

road, heretofore belonging to Wilford Woodruff, George Q. Cannon, Joseph F. Smith, James Jack and Nephi W. Clayton.

Three hundred acres of land in section 26, township 3 north of range 5 east, valued at $1,400,000.

An undivided one-half interest in the south half of the southeast quarter and lot 4 of section 18, and the north half of the northeast quarter of section 19, township 3 north, range 6 east, in Summit county, valued at $2,600,000.

Nine hundred and thirty shares of the capital stock of the Salt Lake & Los Angeles Railway company, valued at $138,000.

One thousand and fifty shares of the capital stock of the Saltair Beach company, valued at $336,000.

Twelve hundred and forty-nine shares of the capital stock of the Inter-Mountain Salt company, valued at $124,000.

The stockholders named above are all directors of the company, and at a meeting held yesterday, subsequent to the filing of the articles, the following officers were elected:

George Q. Cannon, president; Joseph F. Smith, vice president; N. W. Clayton, secretary; and James Jack, treasurer.

The following executive committee was also chosen: Frank J. Cannon, N. W. Clayton and W. W. Cluff. This committee will have active charge and management of the business.

It may be here stated that a party of experts who came to Utah during this summer appraised the value of the properties named at over $1,000,000 in excess of the figures of the incorporators themselves. The officers are not yet in a position to give full details of the matter, but hope to do so at an early date. Meanwhile strong talk of a railroad to the coal mines is heard—a proposition that would mean the saving of nearly a million dollars per annum to this city in the matter of fuel alone. Other projects of like size and importance are in view. Altogether the probability is that the community will not have to wait long for an illustration of the benefits which this concentration of means and influence is expected to accomplish for the people of the Territory.

It is reported that an organized band of horse and cattle thieves are operating in the Powder river country in Jackson county, Wyo. They have a cave in the mountains where they conceal stolen property. It is supposed that this is the gang that have been raiding sheep camps the past few months.

AT HOME AND ABROAD.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 11.—Don Pio Pico, the last Mexican governor of California, died here this morning. He was 94 years old. Until within a few weeks he was in good health, though feeble.

LONDON, Sept. 11.—Detachments of the Salvation Army from all parts of London assembled at the Euston Railroad station today to bid farewell to "General" Booth, who started for America. The "general" will reach New York about October 20th, and proceed to the principal northern and western cities of the United States, eventually reaching San Francisco and finishing his tour at Seattle, Wash., on December 28th.

ASHLAND, Pa., Sept. 11.—An explosion of gas has just occurred at Central colliery, near here. Several workmen are entombed. Three have already been taken out badly burned, one of whom has since died.

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 11.—Word has been received here of the safe arrival in Port Clarence, Alaska, of William Chellman, of this city, and his party of Laplanders. Last year he was commissioned by the Alaskan commissioner of education at Washington, Sheldon Jackson, to go to Lapland for the purpose of bringing a colony of the natives to the American Arctic dominion with the view of teaching the less civilized Alaskans the domestic arts of northern Europe, where the reindeer is bred and made of commercial value. Hitherto the Alaskan Esquimaux have been totally destitute of this source of wealth and ignorant of the methods of the natives of like latitudes in the Eastern hemisphere.

ZANZIBAR, Sept. 11.—M. Beasley and Rev. Mr. Firminger who reached Darnes Salaam, German East Africa, in a dhow from Kilwa, an island off that coast, September 9, have arrived here and report that the governor's house at Kilwa was attacked by 2,000 natives armed with flint lock rifles on September 7. The fight lasted two hours. The natives were repulsed with a loss of 100 killed. One Sudanese soldier was killed and one German wounded. When Messrs. Beasley and Firminger left the island a renewal of the attack was expected.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 11.—Forty thousand men, who fought to save the Union, marched through the cities of Pittsburg and Allegheny today. The old, familiar war tunes filled the air. While they stepped out boldly and bravely, the veterans could not straighten their bent forms, nor conceal their gray hairs and furrowed cheeks. They carried no heavy rifles, with glittering bayonets, but aided the aged limbs with walking canes, while here and there in the line of blue, came a comrade on crutches. On every corner and vacant lot there rose tier after tier of human faces, and as the veterans passed cheer after cheer greeted them.

This was probably the last time the veterans will turn out in such force, as it is seriously contemplated by G. A. R. officials, in view of the advancing age and infirmities of the members, to abandon this most attractive feature of the national encampment. Governor Pattison, with staff and notable men and women from all parts of the country, occupied the reviewing stand at Allegheny park and saluted each division.

SIGOURNEY, Iowa, Sept. 12.—Mrs. R. W. Hollingsworth has the honor of being the first woman to vote under the new ballot law giving suffrage to women in municipal elections. She wanted to see the proposition carry for water works for Sigourney. She hired carriages and electioneered to the extent of getting seventy-five women to vote and the proposition carried by a handsome majority.

BRISTOL, Tenn., Sept. 12.—Charles Reiter and a boy named Morris, while inspecting a cave near Seven Mile Ford, five miles east of here, discovered two skeletons forty feet below the surface. The cave had long been known, but no one had ever ventured to explore it, because of its great depth. The Morris boy was let down by a rope. When the find was reported a party of citizens went to the cave to investigate further. In all ten skeletons were taken out and were adjudged to be the bones of women and children. One skeleton was found in a sitting position with skull reclining in the arms which were folded across the knees. Thus far there is but one way to account for the charnel house. Old citizens say that many years ago there was an inn kept near this cave by a man named Allen and occasionally people who stopped there had mysteriously disappeared and were never again heard of. The supposition is that they were killed and robbed of their valuables and then consigned to the cave. Some of the skeletons discovered are partially buried under stones and many of the bones were broken.

CHICAGO, Sept. 12.—The $1,000 forfeit which Peter Jackson posted with William J. Davies for a fight with Corbett was taken down today. "Jackson will never get a fight with Corbett," said Parson Davies later. "Jackson will sail for the West Indies at once and will then go to London. How long he will stay, I don't know, but he has given up all hope of meeting Corbett in the ring."

LONDON, Sept. 12.—Thousands viewed the remains of the Comte de Paris today at Stowe House, where they lay in state before being taken to Weybridge. Nearly all nations were represented in the throng.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—Secretary Carlisle has authorized the official announcement that he would not pay any sugar bounty earned but unpaid when the new tariff bill went into effect, on August 29. The secretary's refusal to pay sugar bounty claims will be based on a clause in the new tariff bill repealing the sugar bounty provisions of the McKinley law, which concludes as follows: "And hereafter it shall be unlawful to issue any license to produce sugar or pay any bounty for the production of sugar of any kind under the said act."

The secretary will write an official letter to Senator Manderson, embodying his decision.

QUEENSTOWN, Sept. 12.—The little
