

SOCIAL CHAT

The week has been a brilliant one, eclipsing any of the past three months in the number and nature of its social functions. The opening of the Emery-Holmes cafe on Wednesday was among the more notable events, marking as it did the advent of another place of entertainment which promises to be a close rival in popular favor with the many social clubs. The assembly halls are always features of the social season, and with this, and the many other events, the week has been crowded to its close.

The week opened with the luncheon at the University club in celebration of the Reviewers' president's day. Mrs. E. O. Lee being hostess. Yellow and green, the club colors, were the decorations, and were carried out in daffodils and ferns. Toasts were responded to by the club members, and a number of guests were present to enjoy the pleasant affair.

Another specially interesting event of Monday was the play given in the Eighteenth ward hall by a number of young society people of the city, and in charge of Miss Kirkpatrick. The amateurs did well, and the play furnished endless amusement.

On Tuesday Mrs. William McCaskill entertained at a delightful luncheon at the Alta club in honor of her sister, Mrs. Gallagher of Omaha. The gold room was used and decorated in red and green, covers being laid for 20. The guests besides Mrs. Gallagher, were Mrs. Arthur H. S. Bird, Mrs. R. H. Channing, Mrs. Thomas Kearns, Mrs. S. McCaskill, Mrs. George M. Dooney, Mrs. Mabel Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Robert Harkness, Mrs. Seton Lindsay, Mrs. Arthur Callahan, Mrs. John E. Dooly, Mrs. W. A. Nelson, Mrs. Russell L. Tracy, Mrs. O. J. Salisbury, Mrs. Robert J. Goodwin, Mrs. Dickson, Mrs. John A. Marshall and Miss Keogh.

Mrs. Julia Taylor was hostess at an enjoyable card party on Tuesday, the amusement being such. The room was prettily decorated, and about 20 guests were present. The prize in the contest went to Mrs. Heber Lee.

One of Tuesday's delightful functions was the musicale and luncheon given by Mrs. Walter Kelly, in honor of her guest, Miss Edith Kelly of San Francisco. The room was artistically decorated, and a choice musical program was rendered, followed by a delicious luncheon. About 25 guests were entertained.

Mrs. C. S. Morris entertained at an elaborate dinner at the University club on Tuesday night, covers being laid for 12. The table was decorated with American Beauty roses, carnations and ferns, and bunches of violets were at each place as souvenirs for the guests.

Miss Judge was hostess at a dinner at her home on Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Salisbury, who left this week for the east.

The opening of the Emery-Holmes cafe on Wednesday night was marked by a number of dinner given by well-known society people of the city. Among those who have already taken apartments are: Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Pinkerton, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McMurrian, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Reber, Dr. and Mrs. Keogh, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Rhoades, Mrs. Moore, C. P. Adams, T. J. Armstrong, John Lewis, M. H. Kreibel, C. H. Sampson, J. R. Pocht, M. Lichtenstein, Miss Barry, Mrs. Schirmer, H. G. Brockman, E. W. Packard, F. M. Nelson, Miss Plummer, Capt. Lawrence, Judge and Mrs. Miner, Frank Harris and Miss R. Folger.

The "promenade" given by the juniors at the University last night deserves place among the notable affairs of the week. The six fraternities of the University took hold of it with fervor, and the result of the efforts of all was a successful and brilliant event. Each fraternity furnished decorations after its own choice, and the big museum hall was transformed into a most sumptuous with its drapes, cushions, streamers and other effective adornments, while booths of silver and crystal, presented by the "Happy Hour" club of which the host is a member. Congratulations and addresses were made by Messrs. L. M. Iverson, M. P. Madsen and P. Modstrup.

Mrs. Everett Buckingham entertained at a large card party yesterday afternoon, the amusement being bridge. The room was prettily decorated and the event in all was delightful.

The charity ball to be given by the Council of Jewish Women next Tuesday night promises to be one of the most successful yet undertaken. It will take place at Christensen's, and elaborate preparations are in progress for the event. These affairs are always popular, and there can be no doubt as to its success.

A delightful surprise party was planned for Mrs. Sarah Jennie Cannon on Tuesday afternoon by some of her intimate friends and neighbors. Mrs. Cannon was out making some farewell calls, prior to her trip to the coast, her friends took possession of her home and prepared the rooms and tables. They brought baskets full of delicate and delicious viands and hearty full of kind wishes and thoughts for their dear friend. When Mrs. Cannon reached home everything was ready and she was almost overcome with her emotions at this expression of friendship. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent in conversation and reminiscences of Mrs. Cannon's labors as a social worker and her generous and neighborly kindness. The ladies were assisted by Mrs. Cannon's daughter-in-law, Mrs. Preston and Mrs. Joseph Cannon, in their preparations. Among those present were Mesdames Rebecca Sharp, Sarah A. J. Cannon, Ellen Silver, Martha T. Cannon, Lucy

Davey, Annie Pratt, Eliza T. Cannon, Orthelia Silver, Sarah A. Davey, Louis Gold, Lizzie Silver, Emma Hall and others.
