

SOCIETY

SOCIAL CHAT

The ending of Lent and the coming of conference promises to make the next week a startling variation from the past three that have passed. These alone create an atmosphere that is an inspiration to gaiety and cheer, and we may look for a stir in social festivities for some time to come. Several weddings are scheduled for the month, whose importance will add to the general interest.

One of the largest affairs of the week was the evening party given by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Booth on Thursday, in celebration of their tenth wedding anniversary. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Hyrum Booth adjoining was thrown open for the guests, besides that of the hosts and each was effectively decorated in pink and white, with carnations and pink shaded lights blending with asparagus plumosa most artistically arranged. The amusement was "63" and the score and tallies were painted with Easter designs, while to each was attached a tiny cup and saucer, or other china toy in suggestion of the event. According to a custom of the hosts, the wedding ceremony was repeated with due solemnity. Elder C. F. Emery performing the service. Assisting in entertaining were Mrs. H. E. Booth, Miss Palma Harless, Miss Kate Early and Miss Bardwell, and acting as flower girl was little Irma Booth.

Mrs. J. H. Edmonds was hostess at a pleasant though informal luncheon on Wednesday, given in honor of Mrs. Jermaine. The table was prettily adorned with spring flowers, and the following guests enjoyed the event: Mrs. Jermaine, Mrs. Ernest A. Greenwood, Mrs. James T. Clabey, Mrs. A. B. Hirth, Mrs. R. J. Carey, Mrs. Hyde Dale and Mrs. C. A. Jones of Boston.

Miss Leta McMillan entertained at an informal luncheon on Thursday in honor of Miss Almee Swords, who is visiting Mrs. William Bayley, Jr. Miss Swords will be given tomorrow by Mr. and Mrs. Bayley.

Mrs. J. S. Hyde entertained on Monday at an afternoon affair in honor of Miss Ida Lyman, whose marriage to Mr. D. M. Sorenson took place this week. The function was in the form of a china stroller, and a luncheon, the decorations being in pink and white carnations. The guest of honor was the recipient of many dainty pieces of china, and the affair was most enjoyable. Besides the guest of honor there were present Mrs. H. J. Hayward, Mrs. G. Partridge, Mrs. Lester, Mrs. Roy Hogan, Miss Lucy Widdison, Miss Zina Widdison, Miss Lucinda West, Miss Sarah Smith, Miss Jessie Williams, Miss Millie Lyman, Miss Margaret Cook, Miss Nora Reese, Miss Libbie Hayward, Miss Jean Hayward, Miss Ada Minkler, Miss Lotta Stewart, Miss Amy Lyman.

A pleasant affair of the week was the entertainment on Tuesday night given the ladies of the Congregational church for the men's club of the same. There were decorations, music, feasting and a general good time.

On Tuesday Mrs. H. G. McMillan and Miss Leta McMillan entertained informally at luncheon in honor of Mrs. C. S. Hill and Miss Henrietta Hill of Illinois. The table was prettily decorated, and a number of guests enjoyed the event.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bell entertained at a pleasant evening party on Monday night, in honor of Mrs. E. R. Dickinson of Denver. The rooms were decorated in spring flowers, and a delightful time was spent.

Mrs. D. S. Spencer entertained the Sewing club on Wednesday.

Mrs. W. W. Armstrong was hostess at a pretty luncheon on Tuesday, given in honor of Mrs. Shields of Park City. The table was artistically decorated with daffodils, and the place cards had Easter designs. Those present besides Mrs. Shields were Mrs. White of Park City, Mrs. S. E. Bransford, Mrs. Frank Harding, Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes, Mrs. W. G. Lamb, Mrs. McPherson, Mrs. W. I. Snyder, Mrs. Cordell, Mrs. Ferris and Mrs. W. W. Scott.

Mrs. Frank Harding entertained this afternoon in honor of Mrs. Shields of Park City, the affair being a delightful one.

On Wednesday evening Samuel Newhouse entertained at a delightful dinner at his home in honor of his guests, Count Laborde of Paris, and Philip Livermore of New York. The decorations were in American Beauty roses, Easter lilies and pink roses, and covers were laid for 14. Those present, besides the guests of honor, were Mr. and Mrs. Benner N. Smith, Mrs. Belvin of San Francisco, Miss Miller, Miss Margie Miller, Miss Helen Gilchrist, Miss Alden, Miss Emily Reed, Charles C. Parsons, J. T. Goodwin and Louis McCormick.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Trip, who have been spending the winter in San Diego, Cal., will return home on April 5.

An Easter entertainment was enjoyed at the L. D. S. university diningroom on Friday, April 1, in a fancy lunch prepared by the cooking class. The menu consisted of veal croquettes made to imitate small chickens and of solid made of green vegetables and decorated with pink and white Parker House rolls. There was also a dainty kind of pudding containing five varieties of color, each color of which represented a different variety of preparation. The centerpiece was an original design. In the center was a growing out of blooming lilies, surrounded by a small garden of red earth, out of which were growing bunches of fresh lettuce. Upon the evening of April 12th instead of April 6th.
