Crops Damaged.

CHICAGO, 31.—Reports from numerous points in Ohio, Indiana, Iowa, Missouri and Illinois, state that the frequent and heavy rains that have visited the northwest during the past week have done great injury to the growing crops, and in some sections whole farms are flooded. Wheat has suffered greatly, and it is feared that this crop will be almost a failure in some localities. In the low lands along the river the water is standing so deep as to prohibit harvesting or cultivation; the crops on high or rolling ground are in a better condition, but the average will probably be low even there.

Dead.

POTTSVILLE, 31.—Benj. Bannon, for a long time proprietor and editor of the Miners' Journal, died to-day, aged 68.

Respect to Johnson.

WASHINGTON, 31.—As a mark of respect to ex-President Johnson the flag was at half mast from the staff over the music stand of the Executive Mansion, and from the various public buildings in the city.

Beecher to be Orator.

MANCHESTER, 31.—Henry Ward Beecher will deliver the annual address at the New England and New Hampshire agricultural fair, to be held here from Sept. 7th to 10th inclusive.

Gone to Europe—Flags at Half Mast—The O'Connell Centennial.

NEW YORK, 31.—Roncetti, the Ablegate, and the Rev. Dr. Ubalde, secretary of the Papal Legation, sailed for Europe to-day; they were escorted down the bay by a steamer containing distinguished clergy and laity.

Soon after the announcement, today, of the death of ex-President Johnson, flags were placed at half mast over the city hall.

The Rev. Dr. Glian, pastor of St. Stephen's church, who accompanied the papal embassy through the west and Canada, has been selected to deliver the oration on the occasion of the Daniel O'Connell Centennial Celebration in this city, August 6th. Invitations are to be sent to the President and his cabinet, to the officers of the government of the State, and to the county officers and to the representative men of the several religious denominations.

KENNEBUNK, Me., 31.—Perkins and Crawford's steam mill, at Kennebunkport, was burned yesterday; loss $35,000, insurance $25,000.

Disaster at Sea.

SAN FRANCISCO, 31.—The schooner Skylark has arrived here, and brings news of the loss of the bark Clara R. Sutil, which left here on the 18th, for Coos Bay; on the 25th a heavy sea started her stern post and she sank at half past ten p.m. The crew were in a boat four days and nights without food or water, and were picked up by the Skylark and brought here.

News From China and Japan.

Arrived the O. & O. Company's steamer Belgic, from Hong Kong via Yokohama.

Yokohama, July 12th. The new deliberative assembly was organized and opened by the emperor, July 5th. On the following day a discussion commenced upon the preparation of a new system of jurisprudence. The presidency of this body remains vacant, vice-president Goto occupying the chair.

On July 4th, the department of the interior buildings, in Yedo, were destroyed by fire; a great number of ancient historical documents, of which no copies exist, were burned, together with the entire collection of maps upon which the surveying bureau had been engaged for four years.

The Russian commissioners were daily expected in Yedo to complete the arrangements for the transfer of Saghalien; the formal possession of the newly acquired territory, which will be occupied as a penal settlement, will follow without delay.

Minister Bingham in Yedo, and Consul General Van Buren in Yokohama, offered suitable entertainments on July 5th. The anniversary was quietly celebrated, no salutes being fired by the ships of war in the harbor.

Hong Kong, July 1.—Shanghai July 1.—There are renewed indications that China is about to commence war upon Kashgar, in consequence of the alleged discovery that the rulers of that tributary state are preparing to revolt against Chinese authority.

Elmore, Peruvian charge d'affaires, had arrived at Pekin, for the ratification of the treaty between Peru and China.

It is reported that an official of the first rank, a viceroy and brother of Li Hung Chang, will be sent as a commissioner to Yunnan, to investigate the murder of Margary; this appointment is in consequence of the dissatisfaction of the English legation with the previous nominations of persons of inferior grade.

There was a destructive fire at Hongkong on the night of June 22nd, by which much foreign property was destroyed, including the premises of Russell & Co.; the estimated damage is $35,000.

The disturbances in Manchuria continue, and the government troops are reported to be held in check by the insurgents.

On June 12 the steamer Carisbrooke, from Singapore, owned by British subjects, was discovered landing passengers and cargo on the island of Hainah, Hainan being closed to foreigners; the ship was boarded and seized by English customs officials in the Chinese service, and ordered to Whampoa for an investigation. The captain of the Carisbrooke promised to follow a Chinese gunboat to that port, but he presently endeavored to escape to Hongkong. After several warnings his vessel was fired upon and disabled, and was finally captured and taken to Whampoa. There were several hundred passengers on the Carisbrooke, but none were injured, the shots having been directed at the rudder only. There is much excitement among the English, though few deny that the seizure was warranted, as an attempt at smuggling was obvious. A judicial investigation at Canton having resulted unsatisfactorily, the matter was referred to Peking for judgment.

The American consul at Chinkiang, while walking with his wife, was assailed with offensive language by a party of Chinese soldiers; the native police interfered and a fight ensued between the Chinese. The Americans were not further molested. Two soldiers were arrested and taken to the British consulate for incarceration, which place was soon surrounded by a military mob, demanding the release of their companions, but they were presently dispersed by one of their own officers. Magnified reports of this affair having reached Shanghai, Consuls Seward and Medhurst proceeded to Chinkiang in American and British ships of war for an investigation. The Chinese authorities promptly offered full reparation, and inflicted ample punishment on the offenders.

Assaults are reported on attaches of the British and Russian legations by mobs in Peking.

There are continued engagements between the savages of Formosa and the Chinese, and it is now admitted that China must extirpate, as she cannot subjugate, the aborigines.

The American bark James Condie, from New York to Yokohama, was wrecked March 30th on the island of Camboda; the passengers and crew were well treated by the natives, and were rescued April 14th by the Italian ship of war Vittor Pisani. Captain Alexander and his wife and children, and the officers and crew were taken to Batavia. Dr. Vanderpool, a passenger, was brought to Hongkong on the Vittor Pisani.
