

SOCIETY

SOCIAL CHAT

Last Tuesday evening (St. Patrick's day) was the occasion of a pretty wedding reception given by Mrs. E. Shaver at her home, 831 East First South in honor of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Shaver. The color scheme was red and white, and the bride was attired in red silk. The bride party assisted by Mrs. Cora Smith Dixon received in the south parlor, both parlors being decorated with palms, roses and smilax. An enjoyable musical program was carried out. Mr. Harry P. Evans acting as master of ceremonies and was assisted by Messrs. John James, D. B. Davies, Miss Ella Cottle, Miss Ionia Shaver and Miss Clara Delighton. Recitations were given by Miss Vera Shaver and William H. Folland. Miss Vera Shaver, Miss Delighton, Miss Broadus and Miss Ionia Shaver presided at the punch bowl. A string quartet, composed of Mr. Will Broadus, Jean Broadus, W. H. Phillips and Miss Bentley, added to the pleasure of the evening. About 45 of the young couple's friends were present to wish them happiness, and a number of very handsome presents were received.

On last Wednesday evening a surprise party was given by the members of the Twenty-first ward choir in honor of their leader, Mr. John Owen. The party was held in the amusement hall, this being the first of this kind that has been given. There is no doubt that it will be long remembered. An excellent program was rendered and in addition to this the evening was spent in dancing and playing games and all partook of an elaborate supper. Bishop Fowler talked for a few minutes in which he spoke very highly of the choir and their good work. Mr. John Owen then replied in a short speech expressing his gratitude to the choir for their effective assistance in aiding him to make the choir what it is.

Mr. Franz Jungk was host at an elaborate dinner at the Alta club on Wednesday evening, given in honor of Mrs. and Miss Cope, of California. The table had a centerpiece of American Beauty roses, and a border of fragrant violets, while the favors were green hearts for the ladies and Irish plug hats for the men, both filled with bonbons. The guests were Mrs. Cope, Miss Cope, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Fabian, Mr. and Mrs. Justus Jungk, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Vollmer, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. James, Mrs. Charles Read, Miss Stella Fabian, Carl Fabian.

Mrs. Boyd entertained the members of the Sewing club at her home on Wednesday, a delightful luncheon being enjoyed, and the rest of the afternoon being spent with sewing. The decorations were in white and green.

Mrs. Ernest A. Greenwood was hostess at a pretty luncheon on Wednesday given in honor of Mrs. Thayer of Chicago. The table was decorated with pink carnations and smilax, and pink shaded candelabra aided in the effect. Covers were laid for eight.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. Shaver entertained again in honor of the bride and groom, about 30 more friends of the couple being present. The evening was spent in song and dance, nearly every one present contributing to the evening's enjoyment.

Mrs. W. C. Hall entertained at luncheon on Tuesday, covers being laid for 12 guests. The decorations carried out the St. Patrick's idea, smilax and tulips being effectively used, and shamrock bon bon boxes as favors, with green predominating in the refreshments, successfully carrying out the idea.

Tonight Messrs. Thompson and Judson entertain a number of young people at an old fashioned party.

Miss Ella Bailey of Minneapolis is the guest of Miss Edna Duncan.

The Billie club will give another dancing party on Friday, March 27, and the affair will doubtless be as delightful as its predecessors.

Mrs. Barth, of Fort Douglas, entertained a few friends very informally on Thursday afternoon.

An enjoyable social was held at the Phillips Congregational church on Thursday night, an excellent program being followed by refreshments and, at hour or so of social chat. A large number were present to participate in the pleasant event.

Mrs. W. W. Ritter entertained the sewing club this afternoon.

Mrs. E. M. Miller gave a delightful luncheon on Tuesday for her guest, Mrs. J. C. Armstrong of Ogden, a number of her friends enjoying the pleasant affair.

Miss Grace D. Davis entertained informally and pleasantly at her home on Tuesday evening.

Miss Salisbury gave an informal tea on Wednesday to a number of her friends.

Miss Goddard entertained the College club on Thursday evening.

The piano recital given by Miss Pearl Rothchild, pupil of Miss Gracia Flinders at the theater on Thursday night was a most delightful event.

Mrs. James H. Moyle entertained informally on Tuesday, a few of her friends spending a pleasant afternoon with her.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Judson entertained at dinner on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hyde entertained at a pleasant social affair on Thursday evening, in honor of Oak and Mrs.

WEDDING BELLS

An interesting event of the week was the marriage of Miss Irene Schettler and Mr. Francis Reid Allen on Wednesday, the ceremony being performed in the Temple at noon, and an informal reception being held in the evening at the home of the bride's parents. The rooms were prettily decorated, and a wedding supper was served, about 25 enjoying the affair. The bride was daintily gowned in white. Assisting in receiving were Mrs. C. D. Schettler and Miss Train. The bride and groom are well known and have a host of friends who will extend sincere congratulations and good wishes for their happiness.

Another pretty wedding of the week was that of Miss Florence Lewis and

CARDS AND KENSINGTONS

Mrs. John Reed and Mrs. Harry Ganz were hostesses at a delightful double function on Tuesday, a luncheon followed by cards being the entertainment. The details of both were carried out in the St. Patrick's idea, ferns and smilax being used for the table decorations with green ribbons and crepe paper, while shamrock designs adorned the place cards. In the card contest the failures were in the shape of shillabhs, the counters were shamrocks and the prizes, which were won by Mrs. Boreman and Mrs. Luman, were also suggestive of the day. The guests were Mesdames Simon Bamberg, Joseph Overlander, Russell L. Tracy, Solomon Siegel, Herman Boreman, W. S. Henderson, C. S. Richardson, W. F. Loomis, Graham F. Putnam, F. W. Francis, E. B. Miller, E. V. Shelp, E. W. Duncan, Mary Herriman, E. W. Whitney, I. Mott, E. Wood, J. E. Cowan, A. Luman, W. W. River, A. G. Anderson, C. E. Richards, W. W. Armstrong and C. A. Blocker of Park City; the Misses Ethel Paul, Rose Morris, Clara Weinberger and Gussie Sawyer.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Legg entertained at cards on Tuesday night, their guests being the members of the Third Street Card club and their husbands. The day was suggested in the decorative scheme and other details, the green predominating, and the shamrock figuring chiefly in the designs. About 30 guests enjoyed the evening.

Mrs. William Wolff and Miss Wolff entertained at cards on Tuesday, and the great saint day furnished the decorative suggestion, the smilax and shamrock being used entirely in place of flowers, and the scores and tallies being shamrock leaves in large and smaller size. Lotto and sixty-three were the games and in the corner, the prize was won by Mrs. Milton Joseph, and in the last by Mesdames Philip, Henry Cohn and Louis G. Reynolds. About 40 guests were present.

Mrs. Charles C. Goodwin entertained at a Kensington on Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. W. H. Dickson of San Francisco. A number of the friends of both were present, and an enjoyable time was spent.

Another pleasant affair of Thursday afternoon was the Kensington given by the ladies of the First Methodist church. The event took place in the church parlors, and the entertainment included a delightful program of music and recitations given by the Misses Brown, Layman, Shepherd, and Mrs. Fred Hess. About 50 were present to enjoy the affair.

On Wednesday evening the May club met at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Timms on Sixth street, and spent a very pleasant evening. Games and music were enjoyed. The following were awarded prizes: Mrs. I. Harvey, Mr. W. H. Gulver, Mrs. Peters and Mr. Holding. Delicious refreshments were served in the dining room by the hostess. The club adjourned to meet in two weeks.

Miss Hattie Binford gave a pretty St. Patrick's card party on Wednesday night, a number of her friends being present to enjoy the pleasant affair. The decorations and other details were suggestive of the Irish saint, and were effectively carried out. The event was given at the home of her sister, Mrs. Love.

Mrs. Park entertained the East Side Euchre club on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Davis entertained at cards on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. L. B. Rhinall entertained the Euchre club this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas entertained the Neighborhood Card club at their home on Thursday night.

RECEPTIONS AT HOMES

On Tuesday Mrs. W. H. Jones was guest of honor at a delightful reception given at the home of Mrs. J. W. Farrell. Mrs. Jones is president of the McKean Woman's Relief corps, and the reception was tendered by its members in recognition of the efficient services of Mrs. Jones during her official term, which is now in its fifth year. The rooms were beautifully decorated in the national and Irish colors, the red, white and blue mingling with the shamrock hue throughout. A feature of the afternoon was an enjoyable musical program, the participants being Mrs. Alfred Peters, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Williams and John Farrell. Another pleasant feature was the presentation of a handsome relief corps badge to Mrs. Jones. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. W. H. Rae, Mrs. Whitely and Mrs. Campbell.

Mrs. William H. Jones entertained the Woman's Relief Corps of the McKean post on Thursday at a delightful reception, about 30 being present. The rooms were prettily decorated, and refreshments were served, the hostess being assisted by Mesdames Cornforth, Smeltzer, Jenkins, Perkins and Miss Short.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES

OGDEN SOCIAL NEWS.

The reception given last evening by the teachers of the Ogden public schools was a grand social success. The spacious hall where the reception was given was very artistically decorated for the occasion with the Stars and Stripes, etc., and potted plants and palms were stood in various parts of the reception room. The program rendered during the early part of the evening was very interesting and pleasurable, and the latter part of the evening was enjoyably spent in tripping the light fantastic. The attendance was

WALKER'S STORE.

The Looms of the World Have Contributed of Their Beauty to this Dress Goods Stock.

WHAT are the Spring Dress Goods to be? Is the question asked now by every woman. And rightly enough the Walker Store is expected to give authoritative answer. We ourselves are almost astonished at the prodigious assemblage here. With eyes across the sea and fingers on every maker of fine fabrics in this country, the store is, as it were, a world ambassador to exhibit style-things from the Courts of Fashion. Perhaps in our enthusiasm we have gathered too abundantly. Beauty after beauty—the one for exquisite coloring, the other for charming weave effect, and another for novel combining of tints, maybe—was brought for our choosing, but who could discriminate where only loveliness reigned? The whole front of main store, with bays and isles, for three days will be given over to exhibition of them. Come. See in alone makes it worth while—and if buying is intended surely not a wish will go ungratified. MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY.

A Center of Attraction! The New Shirt Waist Display.

FOR the woman who must needs have a varied wardrobe, the Shirt Waist offers easiest solution. A change of waists make the whole costume new. So little wonder is it that fascination should center in the new ones just arrived. Completeness marks the whole stock now. Sizes and varieties of kinds. No embroidery is too fine, no lace too beautiful, no fabric too exclusive to be used in making the Shirt Waist of this season, but this telling will be limited to white. White canvas cloth, white oxfords, white vesting, white linen, white pique, white mull, white lawn, white silk—all have been requisitioned in making. Exquisite laces, medallions, drawn work, fanciful stitching, richest of hand embroidering for adornment. Just two classes there seem to be—very dressy and the tailor-made. The last named, very chic, very distinct in style and most pleasing. You may pay as high as $32.50 or only $1.00.

One Pound of Choice Writing Paper—37c Should be 75c. Letter Seals for Little.
