AN OPEN LETTER

Office of the Working-Men's Cooperative Association. 33. 32 SALT LAKE OLTY, Utah Ter., Sept., 1874. DEAR PUBLIC:

We owe you our thanks, and respectfully ask you to accept the same, for the generous patronage given us, which has made us, thus far, successful in our new enterprise, and we invite a continuation of your patronage, assuring you we will endeavor to merit it. We now offer, to the working classes more particularly, the re-maining shares of our Capital Stock at PAR, $10 each, not exceeding fifty chares to one person.

We believe, dear public, you are convinced that there is "nothing like leather" to protect that EX-TREMELY important portion of your body, the feet. Paper soles and imitation leather uppers are, clas-sically speaking, "played out," and our establishment is THE place where good, durable, handsome. cheap, HONEST Boots and Shoes can be procured.

their vindictiveness. If the design in this class of in-dictments is really to execute the law against the crime named, why are "Mormons," acknowledgedly not guilty of the crime, alone in-dicted? That has an extremely suspicious look. Since, McKean's advent here, there have been and advent here, there have been and there probably are now houses of undeniable prostitution in this city and around. Why are not the visitants of these dens of infamy indicted? Why have U. S.

was manifest towards the "Mor-mon" leaders and the "Mormon" people. The proceedings of that court, however, all and singular as the lawyers say, were irrecoverably quashed as absolutely and unapole-segetically illegal by the reversory de-cision of the Supreme Court of the United States in Washington as-sembled. In the proceedings of this same charge of las. cohab, was preferred and indictments were found upon it, directed against nothing was accomplished. The managers of this road claim that they could do no business should they sign the agreement. Their believe in and practice road is so far north that shippers would prefer to ship via the Michi-gan Central, Michigan Southern or Pittsburg and Fort Wayne roads, unless they could get better rates from them, competition and low rates were the only thing that could keep them a powerful rival of the above named roads. The Baltimore and Ohio Raircad, one of the origi-nal signers of the New York agree-ment, has now also refused to sign road is so far north that shippers nal signers of the New York agree-ment, has now also refused to sign the Agratogs agreement, and acting President Keyser and Mr. Quincy stated to a reporter yesterday that they never would sign it; they meant to make their own rates, and give the public the benefit of competition. They had never coun-tenanced combinations, and they would continue to oppose them. This action will undoubtedly force the Chicago lines leading to the the Chicago lines leading to the East to withdraw from the combi-nation also, or else they will be left far behind in the race for the Chicago trade. I the the the the J. F. Jay, President of the Michi-gan Central Railroad, has tendered his resignation to the Directors of the company, which may be acand chain and hard labor at the option of the judge, while the U.S. law of 1862, against bigamy or polygamy, empowers to imprison for no longer than five years and fine no higher then $500.
