The Moniteur de l'Armee of Paris publishes a report that has anything at a peaceful tendency-namely, that the effective force now under arms in France is 400,000 men, which will be mereased to 567,000 by recalling the men on leave. In July next this numher will be increased by 77,000 conscripts.

The Illustration of Paris publishes an engraving of a great spreading tree near Cairo, under which, according to tradition, Joseph and Mary and the infant Also every description of Jesus took shelter during the flight into Egypt. The tree, which stands on ground belonging to the Isthmus of tage. Suez Canal Company, was marked to be cut down, but the Empress Eugenie has purchased it standing and now pays a keeper to watch it.

The girl Addison, who has been lying at Uiverstone, England, in a state of unconsciousness and without food since October last, has at length, to the astonishment of the medical men, regained consciousness, and commenced talk-ing and eating. Her body was reduced to a mere skeleton, and it seemed impossible that she could recover, but she seems to be daily improving, and there is reason to hope she may ultimately

A Greek, at Stamboul, recently dreamed that a vast treasure could be found in a certain hill, if a child were sacrificed to the guardian demon. He took his little daughter to the place next day, beat out her brains, and dug for gold in high spirits until he was ar-

At Bordeaux, on a recent morning, the inhabitants were surprised to see floating from the summit of the spire of St Michel a colored flag, said to be a piece of curtain, on which was drawn a neart pierced by an arrow, and underheart pierced by an arrow, and under-meath were the words, "Liberte, Paix."

The cotton crop in Alabama, Georgia and Mississippi will be lighter this year than last, owing to the want of laborers in the planting season. The great re-duction in plantation forces has result-ed mainly from emigration of negroes to towns and cities, the deaths on the plantations, and the retiring of women from farm labor. This state of things extends over most of the cotton growing States, in the Gulf States especially, and the yield will not reach that of last year.
