Tom Kearns' Marionettes Act Upon Suggestion of $18,000 "American Beauties" and Increase Debt.

Not satisfied with the deficit of over 209,000 already staring the city in the face, the city council last evening dopted a resolution looking to further inging the city into debt to the tune $600.000! The proposition came up the form of a message to the council from Mayor Bransford, who strongly urged that such action be taken. That the proposed bond issue was the direct esult of the report of the special au litors, in which it was intimated that the limit of indebtedness of the city had not yet been reached, was also appar-ent; and another thing was apparent, too, and that was that only the "faith-ful" had been let in on the secret that a bond issue was to be sprung at last evening's session. One more chance to "get the money" seemed to be the moving thought with the "American" members of the council, and although Councilman Hall showed by carefully computed figures that the city could get along without the bond issue, and still have more money to spend for im-provements than it has yet spent in a like period, the bidding of the "inner circle" was imperative, and the motion of Ferry that the city attorney investi-gate the best method to adopt in float-ing the bonds went through. Council-man Fernstrom voting with the majoriof yet been reached, was also appar man Fernstrom voting with the majori-ty in favor of the proposition.

He declared that on the basis of his figures the council would have

He main-tained that the report of the commit-tee on estimate and apportionment was made to show as little in the way of receipts as possible and as much in the way of expense as possible. In order to frighten the taxpayers into voting for a bond issue, rather than to have their tax levy increased. He closed a 45 minute talk opposing the bond issue by expressing the hope that the council-men would not vote to place this extra men would not vote to place this extra burden on the backs of the taxpayers present and future.

ENDS PAVING SQUABBLE.

ENDS PAVING SQUABBLE. One thing was accomplished by the council last evening and that was the ending of the dispute in regard to the paving of east First South street. Coun-cilman Black submitted a resolution providing that the original contract for the paving of the street be ap-proved, together with the recommenda-tions of the mayor and city attorney at the meeting a week ago. To in-demnify the city against any possible contingency in the way of damage suits, the resolution included a clause compelling the contractor to execute a suits, the resolution included a clause compelling the contractor to execute a bond in favor of the city in the sum of $100,000. P. J. Moran, to whom the contract was originally let, filed a bond in the sum of $30,000, but owing to the possible objections on technical grounds in the matter of selecting either Cali-fornia asphalt or Utah asphalt by the premerty owners, it was deemed adproperty owners, it was deemed ad-visable to increase the bond to ade-quately protect the city in such con-tingencies.

JOB FOR MEREDITH.

The appointment of special Police-man George Meredith, regarding which Chief of Police Tom Pitt a week ago asked the council if the same had been "pouched," was found to be lying in the hands of the committee, which had failed to act on the appointment. On motion of Councilman Ferry the mat-ter was taken out of the hands of the committee and the appointment con-firmed. firmed.

Election in East Jordan Canal Company Routs City Candidates.

In the election held yesterday at Sandy for officers of the East Jordan Canal company, the city was entirely routed, only one representative of the municipality being chosen on the directorate, and he was on both tickets. The contest was a most spirited one throughout the day, the balloting beginning at 5 o'clock and the result not ginning at 5 o clock and the result ho-being announced until 11 p. m. It was then found that the following were the successful candidates: H. W. Brown, president; J. R. Allen, vice president: W. D. Kuhre, secretary; J. R. Rawlins, F. P. Jaynes, George Pierson and Wil-liam Bairbourne, directors. Mr. Ku-hre was voted for by both sides. Assistant City Engineer George O. Chaney and Messrs, F. S. Richards and A. F. Dorennus represented the city.

Chaney and Messrs, F. S. Richards and A. F. Doremus represented the city, all three going to Sandy early in the day. Mr. Chaney voted the municipal-ity's 1,600 shares of stock, and with them went a sufficient number of scat-tering shares to make a total of 2,500, the highest number which the city's candidate for president, J. W. W. Fitz-gerald, received. On the ticket with Mr. Fitzgerald were Louis C. Kelsey for vice president; Hyrum H. Smith, W. W. Wilson and Messrs. Nelson and Forbusch for directors. The successful ticket mustered 4,500 votos.

The successful ficket mustered 4,500 votes. The city instituted condemnation proceedings against the canal company last Saturday in an endeavor to obtain the right to enlarge the canal for municipal purposes. Salt Lake City owns a one-fifth interest in the ditch and agreed to enlarge it, put in a ce-ment lining and keep it in repair with-out expense to the other interests, and in addition to pay $1,000 a year to the company. This proposition was not agreed to by the farmers, who, it would seem from yesterday's election, are determined to fight the matter to a finish. PARK CITY IN RACE.

Is After Moffat Road and Has a Chance to Win.

Park City has received a letter from the officials of the Moffat road in answer to a communication sent to Denver by the Citizens' club of the mining camp. In this letter the officials say numerous surveys have been made and whichever line appears the most profit-able and feasible, will be, of course, the one selected. Park City says a much shorter and more profitable route is offered through Summit county than by way of Provo.
