It is hoped that the police will now be equally amiable and say no more about it, as the News on its part promises to be.

LOCAL NEWS.

Railroad Talk.—There is some talk of changing the time of departure of the Utah Central train which leaves this city for Ogden at 3:55 p.m. to 4:55 p.m., the Central Pacific changing at that point to correspond. It is also said that the Union Pacific train will be changed to arrive at Ogden later in the evening, which will throw the Utah Central train which now arrives here at 7:15 p.m. to 8 o'clock or thereabouts.

Look Out for Him.—A young man described as of medium height, with dark hair and heavy brown mustache, had considerable success in this city during the past few days in the playing of a kind of confidence game. He seems positively shrewd in getting information regarding the persons whom he proposes to victimize, and easily overcomes their suspicions by his apparent familiarity with all their affairs. He will be kept looking after, and should be reported to the police.

Report Confirmed.—A few days ago we announced the death from sunstroke, of Aaron J. McDonald, son of President A. F. McDonald, of Mesa, Arizona, which said event took place there on the 5th inst. No further particulars have been received, but a communication from Brother Charles S. Whitney informs us that the Mesa Dramatic Association, of Mesa, passed resolutions of respect and condolence on the occasion. The deceased was manager of the association and Brother Whitney assistant manager of the same. We join with him in condoling with the bereaved family.

Third District Court.—Proceedings on Monday, July 14, 1884, before Chief Justice Hunter.

People, etc., vs. William Hally, robbery; defendant Hally withdraws plea of not guilty and now pleads guilty, and sentence fixed for Monday, the 21st instant.

Court adjourned till Tuesday at 10 a.m.

Crayon Portraits.—A few days ago we briefly noticed the crayon portraits of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lambert by Mr. Barclay, an artist of no mean abilities who is not yet noted in the annals of art in Utah, but who is destined to achieve fame in this direction. To-day we were shown a fine portrait of Miss Eva Lambert, the three-year-old daughter of Mr. Richard G. Lambert, executed in crayon by the same hand. It is a faithful likeness, and the draughtsman's talent that is bound to be appreciated when the artist becomes better known. His name is Henry Barou and he is now conducting the Riverside Poultry Farm, but his office is at 77 W. Third South St.

Nearly Strangled.—A rumor is current of an accident at the lake Saturday afternoon which might have had a fatal termination. The day was spent at Black Rock by excursionists from several Utah county towns, who were having a fine time in bathing and in the pursuit of other pleasures.

A young lady from American Fork was disporting in the waves, using a plank as an assistant to her insouciant swimming powers, when some one, either playfully or maliciously, struck it from her hands. She sank suddenly, and though immediately taken from the water, remained insensible two or three hours. She was able to return with a heavy pain, feeling but little the worse.

CARD OF THANKS.

The undersigned desires to return his sincere thanks to all who so kindly sympathized during the last moments of his life, and to the friends who were present at his last resting place. He especially desires to mention Mr. Edwin Johnson, Mrs. E. H. Ward and the choir of the Baptist Church, and the speakers at the funeral. There are so many kind friends who rendered aid that it is impossible to enumerate them, but in behalf of the
