

STEADY AND READY.

Steady, when Fortune's dark shadows surround us;
Calm, when the winds of Adversity blow;
Brave, when the world's hollow voice would confound us;
Strong, though its wild waves tumultuous flow;
Steady in tempest, in strife, and commotion;
Hope as our anchor to stem the rude sea,
Fierce though the billows and wrathful the ocean—
Steady and ready our maxim shall be.

Ready, when sinister foes would oppress us;
Dauntless in conflict to do and to dare;
Ready to echo the voices which bless us
When shielding the offspring of want and despair;
Ready—to calm the low wailing of sorrow,
To battle with wrong till the enemy flee;
Hoping and trusting to win the bright, morrow—
Steady and ready our maxim shall be.

Steady, while dark streams around us are flowing,
Steady—the rocks and the quicksands to shun,
Firm in faith and full-heartedness growing
Till the conflict is over—the victory won;
Glimpses of sunshine steal round the dark river,
Starlight and moonlight illumine the sea;
Hail to the symbol—both now and for ever
Steady and ready our maxim shall be.

CRAZY VISITORS AT THE CAPITOL.—The Washington Star says, that since the beginning of the session of Congress the police of the Capitol have had considerable trouble with disorderly persons. America Burnham, the crazy would-be-Speaker, bothered them for a season; and a powerful man, who sports a big club, has lately been about the Capitol "trying to induce members to organize." But he says, "Congress is stubborn and self-willed, they are perverse, joined to their idols; and the Lord and himself have determined to let them alone, and turn them over to the devil."

Another fellow walked from New York to Washington, except about ten miles, "to organize the House;" but instead was arrested, and after promising to suspend his patriotic efforts was let go.

Yesterday, a German, who came from California, and claimed to be the senator elect, was taken from the House for attempting to take part in the proceedings. He had presented his credentials at the Senate door, but upon their examination by the doorkeeper, they proved to be nothing but old express bills by the Wells, Fargo & Co. line, and he could not pass. His conduct was such that he was placed in the cell, and afterwards sent to the workhouse as a vagrant.

Tuesday, an employe in the House introduced a person of doubtful character, a female, into the ladies' gallery, by conducting her through the committee rooms. The fact of her presence there was reported to Capt. Dunnington, and she was forthwith invited to leave. The employe was dismissed instantly.

Friday, some half dozen disorderly applauders were taken from the gallery for indulging in their pot-house expressions of approbation.

PRINTER'S TOAST.—At a late Franklin Festival, held in Cleveland, Ohio, the following toast was given:—

The Editor and Lawyer—The Devil is satisfied with the copy of the former, but requires the original of the latter.

SIXTH ANNUAL ANNOUNCEMENT

FROM all sections of the country subscribers to this popular Art Institution (now in its sixth year) are being received in a ratio unparalleled with that of any previous year.

Any person can become a member by subscribing $3 which will entitle him to

1st.—The beautiful Steel Engraving, "Shakespeare and His Friends."

2d.—A Copy of the elegantly Illustrated Art Journal, on year.

3d.—A Free Season Admission to the Galleries, 548 Broadway, New York.

In addition to which several hundred valuable Works of Art are given to subscribers as premiums, comprising choice paintings, sculptures, outlines, &c., by the first American and foreign artists.

The superb Engraving, which every subscriber will receive immediately on receipt of subscription, entitled "SHAKESPEARE AND HIS FRIENDS," is of a character to give unequalled pleasure and satisfaction. No work of equal value was ever before placed within reach of the people at such a price. The engraving is of very large size, being printed on heavy plate paper, 30 by 38 inches, making a most superb ornament suitable for the walls of either the library, parlor, or office.

It can be sent to any part of the country, by mail, with safety, being packed in a cylinder, postage pre-paid. Think of it! Such a work, delivered free of charge, and the Art Journal, one year, for three dollars!

Subscriptions will be received until the evening of Tuesday the 31st of January, 1860, at which time the books will close and the premiums be given to subscribers.

No person is restricted to a single subscription. Those remitting $15 are entitled to six memberships.
Subscriptions from California, the Canada, and all foreign provinces, must be $3 50 instead of $3, in order to defray extra postage, &c.

Persons wishing to form clubs will apply for a circular of terms, &c.

The beautifully Illustrated Art Journal, giving full particulars, will be sent on receipt of 18 cents, in stamps or coin.

Address C. L. Derby, actuary C. A. A., 546 and 548 Broadway, New York.

Subscriptions also received by W. G. MILLS, Hon. Sec. for Great Salt Lake City and vicinity.
