

DID SHE MURDER HER DAUGHTER?

Mrs. Caroline Martin, Mother of Ocey W. Snead, Formally Charged With Deed.

SHE ALMOST COLLAPSED.

Gave Her Age as Sixty-four, Said She Was a Widow and Had No Home.

New York, Dec. 15.—Mrs. Caroline W. Martin, mother of Ocey W. Snead, the East Orange, N. J., bathtub victim, was arrested in New York this morning and formally charged with murder.
The warrant was issued yesterday by Recorder Mott at East Orange and was know, is Milled Just Right,

It's full of Goodness
—Fancy White !!!"
SALT LAKE & JORDAN MILL & ELEVATOR CO.

placed in the hands of detectives last night.

The warrant sets forth that the prisoner "did willfully, feloniously, of her own malice and forethought, murder Ocey W. M. Snead," her daughter.

The arrest was made at the Hotel Bayard, where Mrs. Martin arrived Tuesday, and from which it was first thought that she had escaped. But, after a day of mystery, announcement came from police headquarters early today of her arrest.

The prisoner gave her age as 64 years, and said that she was a widow and had no home. Her condition was pitifully weak and she was shown every courtesy possible. She was taken to headquarters in a taxicab and was soon in conference with her lawyer, Frank lin Fort, Jr., son of the governor of New Jersey, who is also counsel for Miss Virginia Wardlaw, the victim's aunt, being held in New Jersey in connection with the case.

When Mrs. Martin was confronted in her own room by detectives she almost collapsed.

The warrant for Mrs. Martin's arrest was issued by the New Jersey authorities, who had learned yesterday of the presence of a mysterious woman at the Hotel Bayard.

Mrs. Martin was dressed in deep mourning and her face was almost covered by a heavy veil. She said her occupation was "housework."

When her pedigree had been taken, detectives tried to question her concerning the case, but she was quick to reply that "I will not talk about this until I have had the advice of my lawyer."

In the bathroom of Mrs. Martin's room at the hotel were found three undated notes, written in a girlish hand identical with the handwriting of the note found in the East Orange bathroom, and a little heap of clothes near the body of Ocey Snead. The notes were slightly in phraseology, but are substantially as follows:

"Last year my little daughter died.
Others near and dear, kindred, too, have gone to heaven. I long to go there, too.
I have been very weak and ill for a long time. Death will be a blessed relief to my sufferings. When you read this I will have committed suicide. My sorrow and pain in this world are greater than I can endure."
"OCEY W. M. SNEAD."

This wording is substantially the same as that of the East Orange note, on which hangs the whole case of New Jersey against Virginia Wardlaw, Mrs.
Martin's sister, and the last person known to have seen Ocey Snead alive.
Experts have doubted the genuineness of this note. If proved a forgery, the theory of suicide held by the defense would fall. The evidence discovered today that some one had made repeated drafts of the note to be used by the prosecution to combat the question of its authorship.

In Mrs. Martin's room newspapermen found a bundle of letters and memoranda bearing on the Snead case, disputed wills and life insurance.

TAMMANY LEADER MURPHY ON HEARST METHODS

New York, Dec. 15.—Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, maintained his usual reticence today when he was asked concerning several letters which were published today in W. H.
Hearst's New York American, and which purported to have passed between Mr. Murphy and several of his lieutenants while Mr. Murphy was at Mount Clemens, Mich., after the recent election.

Mr. Murphy did not deny the authenticity of the letters. "Things have come to a pretty pass," he said, "when a man who tried to be elected mayor of New York and aspires to be president of the United States, hires a thief to enter a hotel room."

The letters as published suggest that Tammany would like to get control of the new Democratic league, an organization of progressive Democrats, which is trying to rejuvenate the party in this state.

Signers of the letters as printed were Thomas F. Smith, secretary of Tammany Hall; A. J. Johnson, a Tammany leader in the recent campaign, and others.

WHISKEY FOR COLDS.

The increased use of whiskey for colds is causing considerable discussion among the medical fraternity. It is the quickest and almost infallible cure when mixed with certain other ingredients and taken properly. The following is the formula: "Mix two ounces of glycerine with eight ounces of good whiskey, and add one-half ounce of Concentrated pine compound. Take a teaspoonful or a tablespoonful every four hours." Any good druggist has these ingredients or will get them from his wholesale house and they are easily mixed. Concentrated pine is a special pine product and comes only in half ounce bottles, each enclosed in an airtight case, but be sure it is labeled "Concentrated."

would have done without this remedy.
Some eight years ago I suffered in-
