A RARE UTAH SOUVENIE AS A HOLIDAY GIFT

People who desire something striking and unusual in the book line to serve as a Christmas gift to a friend, (especially if that friend resides outside of the state,) could not do better than to call at the Deseret News Book Store and inspect the History of Utah in three large volumes, by Orson F. Whitney. This is the work lately acquired by the Deseret News from the George Q. Cannon association, the former price, of which was $30.00, but which has now been reduced to $15.00. The work is rapidly going out of print, and when the present edition is exhausted, it will be impossible to obtain copies anywhere.

The books are bound in gilt morocco fully illustrated, and would form a gift that would be appreciated for a life time.

RABBIT HUNT EXCURSION to St. Johns, Utah, Sunday, Dec. 6th. One dollar for round trip via. Salt Lake Route, ticket office 169 So. Main.

The belated Christmas shopper too rarely realizes his cruelty. This suf-fering is no sentimental figment, but real. To stand upon her feet through daylight hours and far into the night, to breathe and rebreathe all day the 'dead" air caused by the throngs, to "dead" air caused by the throngs, to answer tirelessly and cheerily the thousand one queries which bub-ble from the lips of bargain seekers, to keep this up for two weeks preced-ing Christmas—such is the routine of the clerk and shop-girl under our present Yuletide regime. And for this state of affairs the laggard buyer is largely to blame. Be making purstate of affairs the laggard buyer is largely to blame. By making pur-chases early in December, the "holi-day rush" would be distributed throughout the month instead of focalizing on the week before Christ-mas. This suggestion is neither new nor original. But we harp upon it for the original buyeting only coursed in
