

NEWS OF THE WEST.

Fatal accident. Man injured in a wrecked train.

HEAVY RAINS IN ARIZONA.

Children taken from a mother to save from a series of fatal accidents.

Two men were overcome by heat in a car at Rock in Uintah county, on Friday and died in a short time.

John Thornton, an old resident of Weston, Meeker county, Colo., was killed yesterday by a violent heart attack.

J. H. Arment, the German at Salt Lake City, was killed at a stock job, while trying to save a fire that had broken out in his office.

The gunsmiths are reported to have done damage to him in some indicates he was a portion of the army at Antonito, Colo., particularly when the harvesting was delayed.

Ed. Fowler, his brother, and Max J. Clegg, went hunting last week in the mountains where a small stream and falls were being investigated.
The body of both barrels separated from the side and arm. Some promoted antecedent amputation immediately, while others thought the arm could be saved by a few operations, however, gunsmiths had set the parts and arms strapped up.

Tolson, Ark., was damaged Friday morning by two and three-story buildings. Two large wagons trucks were washed away near the town, and the Southern Railroad had to stop operations.
Numerous people were forced to leave their homes in the night following the effects of falling water and mud.
The rain was accompanied by a great electrical storm.

Emerson, passenger train, ran into a bridge near the river and instantly killing him. He was coming across the bridge and did not notice the train until it was too late.
Although he was hit by the side of the head, he was caught by the pilot of the train and buried into the river.
From the same line railroad officials say it is impossible to know what caused the accident, and that he traveled in San Francisco.

An unknown man was struck and killed by a special train of the Missouri Pacific company Friday evening while passing over a track at 100 feet from the main line.

The train had passed about midway across the track before striking the unfortunate man. He appears to have been a tramp or a vagrant who had been walking along the railroad tracks.

Great Alteration Sale

The whole front of our store is to be remodeled, and the place will be narrower, more compact, and more convenient, and occupied by our SHOE and PATTERN DEPARTMENTS.

A GREAT CHANGE

Will have to be made in all departments, therefore we will make this week such prices as you've never known like it. The general value of the goods will remain the same, but we will bring the quality of the goods and prices down. It is not that we have any new GOODS for LOW, but this week will surpass our usual offerings of low work, to reduce our whole business making the changes.
