CITY WATER PROBLEM.

Council Takes the Question Up and Endeavors to Solve the Difficulty.

WATER NOW TURNED INTO THE CONDUIT.

Work Will Give an Additional Flow of One Million Gallons Per Day—John Mantel Complains.

The water committee of the city council met last evening with the mayor and all members present except Messrs. Hyde and Bamberger. The former presented a great deal of data, all of the conclusions of which it was decided to use the water in Emigration canyon from the pipe-line to the Parley's canyon at the head of Foot hill road, for culinary purposes, through the present pipes, and the south bench, and to abandon Parley's ditch as at the head, by laying the water into the conduit.

To the solution of this end it is thought it can consume the use of about one million gallons per day.

GRIEVANCE OF JOHN MANTEL.

John Mantel appeared on the west bench and spoke to the committee as follows:

"As a South Temple and Gilmore of this city, I beg to draw your attention to certain statements and assertions made by Mr. Hyde, in the council meeting of last night. Mr. Hyde stated that I had refused to allow the water to flow through my premises, and that I had been notified to do so. This is a mistake. I have not refused to allow the water to flow through my premises, but I have refused to allow the water to flow through my premises, and I have refused to allow the water to flow through my premises, and I have refused to allow the water to flow through my premises, and
