It is well known that the L. D. S. boys depend largely upon their indi-vidual playing while the visitors are advocates of team work. The public will have a chance to see which style of playing is the better. Physical Di-rector Augustus, of the Y. M. C. A., will act as referee, and Shepard and Stewart will be umpires. The teams will line

Collegians Win by a Close Score of Eleven to Ten.

The Lowells and L. D. S. junior eams met at the Social hall last even-ng and indulged in a basketball bout, which proved unhealthy for the Low ells in that they were beaten. The Lowells played surprisingly swift, and at one stage of the game looked like sure winners, but the L. D. S. main-

THE SIX DAY RACE.

Lawson the "Terrible Swede" Games

One Lap Over the Others.

Contrary to the first arrangements in the six day race at the Exposition grounds, the contest began at 7:35 last evening instead of 11 a. m. today. A course of eighteen laps to the mile have been laid out and eight runners lined up last night and went-as-they-pleased until 10 o'clock. They were Lawson, Krueger, Meldrum, Lewis, Campbell,

Post, Deson and Cannon. The first to drop out was Meldrum, who quit at 8:20. He is out of the race entirely. Cannon, after a brief rest, ran until 9:10, and he quit the race at 9:25. Lawson gained a lap and held on
