WEBER ACADEMY NOTES.

OGDEN, Dec. 11.—Mr. Parley E. Wright, manager of the W. H. Wright & Sons Co., gave the members of the Commercial club of the Weber academy a very interesting talk on Tuesday. The work in chemistry has been interfered with considerably this week on account of putting in gas connections in the laboratory. In the Weber Academy Assembly hall there will be a matinee Monday afternoon Dec. 13, for the benefit of the debating teams.

TOOK SHOT AT MARAUDERS.

LEHI, Utah, Dec. 9.—About 7 o'clock last night, while Mrs. C. C. Boone and her sister were alone at their home near the sugar factory, two men were heard tramping around the house trying to get in. They made no answer to Mrs. Boone's repeated inquiries as to who was there, so Mrs. Boone and her sister who are experts with guns, opened the door and fired at the men. At the second shot, one of the men yelled that he was shot. Mrs. Boone and sister kept shooting at the men while they made their way up the road. Mrs. Boone then ran up to town and gave herself up to the marshal, thinking she had killed one of the men.
