Two of Salt Lake's well known citizens are preparing to leave next week on a tour around the world. They are David Evans, the lawyer and mining man, and J. C. TELLER ON SILVER. Colorado Senator Believes Present Rise Is Due to Natural Causes.

Senator Henry M. Teller of Colorado, when asked by a Denver publication a few days ago, to give an expression as to the cause for the rise of silver, re-plied:

"Logically, there has been some effort to restore the price of silver, but from my point of view, I believe the increase of price just now is due to natural conditions. China needs sil-ver. She has been paying off her obligations in silver, since the war, and all that time the country quit producing. A lot of the metal has also gone into oinage for the Philippines, and it is rue that there is a great demand for the metal from India. But the produc tion of silver has not decreased. the price dropped so last year it was the relative value of the white to the yellow metal and been given a set-back for the reason that the output had increased nearly three-fold. "Regarding the position of the government on silver, there is absolutely no feeling. It has been stated that if silver goes up to 64 cents the Philip pine dollar will be worth more as bulion than as money. Even should this be true, the government never paid more than 50 cents an ounce for the silver and it would be none the loser. It is not to be presumed that the government will pay more for silver than it is worth when coined.

The geenral feeling now is that the price of silver will keep up for some time, and if it does, many of the mines now clased will be put in operation."
