

they should remain in those liquors, and be able to unhesitatingly decide when the hides are sufficiently tanned and ready to go through the process of currying, finishing, etc.

No matter what the business may be the workman should employ his brains as well as his fingers; and is little better than a senseless machine, if he just attends to the mechanical performance of his duties. Nothing short of the most perfect familiarity with every detail of the work should satisfy him, including the knowledge of the proper estimate of the values of all material and labor entering into that work.

If a large percentage of the men and women who have learned trades, were possessed of thorough business training, there would be less difficulty in obtaining the services of persons competent to take charge of the various industries that might be established successfully in Utah. Such persons would be fully qualified to direct the labors of others, and would know what plans to adopt to make their business pay. If such competent persons were plentiful, trades that now languish for lack of proper management, might grow and flourish, providing remunerative employment for the masses, and bestowing profitable returns to those who would invest their means in manufacturing. Capitalists will not invest much of their wealth in manufacturing so long as they are in doubt regarding the practical ability of those in whose charge the enterprise might have to be placed; but let them be positively assured that the persons conducting the business are thoroughly educated in all necessary details connected with it, and that they are capable of conducting it profitably, moneyed men might be induced to prove themselves the workingman's friends, by investing in manufacturing and providing employment.

Amongst the population of Utah there is perhaps a larger proportion of skilled laborers than in the same number of people in any other part of America, but their skill unfortunately is rarely combined with a complete acquaintance with all business details connected with their respective trades, therefore, the rarity of persons capable of taking charge of a business, and hence the necessity of the training to which we have alluded.

We have only touched the rim of this great question, but throw out these hints for the benefit of the working people, with the hope that before long some practical measures will be adopted to provide abundant labor for the unemployed.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

FROM FRIDAY'S DAILY, DEC. 10.

Got Back.—Bishop John Sharp, as expected, arrived home last evening from New York.

Foggy.—Many a person got up late this morning, under the impression that he was up with the sun. The illusion was dispelled, however, much quicker than the fog which caused it.

House Burned.—A house of ill-fame, in Park City, burned down yesterday morning. The fire was caused from a stove in one of the rooms, in which one of the nymphs had lighted a fire. Loss about $1,500.

Notice.—Information is wanted at this office of the whereabouts of Jacob D. Burnham, an American by birth, who, between the years 1846 and 1847 left the town of Windsor, Conn., with Miss Cornelia Blanchard, his wife, in company with her father's family, for the purpose of going to Nauvoo, being at that time a firm believer in the Mormon faith. He has been heard from but once since he left, and then he was at Salt Lake City.

Brutal Outrage.—A young man named Ray Parrish, aged 25, of Springfield, is said to have committed the fearful crime of rape upon the persons of two little girls, aged respectively six and eight years, children in a family with whom he was residing. The vile acts were revealed by the innocent prattling of the children over the matter, and subsequently confirmed by the examinations of Dr. Pike, of Provo. Parrish disappeared after his crime became known, but Sheriff Turner is hunting for him.

Gone to Rest.—In our death column will be found a notice of the departure to a better world of Bro.

John Loveless, of Payson, aged 73. He was early a member of the Church, being baptized in 1831, and passed through the persecutions that followed the Saints in Missouri and Illinois. He arrived in Salt Lake September 15th, 1851, moved to Provo shortly afterward and settled in Payson in 1855. He was taken with a chill on the 1st inst., and cold settling on his lungs, he gradually failed and passed away peacefully on the 6th inst. He died faithful, leaving a wife, 15 children and a numerous growing posterity.

Returned Missionary.—Elder John W. Jackson, of Glenwood, Sevier County, arrived home last evening from an eight months' absence on a mission to the Northwestern States. He obtained his release on the 24th of last November, while in Racine, Wisconsin. He represents the people among whom he has been laboring as uncharitable and inhospitable as a rule, although he often met with those who treated him with great kindness. He travelled without purse or scrip, on foot, for about 1,500 miles, and had ample opportunity of testing the feelings of the people. He held 65 public meetings, indoors and outdoors together, baptized four persons, blessed five children, and with Elder George H. Butler, who has since gone to Europe, organized a branch of the Church in Luddington, Michigan, and ordained a priest to preside over the saints there. He values his experience very highly, and feels that it has been of incalculable benefit to him. He returns in good health, notwithstanding an attack of sunstroke which he sustained last summer, in Michigan, can testify of the goodness of God to him while on the land and upon the water, and feels willing to take another mission whenever the Lord wills that he should do so. He leaves for Glenwood in the morning.

"Hear the Crier"—"O. H. J.," in a communication to the Herald, this morning, complains of the criticism which our cotemporary applied to the Philharmonic Concert of Wednesday evening, and in his efforts to show why the entertainment should have been exempt from said criticism, the writer uses the following language:

Many of the best singers who used to belong to the Philharmonic have left town, for example: John Black, B. B. Young, John White, while others, for reasons of their own, are no longer active members. Probably they haven't time, or don't find enough pleasure or profit in it. Again, after "Pinafore," perhaps because it appeared that money could be made by a Salt Lake singing society, the Church organized an exclusively Mormon singing society, and thus drew away from the Philharmonic some of its oldest and most useful members. In its membership, as well as in its audience, Wednesday evening, the Mormon element was conspicuous by its absence.

The above is a very mild specimen of the slurs which anti-"Mormons" like O. J. H. are continually flinging at this Church, whose members, be it understood, are the fathers and mothers of those young people who "for reasons of their own are no longer active members" of the Philharmonic Society. It is a fact, of which we are well informed, that as long as there were "Mormons" in that society, they were continually subjected to the sneers and contemptuous remarks of many of their "Gentile" associates, who, for reasons known only to themselves, considered themselves too pure and holy to tolerate the proximity of the "Mormon" members. And not only this, but others have for years infested this community and deemed it a duty and a privilege, in public and in private, in the social circle and through the columns of the press, to revile and slander most shamefully the "Mormon" people, giving utterance to things too base for repetition and too false for their own souls to believe, and for which, from persons less patient and dignified than those they attack, would have long since won for their authors summary and well merited chastisement.

With such wretches, O. J. H. and other members of the Philharmonic Society are in the closest sympathy, and have openly avowed their hostility to the people of Utah and all that they cherish as sacred and divine. And such persons will heap opprobrium upon the religion, and upon the aged and revered relatives of those they would fain keep (or so pretend) as their fellow-workers, and yet complain because they resent such insults in the mildest and most dignified way—that of withdrawing from the society of their defamers. Such childishness reminds one of the pathetic appeal of the urchin who deemed himself imposed upon: "Mother, make Bill quit; every time I hit 'im on the head, he hollers."

When such persons as O. J. H. and his confreres learn to bridle their tongues, mind their own business, and practice a little of the Christianity they so loudly affect to preach, they will better deserve the society of "Mormons," young and old, will receive from them more favors, and thrive better for the assistance so rendered; but until they do this, they cannot complain consistently of lack of "Mormon" affiliation and support, nor deem themselves neglected if in their societies and at their entertainments, the "Mormon" element is conspicuous by its absence."

FROM SATURDAY'S DAILY, DEC. 11.

The Fatal Drug.—A woman living in the vicinity of Franklin Avenue, 13th Ward, has died from the effects of laudanum.

Shooting Match.—The shooting match between the Salt Lake and Ogden shooting clubs on Thursday, resulted in the defeat of the Ogdenites. Score, 63 to 55. The Junction, ready as ever with a "why and wherefore," states that the cause of the Ogdenites' defeat was owing to the fact of their not hitting more birds than their opponents.

More Coal.—Coal deposits have been discovered five miles south of Manti by Mr. D. B. Funk, Jun., one vein of six feet and one of five feet in thickness. The specimens examined by the Curator of the Museum, our informant, are of good quality, and from the description given of the place where the coal is found and the adjacent rocks, there is no doubt that large quantities of good coal will be found.

Dead.—The news comes from Silver Reef that Mr. A. W. White, of that place, died at 3 o'clock this morning. Deceased was formerly a resident of Salt Lake, and was the founder of the banking business of A. W. White & Co., afterward White and McCornick, and now McCornick & Co., the popular firm of this city. We have not learned particulars, except that Mr. White had been ill for some time previous to his demise.

Re-Election.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Utah Eastern Railroad, held last evening at the office of Bennett & Harkness, the election of directors for the ensuing year was part of the business. It was simply a re-election of the former board, viz.: R. C. Chambers, Henry Dinwoodie, G. M. Scott, Frank Armstrong, Robert Harkness, R. T. Burton, J. A. Groesbeck, Edmund Wilkes and H. A. Van Praag.

Sad Affair.—The Junction relates the following:

A few days since, a young man named Robert Metcalf, of Echo, and who for some time has been working in the coal mines of that locality, was sent down to this city to be treated for typhoid fever. When the patient arrived here, he was, at the request of relatives and friends, placed under the care of Dr. Powers; but that gentleman found that the fever had too great a hold upon the deceased's system, and despite the medical attention paid the young man, he succumbed to the destroyer on Tuesday, Dec. 6th, 1880, at six o'clock. Friends of the deceased, upon receiving a telegram from Dr. Powers, came to Ogden and followed the remains of Robert to the grave. The Doctor, who was delegated by friends of the deceased, with full power to act in his behalf, gave satisfaction to those who sent the young man to Ogden for treatment. Deceased was buried yesterday in Ogden cemetery.

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY, DEC. 13.

Postmasters Appointed.—F. H. Simmons has been appointed postmaster at Alta, in this county; and Robert Blair postmaster at Spring City, Sanpete County.

Change of Place.—We are requested to state that the ladies' meetings, announced in the Exponent to be held in the 14th Ward meeting house next Friday and Saturday, will be held, instead, in the Council House on those same days.

Seventies General Meeting.—The Seventies will please take notice that their regular meeting will be held at the Council House, on Wednesday next, at 7 o'clock.

ROBERT CAMPBELL, Clerk,
In behalf of First Council of Seventies.

Information Wanted.—Jedediah Orme wishes to know the whereabouts of his uncle Joseph Orme, who emigrated to Salt Lake City, in 1864 or 65, from Whittington Moor, near Chesterfield, England. Address: Jedediah Orme, Glass House Inn, Codnor, Derbyshire, England.—Millennial Star.

Died.—From Mr. W. Lapham, of this city, we learn that Brother Aquila Noble, of Smithfield, whom we mentioned some time ago as being in a very low condition from an abscess, died at 6.50 o'clock yesterday morning. We regret to learn of the early departure of so good and worthy a young man, and extend our sincere condolence to the bereaved family.

A Success.—On Saturday evening last, a very creditable performance was given by the newly organized Fourth Ward Dramatic Association, of Ogden, City, their first appearance in public. The names of those who took part were published a few days ago in this paper. The "Fruits of the Wine Cup" and "Cabinman No. 93" were the plays. Both were well rendered. The leading part in the former were sustained by Miss Jessie Penrose. The scenery, stage and appointments were all made, painted and put up by the young people, who deserve great credit for their enterprise.

Sunday School Teachers' Meeting.—A meeting of the superintendents and teachers of the Sunday Schools of Provo City convened in the meeting-house of that place on Wednesday evening, the 8th inst., Supt. David John presiding. The object of the meeting was to set apart the superintendents and assistants, according to instructions from the General Superintendent, Geo. Q. Cannon. The following persons were set apart by Supt. D. John and assistants, S. S. Jones and Wm. Paxman:

First Ward, Sunday School: J. P. R. Johnson, superintendent and W. H. Dusenberry, assistant; Second Ward: Evan Wride, superintendent, and James W. Loveless and A. Jones, assistants; Third Ward: Samuel Liddiard, superintendent, and E. Harding, assistant; Fourth Ward: John E. Booth, superintendent, and Andrew Watson and Geo. Meldrum, assistants.

Supt. John and his assistants spoke in relation to the schools, and showed forcibly the necessity that existed for increased efforts on the part of parents and leading men in behalf of the interests of the Sunday Schools.

Supt. John stated that the officers who had been set apart should immediately do the same for the teachers in their Wards.

James Hardy was unanimously elected secretary for the Sunday Schools in the Stake. Meeting then adjourned till the Wednesday following the next Quarterly Conference of the State.

We are indebted to Bro. Hardy for the above item.

A Word to Our Readers.

When you read of a remedy that will cure all diseases, beware of it; but when you read of a pure vegetable compound which claims to cure only certain parts of a body, and furnishes high proof that it does this, you can safely try it and with the assurance that it will help you. This is just what Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure does. It cures all troubles of the lower portion of the body and none others. It will not help the tooth-ache, ear-ache nor consumption, but it will put your body in a vigorous and healthy state where you can enjoy life and appreciate its good things. Try it. s w & w

"Cough No More."

At last there has been an article found which is certain, safe and sure to do its work, and is within the reach of all as regards price, etc.; easily obtained, as every enterprising druggist in New York, Brooklyn, Jersey City, Hoboken, Newark, and in fact, all through the country keeps it constantly on hand. Dr. Hale, a celebrated physician of Europe, used it a great many years in his private practice to the entire satisfaction of himself and patients. C. N. Crittenton, dealer in patent medicines and druggists' fancy goods, 7 Sixth Avenue, New York, believing that this market required just such an article, has purchased the same at a great outlay, and the public can rest assured that it will be prepared according to the original receipt. Ask for HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR. Take no other. Price 50 cents and $1. Great saving to get large size. Sold by all druggists.
