ATTENDING HORSE SHOW

Chicago, Dec. 8.-In spite of a mer-cury hovering near the zero mark and furries of snow which marked the first real touch of which, the second night of the horse show was almost as popu-lar as the opening. The big stock yard awhile society did not brave the rigors of winter as on the previous night, there was a sprink-ling of handsomely givened women in the boxes around the airma. Among the most interested spectators were the Count and Countess de Beau-fort, who occupied a box with M. H. Kilgallen, father of the Countess do Beaufort Major, the Hon, John Graham Beresford, D. S. maliciously so, and I intend to hunt the fellow who started it down and give him a good thumping." said Jim Jeffries, at the Fort Pitt hotel today, reading in the Sunday papers that there was... Ais-picion that the big fellows had ag.eed to split up the purse, etc. "That is not right." continued the big fellow. "I have never faked the public nor am I starting now. I am sincero when I say that I want to knock John-son's head off when we get in the ring, and I am going to do it, too. In so doing I expect to pull down the big end of the purse. It he is the better man the big end goes to him, but I do not like stories started about our faking it." "The inimation is absurd as it is ma-licious", continued Jeffries. "There is no reason why either Johnson or myself should stoop to this sort of work. No-matter who wins or gets beaten in the coming fight, he will want to Uve after that, perhaps may want to make some money, but if it were proven that there had been any Nort of a frame-up, that would certainly kill us both, so far as the public is concerned. It should, at least. No, Johnson knows that I hate the ground he walks on; that I cos-sider him an accident in the championehip class and that I purpose to give him the worst beating ever given any man in the ring."

chass and that I purpose to give him the worst beating ever given any man in the ring." Referring to the published interview with Tex Rickard that if the fight by held. In Nevada there will likely be re-served seats for 5,000 women, Jeffries said: "I don't think I would fancy that, nor do I think they mean to do this. This is going to be a fight, and I don't think I would want my wife, mother or sistor there. They won't be, either, nor do I think those handling the fight will make any special provision for women. It cer-tainly will not be a matines perform-ance. Let women who think they want to see the fight look at the pletures aft-erward. What's the use of taiking Ne-vada or Utah anyway? California is the place you will see the fight held."

FOOTBALL CHANGES.

CALLAHAN'S IDEA OF DENVER CLUB TO GIVE BIG SMOKER

D. A. Callahan says the most danger-ous feature in football is the forward pass, because this is a play that leaves the end man, for instance, who is about to catch the ball tossed to him, entirely at the mercy of the opposing side, whose players may easily do him great per-sonal injury. The modification of this is of more importance than the aboli-tion of the mass play. Then, another thing to be considered, is that a man out of condition is much more liable to suitain injury than one who is in prime shape. No man should be allowed to go into a game who is not in first class physical condition. And one very proper way to secure good condition is to train men in running so as to get their muscles supple. Denver, Dec. 7.—The Denver Athletic club announces a big smoker in horor of the visiting delegates to the catile-men's convention, to be given in the gymnasium of the club on Glenarm street, Friday, Jan. 7. Among the fea-tures of this smoker will be a lo-round glove contest between Howard Baker of Boulder and Harry Lewis of Phil-adelphia, weiterweights. Baker is the Colorado lad who has been boxing in California for the past two years with splendid success, until he is now ranked among the first four men of the weiter-weight division. —Lewis is well known to local lovers of boxing through his bouts in this city three years ago with Rube Smith, Mike (Twin) Sullivan and Jimmy Gardner. JIM JEFFRIES

WANTS JIM CORBETT

Washington, Dec 7.-James J. Corbett is James J. Jeffries's choice for his spar-ring partner while he is training for his battle with Jack Johnson. He made this announcement carly today. He declared he was confident of victory. "Why, it will be easy," said he. "All this talk about my being in danger of being whipped. I fail to see. "I could get ready in 30 days, if it had to be, but there is time. Johnson has made a lot of talk, but I notice that he never indulges in any of it when I'm around. He showed a disposition to be very meek when we met to sign articles, though I am told that when I am not started trying to get a match with me, we have met several times. I have never spoken to him or shaken his hands, and I never will." Some one wanted to know if he intend-ed to have Ellip Delaney in his training camp. "I don't know." was the reply. "You ed to have Elliy Delaney in his training campon't know." was the reply. "You see, Elli wanted me to take Kaufman with me when I started to get in skape for the fight so terribly slow. "I need a good fast fellow around me, and Berger is all of that. But when I go into actual training I intend to get a bunch of fast fellows and it is not at all unlikely I will have Jim Corbiett working with me. Jim is good boxer, and will do me a world of good. Then there is Mike Sullivan. I'll get him, too, I guess."
