MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE.

Verdict Returned in the Haworth Case This Morning.

TO BE SENTENCED MONDAY.

Jury Had No Difficulty in Agreeing Upon a Verdict—Haworth Takes the Result Coolly.

[SPECIAL TO THE "NEWS"]

Farmington, June 20.—Nick Haworth has been found guilty of murder in the first degree and on Monday next at 2:30 p. m. will receive the death sentence.

The jury, after hearing the able arguments in the case, retired last evening. If any of them entertained doubts as to Haworth's guilt, a discussion of the whole case dispelled them, for before they retired to rest, the verdict of guilty in the first degree had been agreed upon.

It was generally believed that the jury would be out a long time, so but few people were present when they filed into the court room at about 10:30 this morning.

Haworth occupied his accustomed place, with his two brothers near him, and all appeared to be hopeful.

As soon as the jury had been polled and the usual questions asked, the verdict was handed up to the clerk and read.

Haworth was not moved in the least. Those who predicted some sort of a demonstration in case the trial resulted in such a verdict were surprised at the impassive manner. C. L. Haworth, his brother, was, however, greatly shocked and showed it. He is in poor health and the strain of the trial has told heavily upon him. D. E. Haworth, the other brother, stood the ordeal much better.

Judge Rolapp thanked the jurors for the faithful services, and they in turn sent up a note thanking him for his consideration towards them.

Judge Rolapp announced that sentence would be passed on Monday afternoon, when Attorney Heber M. Wells will make a motion for a new trial.

Haworth was taken back to jail, and this evening will be conveyed to Salt Lake and placed in the penitentiary.

ALUMNI BANQUET.

It Will Take Place at the University This Evening.

There is every evidence of a brilliant and successful University banquet this evening. The affair will take place at the University and will begin at 8 o'clock. Governor Wells, who is president of the association, is down for address, but being absent from Utah it will be delivered by proxy, having been forwarded to his official colleagues from the big Quaker City where the Republican national convention is now in progress.

Vice President H. G. Whitney will act as toastmaster of the occasion and responses will be made as follows:

The Old Home, Mrs. Sarah Vincent Stewart.
The New Home, Judge Charles H. Hart.
The Flag, Captain Raymond C. Naylor.
The Co-ed, William M. Allison.
The Regents, Hon. David C. Dunbar.
Our Athletes, Thomas McKay.
The Patriarchs, Hon. R. W. Sloan.
After the banquet dancing will be indulged in under the trees upon the University lawn, a portion of which will be covered by the Theater dancing floor that telegraphic evolutions may be the more easily performed.

COULDN'T WORK LEHL.
That Town Sets an Example that Others Might Profitably Follow.

Special Correspondence.
Lehl, Utah, June 21.—Last evening in the Lehl opera house the South African Salesman with his company rendered a performance to a crowded house, but as the people had been forewarned of their trickery their lottery games were a failure and they left town this morning badly disappointed, attributing their unsuccessful performance to the presidency of the Mutual Improvement association, who gave out notice in the joint meeting Sunday night, of the coming of this "Salesman" and how the people had been taken in by this enchanter, at Provo, Eureka, etc.

FELL DOWN A SHAFT.
An Italian Named Moro Killed at Eureka This Morning.

[SPECIAL TO THE "NEWS"]
Eureka, June 20.—Following close upon the accident that occurred here Sunday last, at the Centennial-Eureka mine, which will result in the death of A. C. Boss, a Finlander, another happened this morning and the victim, Harnett Moro, an Italian, now lies dead at the undertaking parlors of A. N. Wallace. Mr. Moro was putting in his first shift at the Solid Muldoon property, belonging to the Bullion Beck company, which adjoins the Centennial-Eureka ground. At the workings a drift has been run in a short distance and a winch sunk to a depth of about sixty feet, and it was down this winch that the unfortunate man fell. When picked up life was extinct. At the time of the accident three men were at work in the bottom of the winch, but none was hurt by the man falling. When Mr. Moro entered the drift and was nearing the winch, the cover of which was lifted, Jacob Brandt, who runs the hoist donkey engine, says he twice warned the Italian of the danger ahead, but no notice was taken of the caution. It is thought he did not understand what was said to him, as he was not very well acquainted with the English language. At any rate, he walked into the winch and fell to the bottom. The dead man was 35 years old and unmarried. He has been employed at the Centennial-Eureka for about a month, but yesterday went to work for the Beck company.

A Good Cough Medicine.

"I have always used it in my own family both for ordinary coughs and colds and for the cough following in grippe, and find it very efficacious."
