We are now ready to receive home-made useful and ornamental articles of all kinds, which we will sell on commission.

Many of our citizens have felt the want of a place devoted exclusively to Utah productions, and now that we are, in accordance with the wishes of President Young, uniting our humble efforts in this direction, we confidently trust that we shall not only have the support of all branches of the Relief Society throughout the valleys of the mountains, but also of our brethren and all others who feel an interest in the future welfare and prosperity of Utah.

Commencing as we do without capital, we wish it distinctly understood that at present we can only sell on commission.

Married.—On Sunday last Mr. M. Young, son of President B. Young, and Miss Agnes McIntosh, were united in marriage, President B. Young performing the ceremony. We wish the happy couple joy and prosperity.

Bitten by a Dog.—A little daughter of Bro. L. Pratt, aged about four years, while playing yesterday, was very severely bitten by a large dog, in the left arm. The wound was immediately attended to and the dog was killed.

Benefit Party.—There will be a benefit party, at the Sixteenth District School-house, on Friday evening, to Elder Thomas Biggs, previous to his departure on a mission to Mexico.

Complimentary Concert.—This evening, at the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Rooms, the Union Glee Club, of which Mr. O. F. Whitney is a member, will give that young gentleman a complimentary concert, he being about to leave for the East. Besides the Glee organization, a large amount of other excellent talent will be engaged in the entertainment, and the programme is a good one.

Fatal Accident.—On Thursday, Oct. 5th, Phineas Cook, Jr., of Swan Creek, Bear Lake Valley, was accidentally shot dead. He let his gun slip upon the hay rack of his wagon, when it was discharged. A brother of deceased had a little girl with him when the accident occurred. Those particulars are obtained from a letter from Sister Merkle, of St. Charles, to her husband, Brother C. Merkle, who is now in this city.

Sixteenth Ward Y. M. M. I. A.—Last evening a meeting of the Sixteenth Ward Young Men's Mutual Improvement Association held a meeting, for the election of officers for the ensuing year, which resulted as follows:—

President, Francis Cope; 1st Vice-President, J. H. Parry; 2nd Vice-President, John G. Smith; Secretary, C. E. Silverwood; Asst. Secretary, A. Trewan; Treasurer, J. W. Summerhays.

Sequestration.—According to the sequestration order issued this morning by Judge Shafter, the special officer, Mr. A. K. Smith, took possession of certain property of President B. Young, at two o'clock this afternoon, consisting of carriages, horses, mules, cows, &c.

Theatre.—The Theatre will be open on Friday and Saturday evenings, and on Saturday for matinee, when the celebrated Berger Family Concert Troupe and the famous American humorist, Mr. Sol Smith Russell, will appear in their excellent and pleasing entertainments.

On Monday there will be an entertainment of a very different character. Prof. S. S. and Clara Baldwin will give a resume of their clever exposure of the tricks of spiritual mediums, doing by human agency alone what is claimed to be done by others by the operation and inspiration of spirits.

Small-Pox.—We have taken pains to ascertain the condition of the sick of Ogden to-day, and find that since our report yesterday there has been one death from small-pox, (that of Mr. O. A. Wright) and that there are no more new cases.

We understand that all the patients now suffering from this loathsome disease are said to be apparently doing well.

In order that the public may be apprized of the true state of facts as to the fatality attending this disease, we are able to state, from what we deem an authentic source, that up to this time there have been ten deaths, all told, since it made its appearance in this city.—Ogden Junction, Oct. 23.

City Council.—The Council met last evening, Mayor Little presiding. Petition of Thomas Fenton and fifty-five others, asking the city to repair the street crossings in the 6th Ward, west of the Utah Southern Railroad track; the delinquent taxes and sufficient of the present year's taxes, of that part of the city, to make up the sum of $400, was appropriated to make the repairs asked for.

Petition of Isaac Brookbank and forty-three others, asking an appropriation of taxes to repair the streets and crossings in the 8th Ward, under the direction of the supervisor; $740, delinquent taxes, appropriated to be applied for that purpose.

Petition of Walker Brothers & Co., for the privilege of laying a substantial plank crossing across Second South Street, from their premises thereon to the south side of the street.

Petition of the Pioneer Rifle Club, for the privilege of establishing, free of taxation, a shooting or rifle gallery in the hall over the livery stable of Mr. T. F. Mulloy; granted during the pleasure of the Council.

Bill of J. L. Rawlings, city attorney, for one month's salary, $106.60, allowed and appropriated. Adjudged till next Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock.

An Unfortunate Building.—The White House, at the corner of East Temple and Second South Streets, seems to be a most unfortunate structure. It has been on fire several times, having lately received great damage from that cause, necessitating a general reconstruction.

A new wall had lately been built along the north side, and a new roof was just about finished, the timbers having been exposed to put on the concluding touches to-day; but they were not permitted that privilege.

At five minutes to six o'clock this morning the east half of the north wall gave way, most of the brick and other materials crashing into the store of Mr. Bailey, next door north, making an indiscriminate pile of debris, groceries, crockery, and other goods. The east half of the roof, thus losing a large portion of its support, also came down inside the structure, making a heap of ruins in the interior and causing the front to sway outward from the top and come near being precipitated upon the street.

The corner building was also greatly racked and twisted, in fact so great to the damage to the White House and the corner building north that there appears no alternative but to take them both down and replace them with entirely new structures. This new loss to Mr. Romney will amount to several thousands of dollars.

The Young vs. Young Contempt Case.—In answer to an order to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt, in refusing to comply with a previous order commanding him to pay to the plaintiff, in the divorce suit, all money pendente lite, President Brigham Young appeared in the Third District Court at 10 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Sheeks, on behalf of the defendant, presented and filed an answer to the order to show cause, which set forth that defendant had taken and perfected an appeal from the order for payment of the alimony, and had filed a good and sufficient undertaking thereon; and the defendant therefore prayed to be discharged.

Mr. Sheeks stated that defendant's counsel were ready to sustain the answer by argument and authorities, providing the Court would hear them.

The Court said, "I will not hear you." Mr. Sheeks, replying, "Then that is all the defendant has to say."

The Court asked if the property heretofore levied upon to satisfy the order for alimony pendente lite, belonged to defendant, Mr. P. L. Williams, answering that it did.

The Court then said it should order that the property heretofore levied upon be sequestered, and should appoint a receiver and commissioner, as a special officer of the court, to take the property, without bonds, sell it, and with the proceeds, or so much thereof as may be necessary, satisfy the order for alimony pendente lite, and the expenses of these proceedings.

In answer to a question of plaintiff's counsel the Court stated that providing the aforementioned property was insufficient to satisfy the order and expenses the "special officer" of the Court would be empowered to make a further levy.

At the suggestion of Mr. McBride, of counsel for the plaintiff, deputy U. S. Marshal A. K. Smith was appointed, by the Court, the "special officer" in the matter.

What It Shows.—When a Court issues an order for the sequestration of the property of a citizen and provides that the receiver, appointed by the Court, shall not be required to give a bond, how does it look? Does the object appear to be to remedy beyond the reach of that citizen, if possible?

Does such a mode of procedure look as if money was wanted and not justice? If polygamy is not marriage, is it right to legalize plunder in the name of alimony pendente lite?

Is not the enforcement of alimony pendente lite a virtual or even actual recognition of the legality of plural marriage?

Missionary News.—Elder Jabez W. Taylor, now on a mission in England, writes encouragingly concerning the work in the part he is operating in to Bishop Alex. McRae. He labored as traveling Elder, for the first three months, in the Nottingham Conference, but now presides over the Norwich Conference. He baptized five persons recently, and expects to administer the same ordinance to several others shortly. The letter is dated Oct. 4th.

The Death of a Hero. HOW THE STOUT CHIEF AMERICAN HORSE FOUGHT AND DIED. CHEYENNE, October 15.—When Gen. Crook's Command was marching on Deadwood, it came across the village of American Horse (sometimes called Iron Shell). After a slight resistance, the Indians abandoned their village, but American Horse and two other warriors, together with about twenty squaws and papooses, took up an almost impregnable position in a ravine. Through a parley the women and children were surrendered while the three warriors continued the fight.

Two of these were killed, which left American Horse to continue the unequal fight alone, and notwithstanding that five soldiers were stationed, with cocked and armed carbines, to command the spot where this valiant Indian's head would now and then pop up, he still would rise and shoot, generally hitting some one, and drop before those posted, with aim already taken, could discharge their pieces. After shooting away all but one of his cartridges and being shot himself through the groin, American Horse surrendered and died.

I give this story as it was given to me by a participant, to show what desperation animates the Indian, and to give an example of his skill and courage.

In all the lives of brave men, of all the deeds ever done on the perilous edge of battle, I find no braver man than this red man, no deed more worthy of admiration than this death-devoted Indian's last act. It seems as if the very arch-foes of gods animated him—

What though the field be lost? All's not lost if unconquerable will And sturdy revenges, immortal hate, And courage never to submit or yield.

BALDWIN'S COLUMN. SALT LAKE THEATRE. MONDAY EVENING, Oct. 30th, 1876.

One Night Only! PROFESSOR S. S. BALDWIN! CLARA BALDWIN, AND THE ORIGINAL EXPOSERS OF SPIRITUALISM!

Indorsed by upwards of 1,000 Prominent Divines, Editors, Literati and Notables.

$500 CHALLENGE TO MEDIUMS! PROFESSOR BALDWIN Will perform by HUMAN AGENCY ALL THE STARTLING MANIFESTATIONS of the most famous mediums who claim the same tests, given under the same conditions, to be accompanied by the aid of SPIRITS.

FOSTER! I will cause blood letters, at the will of the audience, to appear on my naked arm.

The Great Handcuff Test! I challenge any officer of the law or medium to bring to my aid the newest and best patent handcuffs.

Materialization! I will fully duplicate the famous Katie King apparition, showing spirit faces, which are often recognized by the audience.

Clairvoyancy! I will give clairvoyant tests unequalled by any medium. Clara Baldwin, while in trance state, will reveal the past, present and future.

The Famous Pillory Test! I will be locked by the committee, head and hands, in a pillory, and the key-hole filled with sealing wax, and I will escape in thirty seconds with out breaking a seal.

Davenport Brothers! I will allow a committee of four gentlemen, selected from the audience, to tie me with ropes, and I will escape inside of one minute. I will produce, while tied, the most wonderful manifestations.

Fay Outdone! The committee will bind me hand and foot, and while in this condition a coat from the back of one of the audience will be transferred to my back, and after being sewed securely together at the neck and cuffs, will be instantaneously, and in full view of the audience, returned by some unseen power to its owner. Not a knot untied or a seal broken.

Jennie Holmes' Transmutation! I will cause water to turn to wine and wine back to water, in full view of the audience.

Challenge to Mediums! I unequivocally and without reservation pronounce the so-called phenomena of Spiritualism humbug, and denounce mediums, one and all, as frauds. Notwithstanding that Spiritualists claim that Clara Baldwin and myself are mediums, I hereby agree to wager the sum of $500 or more that I can fully, completely and satisfactorily perform and expose any manifestation of so-called spirit power which I am permitted to witness three times.

No Advance in Prices! Notwithstanding the high salary paid Prof. Baldwin, and the enormous expense incurred in bringing him to Salt Lake City, the management have adopted the usual prices of admission. No extra charge for reserved seats. Reserved seats will be on sale at the Theatre, on Saturday, October 28th.
