THERE is considerable inquiry as to why the city is lagging and hesitating so much in the matter of prosecuting crime.

A CASE of diphtheria is reported in the family of Alex. Watson, first door south of the Sixth Ward meeting house.

THE "conspiracy" dodge of the lechers and their supporters, if pressed, will prove a petard that will hoist them.

J. A. M. WILSON, a discharged soldier, formerly of the 2nd U. S. Infantry, will leave for the east to-morrow, via the D. & R. G.

JUDGE ZANE, to-day, gave notice that at 10 a. m. to-morrow the Court will set the cases on the equity calendar for trial. Members of the bar are requested to be present.

THE cases of the city against Oscar Vandercook, C. E. Pearson, S. H. Lewis and W. H. Yearian, respectively, for lewd and lascivious conduct, were yesterday dismissed in the Police Court. Not for want of evidence, of course, but ——

THE woman Davenport, with whom Assistant District Attorney S. H. Lewis was alleged to be guilty of lewd and lascivious conduct, has been arrested in Colorado and will be brought to Utah. Do the "officers of the court" 'spect she will be of further use to them?

WHY that greatly persecuted man, Henry P. Colin, now that he is becoming so garrulous, go on and tell us who those two men were that fled across the street when hostilities began? He certainly knows better than anyone else, and he ought to expose friends who would desert him in such an extremity.

IF, as the morning organ of assassination and prostitution claims, "B. Y. Hampton's plans" were so well known some time ago, is it not a little singular that so many of the organ's patrons and admirers have recently been caught? A pertinent query is: How many would have been caught had they not been forewarned?

IT would be interesting to a great many people to know just how it was that the morning organ of assassination and prostitution, so early after the shooting of McMurrin, knew that MIX was close by when it occurred, and was so easily found by its reporter immediately after. The unseemly haste to account for his whereabouts is rather significant.

COLLIS has just discovered that he was shot in the shoulder—not seriously, but just enough to graze the skin and make a hole in his clothes. If he is not more careful in the preparation and details, he may hurt himself next time. See that the bullets go through the outer apparel only, if you would be on the safe side; and don't be so long in making the discovery.

BROTHERS Dan McAllister and Theodore Angell have been in constant attendance upon Joseph W. McMurrin ever since he was taken home wounded and have been so devoted in their attention that they have scarcely left him from the first. The condition of the wounded man at last accounts was no worse than it had been, and strong hopes are entertained for his recovery.

LOCAL NEWS.

Typhoid in Sanpete.—A correspondent from Mt. Pleasant informs us that there are nearly twenty cases of typhoid fever in that settlement, but that all are progressing favorably towards recovery.

Brighton Association.—The following named persons have been elected as officers of the Brighton Improvement Association for the ensuing year: John P. Horne, president; C. H. Gold and R. Hazen, Jr., counselors; R. Hazen, secretary; C. Holt, assistant; R. Hazen, W. R. Gedge, Annie Gedge, M. A. Hazen and Lizzie Bertoch, programme committee.

Singing Practice. The children of the Primary Associations of this city are requested to meet at the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Rooms, on Friday next at 3 p. m. for singing practice. It will be necessary for those who have them to take the Primary Tune Book and the third music book issued by the Sunday School Union with them to sing from.

Court Proceedings. In the Third District Court this morning, in the case of The People vs. Charles Beardsley and J. W. Brown, convicted of burglary, a motion in arrest of judgment was made; the arguments were made by F. D. Hoge for defendants and C. S. Varian for the prosecution, and the motion overruled. The defendants were each sentenced to one year in the penitentiary.

Annette Cummings et al. vs. Brigham Young et al: judgment rendered for defendants.

From Japan.—Mr. Harry Horsley favors us with the perusal of a letter from Mr. George Pauncefort, well and favorably known by theatre-goers of this city, dated Yokohama, Japan, November 6th. The gentleman seems to be in the best of health and spirits; says the climate is delightful, very much like that of England, and the means of enjoyment, as relates to the field, forest and stream, are excellent. Mr. Pauncefort had but a short time previous to writing seen the Mikado (not the opera, but the Emperor himself), and describes him as "an ugly looking customer," very little like the tinseled, bejeweled and autocratic personage presented to us on the mimic stage, to judge by the tenor of the writer's remarks; he, however, eases off the soft impeachment with the characteristic statement, "But we can't all be handsome, you know." He thinks G. M. Ottinger must by this time be a Michael Angelo, and would like to hear from C. R. Savage. The letter is written in that easy, breezy style for which the writer is famed. Those who saw his portrayal of "John Mildmay" in "Still Waters Run Deep," and of "Don Cæsar de Bazan," witnessed theatrical achievements never equaled before and rarely since in this Territory. He talks of a third visit here, and would certainly be made welcome.

Bound Over.—This morning the four men—Samuel Hudson, Thomas Scanlan, John Walters and Frank Mitchell—were brought before Judge Speirs for preliminary examination, on the charge of burglary. Three of these worthies, Hudson, Scanlan and Walters, appeared in court in their stocking feet, the boots they had on when arrested being a part of the stolen property. The goods stolen were valued at $73, and the thieves had disposed of four pairs of boots at Pleasant Valley Junction, at $3 per pair. At the close of the examination, all of the accused were held to answer to the grand jury on the charges of burglary and grand larceny, and bails fixed at $1,000 each, in default of which they were remanded to the custody of the Sheriff.

The Thompson Co.—The lower part of the Theatre was filled completely last evening, the "variety" part of the house being more meagerly represented. The performance of "The Mikado" by the Thompson Opera Company is not different in most material respects from that of the amateur company who lately presented it here; there was, however, a precision of business, a completeness of detail and a "rush" of things generally such as usually constitute the difference between professionals and tyros. The chorus did not exceed a score of voices, yet they were remarkably fine and well trained, rendering the best possible execution, all, in fact, that was necessary to complete the ensemble. The part of "Ko-Ko" was made extremely funny, and some of the business and "gags" were new, but the singing was not at any point first-class, the "Tit-willow" song, except for the humor introduced, being inferior to that of Mr. Spencer; the quartette, "The Flowers that Bloom in the Spring," was excellently rendered and received three recalls; and the "Three Little Maids" went off as it should—with a rush and a vim, which secured for it an enthusiastic encore. Altogether, the performance was a success It will be repeated this evening.

JOSEPH E. TAYLOR,

SIGNOR D. DE VIVO, acting manager for Emma Nevada, who is to delight lovers of music with her charming voice on Monday evening next, at the Theatre, is in the city. His first visit here was with Parepa Rosa, seventeen years ago.

Emma Nevada.—Next Monday evening the Salt Lake public are promised a rich musical treat in the concert to be given at the Theatre by Madame Emma Nevada-Palmer, the world-famed songstress. The Philadelphia Press says of her concert in that city:

"Even a great singer appearing on an empty stage and accompanied only by a piano has to struggle against odds, and a triumph in spite of it is a genuine triumph. Such did Madame Nevada win last evening at the Academy of Music. She sang the difficult and trying "Air de Clochettes" of Leo Delibes, and, being recalled, gave an exquisite rendering of a song by Abt. Her second number was a duet with M. Vergnet from the same opera of "Lakme," and she brought the concert to a conclusion with the Meyerbeer "Shadow Song," which was sung so beautifully as to cause the audience to delay until she was thrice recalled, finally to sing "Home, Sweet Home." Her voice is as wonderfully flexible, melodious and sympathetic as ever. She received numerous bouquets. M. Vergnet is one of the best tenors that has sung here for years; his voice is rich, powerful and yet capable of great sweetness. Signor Casati, the violinist, has a light, graceful and clean method, and both of his numbers were repeated at popular demand. M. Levita had the misfortune to play on a piano of vexatious muteness, but he showed himself a true artist. His rendering of Chopin's B minor scherzo was full of poetry. He substituted for his third number Shumann's "Traumerei" and a Hungarian dance by Brahms, but, being recalled, played the Rubinstein Valse, which was on the programme."

The Theatre box office will open for the sale of reserved seats on Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock.

Oxford Society Sloughing.—Society in Oxford, Oneida County, Idaho, has for some time past been considerably mixed, there being quite a number of persons claiming a membership in the Church in that Ward who were by no means interested in the work of God, and by their connection with the Saints only tended to prevent a united and healthful feeling from prevailing. They were excrescences on the body of that branch of the Church, the health of which depended upon getting rid of them. We learn by a communication from Bro. M. F. Cowley that a process of sloughing has set in there, which we trust will continue and extend to other places until the whole Church is completely cleansed of all disaffection. It is not pleasant to learn of those whose minds have once been illuminated with the light of the Spirit of Truth falling into darkness, for in the language of Peter, "if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning. For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than after they have known it to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them." When persons have lost the faith, however, and become embittered towards the Church, it is encouraging to the faithful Saints to learn that their connection with the Church has been severed and that the line between them and the faithful is drawn. Here is what our correspondent says upon the subject, under date of the 26th inst.

"People here are generally feeling well, though the crusade goes on. Mr. Anthony, a 'Josephite' preacher, has been talking to unconverted members of the Church in Oxford for about two weeks, and I hear to-night has about eighteen followers, 13 of whom recently sent their names to our Bishop, asking to have them erased from the Church record, some of whom have already been baptized by the said preacher. Dead branches are being lopped off. Good for the tree, but woe to the branches; they have had opportunities of doing better, and we regret that they did not improve the same.

"The weather is this part of the land has been very changeable of late, rain one day and pleasant the next."

Big Cottonwood.—The following are the officers of the Big Cottonwood Young Men's Improvement Association, as recently elected: Christian Christiansen, president; Wm. J. Sutherland and Joseph Boyce, counselors; F. Moses Secretary; Geo. Harper, treasurer.

Meetings are held every Tuesday evening, commencing at 6:30, and conjoint meetings with the Y. L. I. A. on the last Tuesday in every month.

To Be Sentenced.—The organ of prostitutes and law-breakers, this morning, states that yesterday "armed parties" arrived in this city from the south in such numbers as to frighten U. S. Marshal Ireland almost out of his wits, and that such "arrival" was one of the chief reasons why the Marshal's murderous deputy was hurried from the penitentiary to Fort Douglas guarded by a posse of troops, to prevent his being lynched by a community who would not deign to soil their hands upon such a wretch as Collin has shown himself to be. The "armed parties" who came in from the south were no less personages than those terrors to law-breakers generally, Sheriff Tarner, of Provo, and his deputy, Mr. Fowler, of Leni, whose arrival in this city was due to the solicitation of Marshal Ireland himself, that functionary having telegraphed Sheriff Turner to take charge of certain prisoners that it was necessary to send from the penitentiary to Provo, to receive sentence for crimes of which they have been convicted. This morning the Sheriff and his assistant started back with the two Tidwells, convicted of murder in the second degree, and Anderson, found guilty of manslaughter. These prisoners are to be taken before the First District Court to-morrow, when Judge Powers will pass sentence upon them.

TERRITORIAL ITEMS.

CULLED FROM LATEST EXCHANGES.

—At Ogden, yesterday afternoon, E. Johnson, who was arrested on a charge of robbing the tailor shop of M. Cedarstrom, was bound over in $1,000 to await the action of the grand jury.

—A veritable agricultural curiosity in the shape of a potato, from the prolific soil of Utah, is on exhibition at the Palace saloon, and is really a representation of a family of Murphies. Its avoirdupois is seven and a half pounds. Green River (Wyo.) Gazette.

—On Tuesday, the 24th inst., at Greenville, Beaver County, the road supervisor of that district assaulted W. Hurst, his son-in-law, with a rack-stake, rendering him unconscious. The belligerent supervisor has been placed under $1,000 bonds to await the action of the grand jury.

Sunday afternoon, the prisoners confined in the iron cells at the City Hall, Ogden, with the connivance of a friend, attempted to break jail. The attempt, however, proved abortive, in consequence of the timely arrival of the Marshal.

—A man by the name of James Larkin was accidentally thrown out of a buggy a few days since near Butte, Montana, through the horses attached becoming frightened and running away, and received a double fracture of the right leg. That limb seems to be particularly unfortunate, as it had been broken six different times previously.

—During a pugilistic exhibition in the Amitheatre in Butte on the evening of the 25th, a Cornishman named Harry Foote, who occupied a seat in the gallery, stripped off his coat, vest and shirt and jumped down into the main hall, a distance of fifteen feet, declaring at the same time he could "lick" the two combatants. It was a serious jump for him, as he broke two ribs and injured himself severely internally in alighting.

—A car-load of machinery for the Carrisa mine, South Pass, Wyoming, is lying at Bryan awaiting shipment. A Salt Lake company, it is said, has thoroughly investigated the merits of this claim and are satisfied as to its worth. As soon as this machinery can be placed in position the company will begin sinking a 400 foot shaft. It is said to be the best paying mine that has ever been discovered in that section.—Carbon County (Wyo.) Journal.

WORDS OF SYMPATHY AND COMFORT FOR THE PERSECUTED.

OXFORD, Bingham Co., Idaho,
Nov. 26, 1885.

To Nahum Porter and the other brethren confined in the Idaho Penitentiary at Boise City, and elsewhere for their religious convictions:

DEAR BRETHREN—At our Thanksgiving services to-day, held in the tabernacle at this place, a committee was appointed by the people assembled to write an expression of their sympathy to you under your present trying circumstances.

While we are at liberty to meet together in peace and return thanks to our heavenly Father for the blessings of life and liberty, health and prosperity, we are not unmindful of our beloved brethren in the prisons, who are denied these happy and God-given privileges of associating with their families and friends at home, and of returning unitedly to their heavenly Father their gratitude for His abundant blessings and great mercies unto them.

Owing to the distance between us we are unable to visit you in person, but we can assure you that our thoughts and sympathies are with you and with your families, and although only a portion of the people of the Stake were to-day assembled here, yet we know from our general conversation that we voice the sentiment of all the Saints throughout the Stake.

We feel, although at present the clouds are dark, that ere long the sun of prosperity and happiness will again shine upon you.

In conclusion we can only say may God bless and make you equal to your trials.

Your brethren in behalf of the Saints assembled this day:

MILO ANDRUS
WM. D. HENDRICKS,
WM. H. HOMER,
MATTHIAS F. COWLEY,
Committee.
