

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Look out for Counterfeit.—Counterfeit silver dollars and half dollars are being plentifully circulated. Look out for them and for spurious money generally.

Territorial Convention.—The Territorial Convention will meet this evening at 6 o'clock in the City Hall, to nominate a candidate for Delegate to the 27th Congress.

Sunday School Union Meeting.—The Sunday School Union will hold its regular meeting on Friday evening, Oct. 7th, at 7 o'clock in the Salt Lake Assembly Hall.

15th and 16th Wards will furnish the music for the singing from the Union song book.

Sunday School officers, teachers and all who feel interested in the education of the children of the Saints are cordially invited to attend.

Secretary.

Margery's Nights.—To-morrow evening the Theatre-going public will witness the swarms of fun-cturers from the settlements.

There is an opportunity of seeing Margery's, the well known comedienne, in one of her new comedies.

The Octoron.—The Theatre was densely packed last evening on the occasion of the benefit to Mr. D. McKenzie.

The Octoron was put upon the stage in an admirable manner and the audience seemed to be well pleased with the performance.

Still we must admit that we have seen the play performed much better on the Salt Lake stage.

Mr. McKenzie's Jacob McCloskey was a finished impersonation. From beginning to end, the cultured actor appeared in the character and applause was frequently elicited.

Although the part is one that does not appear to the popular mind, Mr. H. M. Wells' Old Pete was excellent. Everything that this young actor has undertaken has been faithfully and artistically rendered, and is deserving of praise.

Mr. O. P. Whitney made the best Wah-notever we have seen. Every movement, gesture and attitude was Indian.

The combat scene was almost entirely new to the stage, and was arranged by Mr. McKenzie. It was very effective and brought down the house.

Mr. Cummings made a very good soldier, but did not appear to us much advantage as in other characters he has assumed.

So with Mr. Spencer as George Peyton. These parts were out of their usual line.

Miss Heywood looked the Octoron, and acted very well, but not with her usual power and felicity.

Miss Claridge made the best of Dora Sunnyside and pleased the public with her rendition. Miss Carrie Cogswell made an acceptable Mrs. Peyton.

Messrs. Wilton, Barratt, Young and the rest did exceedingly well, and the play was generally enjoyed. We are pleased that Mr. McKenzie received such a rousing benefit, as he is an actor of great ability and has done much towards the training of the Home Dramatic Club.

A Pleasant Surprise.—Tuesday evening about seven o'clock Brother Brighton and family, of the 11th Ward, were pleased to see at their door the genial faces of Brothers Wm. A. McMaster and Jos. H. Felt.

Counselors to Bishop McRae. After shaking hands, other members of the Ward appeared on the threshold and the cry was, "still they come."

Until both large parlors were filled to overflowing. Brother McMaster stated that they had just called to wish Brother Brighton Godspeed, before starting on his mission to Scotland.

After a happy greeting all round, Brother McMaster was unanimously elected master of ceremonies for the evening, which position he filled as well as "Mac" can fill it.

A hymn was sung by the whole assembly, Father Moss offered prayer, and singing and social chat were indulged in until 10 o'clock, at which time "Mac" announced picnic.

A general adjournment to the large dining hall took place where the tables were literally covered with the best the market affords.

After supper, more singing, recitations, were given until the "we sma hours," when the company was dismissed, all separating with the remark, "I'll give you a very pleasant evening." Brother Brighton and family were taken completely, but agreeably by surprise.

Beekkeepers Meeting.—All who are interested in apiculture are respectfully invited to attend the meeting of bee keepers at 7 o'clock on Friday evening, in the Council House.

Get Them.—A pamphlet containing all the discourses in full delivered at the Jubilee Conference, and another containing a full and complete description of the celebration of Pioneer's Day, 1880, can be obtained at this office. They are worth having, reading and preserving.

Its long-continued series of wonderful cures in all climates has made it universally known as a safe and reliable agent to employ. Against ordinary colds, which are the forerunners of more serious disorders, it acts speedily and surely, always relieving suffering, and often saving life.

The protection it affords, by its timely use in the throat and lung disorders of children, makes it an invaluable remedy to be kept always on hand in every home. No person can afford to be without it, and those who have once used it never will.

From their knowledge of its composition and effects, Physicians use the CHERRY PECTORAL extensively in their practice, and Clergymen recommend it. It is absolutely certain in its remedial effects, and will always cure where cures are possible.
