the faculty at Tuesday Christensen's hall. February 27, 1900, is the date set for the reception and it is the first event its kind since the college has been under the new management.

The people of the Twenty-third ward are promised a rare treat tomorrow evening in the rendition of the beautiful little operetta, the title of which is "Grandpa's Birthday." The piece will be given under the direction of D. P. Feit and the proceeds go to the ward Sunday school.

It has been a long time since a dancing party has been given by the young people of the Twentleth ward owing to the fact that they have no hall. They have, however, decided to give one next Wednesday evening in the Eighteenth ward hall. It will be under the auspices of the Mutual Improvement Association of the ward.

The Herald gravely announces this orning that a certain member of the staff was again on duty after 'Nown'' a protacted period of illness. The item was evidently inspired in perfect good feeling, but is somewhat inaccurate in that the gentleman referred to has been on constant duty since the first day of last July.

The Fifth ward Sunday school students are enjoying themselves in their annual Washington birthday observance this afternoon. It is expected that between 300 and 400 of the little folks will slt down to the feasting boards after which dancing will be in-dulged in. This evening the officers and older members of the school will have "their time." Members of the ward ure invited to attend.

Receiver George A. Smith, of the United States land office, met with an accident yesterday which, for a while, It was thought would cost him the loss of his left eye. Mr. Smith was in the act of cutting kindling wood, whe plece flew up and struck the lens of the glasses he was wearing, cutting the eyelids and injuring the eye. Drs. Pfoutz and Snow, who attended Mr. Smith, say the sight can be saved, no glass having entered the eye.

The students of the third and fourth year normal classes, will hold their de-bate and story teiling contest tomorrow night, in the laboratory building question is "Resolved, that the English justified in their present attitude toward the Boers." The affirmative will presented by the fourth year class, and the "naughty ones" will endeavor to defeat them. 'The contestants in the original narrative are Miss Blanche Thomas and Miss Delta Cole, a sister of Utah's last graduate from West

"Our Country" should have been di-lated upon by C. E. Allen, but he was umable to appear on account of sick-ness, and Judge R. N. Baskin spoke in his stead. The short address was in his stead. The short address was full of patriotic schument, and the institutions of learning were eulogized as the hulwarks which would preserve the nation. His remarks were con-cluded by the company at his request singing, "The Star Spangied Banner." "The Volunteer" was treated to en-comiums at the graceful hand of D. H. Wells Jr.

With the air of one who is sure of his ground Causten Brown Jr. expatialed on the much mooted question, "Is Mar-riage a Fallure?" He had decided in one week's experience that it was a

PLEASED WITH HIS VISIT. What an Old Ohio Friend of President Snow Says.

Hon. C. D. Ingell returned from Goldburg, Idaho, early Sunday morning, after an absence of 31 days, making the home trip via Salt Lake City, where he stopped long enough to visit the city of the Saints,' and acquaint himself with its beauties and some of its more remarkable characteristics. While there is called on Lorenzo Snow, the President of the "Mormon" hurch, who entertained him royally, and drove him about the city behind a

"Serves" Warrants on Ed. Laird and Wm. Roach, Charged With Befouling Water.

Officer Chas. Sperry is a man who advocates and practices the doctrine of allowing ones head to save one's heels. The genial limb of the law is noted for determination, particularly when he has an extremely difficult job on hand and the tenacity with which he hangs on to a clue is like unto a brindle pup's grip on a rubber boot. Nevertheless he believes in doing things in a manner that gives little trouble when possible. Yesterday afternoon Land and Water Commissioner Westerfield swore to a complaint before Justice Timmony accusing Edward Laird and William Roach of befouling the waters of Parley's creek by allowing the draining from their stock corrals to run into the Warrants for their arrest were issued and given to Officer Sperry to serve. "A ride of seventeen miles through a cold muddy canyon!" mused Sperry. Then he thought a moment. Suddenly a 4x6 smile appeared on his countenance and going to the telephone he called up Roach's "half-way" house Whén he got Roach's the following was heard by those in the office at police head-quarters: "Hello, is that Roach's:" "Is Mr. Roach there?" "Well, just have him step to the 'phone." [Wait of several seconds, during which the reporters grinned at each other and looked wise.] "Hello, is that you, Mr. Roach? Eh, oh. Well, I have here a warrant for your arrest: eh!! Yes, ha ha he he. Will you come down to Judge Tim-mony's court Friday? Allright." After explaining the charge Sperry Buid

"Say, Roach, please call at Mr. Laird's and tell him that he's arrested to, and bring him down with you. Good-bye." Sperry rang off, smiled and walked out with the air of superiority.

There is no better medicine for the babies than Chamberlain's Cough Rem-edy. Its pleasant taste and prompt and effectual cures make it a favorite with mothers and small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds, preventing pneumonia or other serious consequences. It also cures croup and has used in tens of thousands of cases without a single failure so far as we have been able to learn. It not only cures croup, but when given as SOOD as the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. In cases of whooping cough it liquifies the tough mucus, making it easier to expectorate, and lessens the severity and frequency of the paroxysms of coughing, thus depriving that disease of all dangerous consequences.
