Neighboring Institutions. Last evening County Commissioners

Jas. H. Anderson, Henry Harker and Wm. J. Horne, and Superintendent of the Infirmary Wm. R. Jones, of Salt Lake county, returned to this city from a day's inspection of Weber county's institutions. The visit was made on the invitation of the board of commissioners of Weber county.

Friday morning the Salt Lake county officials went on the Short Line to Hooper switch, where they were met by Judge Stanford, chairman of the Weber board, and there inspected the workings of the Weber county poor farm and infirmary. They found everything at that place in excellent con-dition, under the direction of SuperinWiscott in the Railroad saloon, one of the toughest joints in the city. The wind blew down one of the standing walls of the Oregon Short Line building yesterday afternoon. No one was injured.

George White, an old resident of this city, and a harness maker by trade, died yesterday afternoon of general de-bility. He leaves several children, one of whom is John White, proprietor of a harness shop at Sandy.

Another paper has been started up in this city. It is Public Weltare, a weekly with Warren Foster as editor and DeWitt Foster as business manager, lu announces that it will be "an advocate of what the editor believes to be right." and will be independent in all things, neutral in nothing.

Minnie Christensen, the 11-year-old girl who was thought to be lost, re-turned yesterday to the home of Mrs. Sprague, 360 Center street, where she is employed. She had been out to Liberty Park Thursday evening and took the Warm Springs car home. She rode to end of the line and was unable to find her way to Mrs. Sprague's, so re-mained all night with a family in the vicinity of the hospital.

The value of the weather bureau is forth in copies of a special report issued in connection with the southern ureau of August 13-16, which are distributed by Director Murdoch of the local weather bureau. The report indicates that the storm was accurately twenty-four hours before it swept over the states of Louisiana and Mississippi and thousands of dollars worth of property was saved by paying heed to the warning. The report was made by Isaac M. Cline of New Orleans

At the meeting of the W. C. T. yesterday afternoon the society decided of to co-operate with the Deseret Sunday School Union in an effort to suppress Sunday liquor selling. A com-mittee consisting of Mesdames Wake and Shepard and Miss Baker was appointed to try and arouse interest in the W. C. T. affrmary-less than one-third the number at the Salt Lake institution. Of the 80-acre farm, 35 acres is in lucern and 20 acres in orbard. Ten acres of this is in new trees, set out last spring, and in splendid condition. Then there are two and a half acres of fine grove, and racts devoted to raspberries, strawber ries and vegetables. A new barn has been erected and a good board fence is to be constructed around the farm, The Sait Lake county commissioners think location and opportunities of the Weber county infirmary superior to those of the Salt Lake institution, as the latter is too cramped for room and is too close to a valuable residence section for the best results. From the infirmary the party continued on to Ogden, being augmented by Commissioner W. G. Wilson of the Junction City, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, and Mrs. W. R. Jones. The Weber county courthouse, jail and offices were visited. and the methods followed were ascer-tained, the purpose being to learn learn whether there were any ideas adopted by Weber country which could be of advantage to Salt Lake. The con sioners from this county say that Weber county affairs show up in fine form. There has been a number of improvements at the county court house, and others are in contemplation.

During the day the party took a drive up Ogden canyon to the power dam, and stopped for dinner at Mr. Wilson's Hermitage, visiting the Utah Light and Power company's power house on the return journey. The Salt Lakers came home on the evening train. They all speak in praise of the courtesy and cordiality of the Weber county officials,

He Tried to Talk Through a Fire Alarm Box Last Night,

The officers at police headquarters are laughing over a good joke on one of the special policemen. His name is J. G. Groesbeck. Late last night he had something apparently important to communicate to the station, but instead of going to the police box he tackled a fire box at the corner of Second South and West Temple streets. When the alarm came in, the firemen jumped out of bed, wondering if it was another fire like that of the Short Line building. Chief Devine felt sure it was a big fire and ordered the apparatus from Station

o. 1 to respond. When the firemen reached the scene f the supposed fire they saw a crowd of excited people, and observed the special officer at the fire box. He was asked where the blaze was, and tried " to explain the mistake, but the boys just "laffed."
