den; with A. Hudson of Salt Lake and James Ballard of Ogden as alternates. President Marriott recommended that the local credit bureau be made a state bureau, and spoke highly of the work done by Asst. Secy. and Manager W. J. Donnellan. He also congratulated the merchants on the passing of the trading stamp, and com-mended a license for pedlers. The assistant secretary reported seven as-sociations in the state, and recommended that associations be started elsewhere in the state. It was also recommended that a bill be got through the legislature amending the garnishes law, making a percentage garnisheeable instead of a fixed amount. The convention decided on an outing at Lagoon, Aug. 15, when members all over the state will be asked to close their stores for the day,

UP AGAINST IT HARD.

Iver Redman, Bieyele Rider Pays Fine To Keep Out of Jail.

Two more men have run up against the methods of Francis G. Luke and Justice of the Peace Durand in the matter of collecting bills and to their sorrow were fined $7 each. The men are Iver Redman, the bloycle rider, and Barney Daugherty. They were fined for contempt of court for fatling to appear in supplementary proceed-ings when cited in by Justice Durand of Murray and they at first refused to pay the fine, but after more mature deliberation, decided to "dig" up. Under the present plan adopted by Luke, practically all of his complaints are filed in the Murray court, and the there to fight the cases and thus they are put to great inconvenience and extra expense. Pleas to the jurisdiction of the court have been frequently interposed by the attorneys for defendants, but the Murray justice has paid no attention to them and has gone right ahead and tried the cases. The matter has become so annoying that a number of attorneys have made the threat that the next legislature will be compelled to remedy the evil by giving justices of the peace jurisdiction only in the precinct for which they are elected and not throughout the entire

COUNTY ASSESSOR WAYLAID.

Prof. McCiellan was handsomely noticed by the Montana papers. The Butte Miner said he more than realized the high ex-pectations of his audience by his brilliant playing of a number of classical selections. The Anaconda Standard said that the program was a gost excellent one. Few organ recitals appeal to an audience as did that of last evening. Not only was the playing superb, but the entire program was given without the slightest suspicion of dragging. The visiting artist was very courteously treated, and noticeably at Helena was shown marked attention. He returns much gratified with the results of his northern trip.
